AT THE THEATERS

Dorothy Gish Starred In Film at Arcade

An author is beginning to arrive when he no longer shows his printed stuff to his friends.

The judge was explaining the oath: "You understand swear to tell the truth, the whole truth, and nothing but the truth, but first say 'Yasah'." "You know what happens if you lie?" asked the court. "Yasah! Ah! You lie to the court, you lose the case, judge!"

In announcing a Sunrise service, a Colorado paper says: "Those attending will be able to return to their homes for breakfast and have time to dress before Sunday school." We hope they did.

The world's greatest craft... the school boy who mowed all day every Sunday this vacation because he wouldn't have had to go to school anyway.

If all the chorus girls in the country were placed in a line it could not by any stretch of the imagination be called a clothes line.

Walking is good for the complexion, particularly if the walk ends at a drug store.

Tomatometer (to next speaker): Shall I call on you now, Bill, or shall I let them enjoy themselves a while?

Her husband—If a man steals no matter what it is—he will live to regret it.

His wife—Having our courtesies you need to steal kisses from me, Her Husband—Well, you heard what I said.

He was giving a girl a whirl in a navy plane.

The something seems to be wrong with this engine, it won't start.

She—Don't talk English, wait until we get down on the field.

Perhaps one reason why people in a small town are more sincere is that everybody knows how much you make.

A New York justice rules a man may be intentionally drunk, probably that's when he's good and drunk.

It is the life-story of a beautiful Parisian actress who comes to America seeking happiness after separating from her artist-husband in his coastal home near Paris. The screen version by Randall H. Pate, is replete with drama of the highest order.

In the strong supporting cast, Thelma Carmichael and Leni Lynn give perfect portrayals of hero and villain, respectively, while young Richard Wallace is very appealing in the part of the young lover.

This splendid screen favorite, whose work in "The Midnight Kiss" and "The Return of Peter Grimm" won praise of the highest order, gives a sympathetic interpretation of the stumpy New Yorker who refuses to believe his own sweetheart guilty of wrongdoing even though circumstantial evidence would seem to be overwhelming.

She is charged with a crime committed by another. Virginia Bradford is seen opposite young Wallace in this phase of the action.

The other feature picture showing is "Blazing Days" a Universal

New Walsh Picture Showing At Colonial

The Colonial theater is showing for the first time today the new picture starring George Walsh. It is called "The Broadway Drifter."

In it, one sees this star in a more glorified production than ordinarily. Not that the athletic stuff is cut out, but there is considerable literature added, not only by an all-star cast, but by a very novel idea which presents a bevy of pretty girls.

This novel idea is pictured by showing George Walsh as the master in a health school for flappers. Very original, and as they say in the fashion supplements, somewhat "bleu."

The cast is really extraordinary. Besides Mr. Walsh, we see Dorothy Hill, lady star in one of Broadway's most discussed spoken dramas; Arthur Donaldson, a famous old trouper who, by the way, presented the screen play. This is showing today and Wednesday.

Hal Roach brings Priscilla Dean to comedies in "Shipping Wives," the comedy feature of the bill.

Miss Dean is known everywhere for her work in dramatic pictures, and her debut in pure comedy is said to bring forth one of the notable performances of her long and successful career.

An outstanding supporting cast includes Herbert Rawlinson, Stan Laurel and Oliver Hardy. Fred Guate directed.

Two Feature Pictures on The Star Program

A fine human-interest story, with suspense and thrills, as well as pathos and humor, mark Victor Scheringer's most recent release for Fox Films, "Stage Madness," in one of the feature pictures at the Star theater today and Wednesday.
