

IMBLER PERSONALS

IMBLER (Special)—The many friends of Mrs. Harvey Buckman and Lewis Hayes were grieved last Saturday morning when they learned that their father had passed away. Grandpa Hayes has been sick for two weeks or more. He made Grande Ronde valley his home for several years and his death is a sad shock to the community.

Grant Tucker and John Birchfield went down on Galin creek last Thursday evening and Friday morning about 10 o'clock arrived home with a big muskrat deer. It dressed about 250 pounds.

Miss Elizabeth Huren and Miss Loda Claver left one day last week to attend the normal school at Cheney, Wash.

Mrs. John Lloyd and sons left Friday for Horing where she will visit a sister, Mrs. Mary Ross.

Mr. and Mrs. E. Schneider, of Los Angeles, Cal., were the dinner guests of Mrs. Ella Walker last Friday. Mr. and Mrs. Schneider operated a rooming house in La Grande for several years.

Mrs. T. M. Buckman and Mrs. George Crouser were the dinner guests of Mrs. Jim Wise last Wednesday.

Mr. and Mrs. R. M. McCoy were in La Grande last Thursday on business.

Ella M. Walker was a business visitor in La Grande Wednesday. Mr. and Mrs. J. A. Keown and family were visiting here Wednesday evening.

Haskell Andrews, of La Grande, was in town Thursday.

Mr. and Mrs. Grant Tucker made a business trip to La Grande Wednesday.

Joe Ross was at Imbler Wednesday on business.

Miss Leona Rosewall visited her parents at Union last week.

Joe Keown and Howard Shoen went deer hunting last Wednesday down on the Imbler.

Mr. and Mrs. J. L. Andrews, Mr. and Mrs. Haskell Andrews and Mrs. C. S. Moore visited at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Cap Tuttle last Thursday.

Mr. and Mrs. George Hardy and daughter returned to Grande valley last Saturday. They will visit a sister while there.

Mrs. Carl Fuller was here shopping Saturday.

Mrs. Albert Keefe's father, Mr. Peiper, underwent an operation at the Grande Ronde hospital last Saturday.

WALLOWA PERSONALS

WALLOWA, Ore. (Special)—Charles Klinghammer and wife, of Leap, were visitors here the latter part of last week.

Maxwell has had three drills feeding fall wheat at the T. C. Couch ranch in the hills east of here during the week.

Eugene Gastin visited at the Gastin brothers home west of town the first of the week.

Jay Dobbins, of Enterprise, was a business visitor here the last of the week.

Mrs. Duane Lathrop and daughter, Mrs. Opal Gibson, of Paradise creek, were visitors in town recently.

A. McAlexander and James Lundberg were in the north woods deer hunting two days last week. A number of hunters have been shifted enough to get a buck this season.

Ursula Lathrop was a visitor here the last of the week.

Mrs. Meek and sons visited in town last week.

Ray Gastin and L. A. McCrack have resumed threshing at the Meek ranch.

Miss Arlene Couch visited a few days the latter part of last week at the T. C. Couch home.

Ed Bell has been busy several days the past week packing up part of his broods on the C. A. Hunter hill ranch.

Much damage was done last week by a fire in the garden track in this section by a man named Frank.

Eugene Gastin made a trip to Payette, Ida., last week returning home Saturday night with a load of fruit. He expects to return to Payette where he has secured work in a packing house.

T. A. Buckle started fall plowing last week. The muskrats have not yet left the soil sufficiently to make plowing conditions good at this time.

Miss Mildred Tennant, who has been staying at T. W. Allen's home, has gone to Payette, Ida.

F. A. Downing and wife visited relatives at Joseph a few days last week.

H. O. Anderson and family left the early part of last week for Payette, Ida., where Mr. Anderson has secured work in a packing house for the next several weeks.

J. C. Conley, county school superintendent of Blaine, was in town last week.

E. C. Dush, of Walla Walla, Wash., spent a few days last week visiting his daughter, Mrs. C. P. Harmon and family of Leap.

J. V. Lathrop has been visiting all about and many other farmers in this community are putting seedling operations at this time. Some grain which was sowed about the first of the month is coming up nicely.

We inherit that many nations from our jolly ancestors, a British descendant tells us. The professor must have been peering in at a dance.

A Russian newspaper says farmers lynch bandits as horse thieves in the United States. And he says that over in Russia they lynch horse thieves as bandits.

Maybe Lindbergh is tired of reception committees. But, come to think of it, maybe he's just plain tired. World's Prize Book, when two women are waiting as husband.

Faye thought occasionally for a really day.

Tuesday, September 20th

Nineteen Twenty-seven

Introducing New Fashions for Autumn

Simple In Line, Enriched By Fur and Fabrics

NEVER has a new season ushered in a more complete or more charming array of women's wearables than the fall and winter season of 1927. Gorgeous materials are offered in both coats and frocks enhanced by ample and luxurious furs. Coats appear in seasonable autumn browns along with the popular dark blues and black. Frocks as usual are seen in many colors with the darker shades of blue, brown and black fashion's favorites.

Hosiery

plays an important part in fall fashions. Latest "set similes" are the most popular in all weights from the sheers of chiffon to the heavier service weights.

Umbrellas

that are perfect in design and appearance during this season are seen in quality pleasing combinations of fabrics and lines in the short and long models, always having a dark border.

Underwear

of linen and cotton with all latest combinations played as well as lace and there many new styles, and new colors in all weights and colors.

Girdles

as "Pantaloons" from Herndon, Kansas and the Herve, modern girls find quite indispensable in giving that rounded trim appearance found so much in the new mode.

Millinery

REVELS in the chief! Cleyer or "off-the-face" combinations are found among the smartest with metallic lace as a popular trim. Charming models from Gage, Royal Hats, Hair and Eastern Hats offer all that is now in millinery.

Smart Accessories

Lead Added Charm to Milady's Costume

GLOVES

in pattern styles with embroidered cuffs and backs in gay colors of shades in which many varieties and textures from Rayon and Satin.

BAGS

of unusual shapes and sizes in leather, kid, silk, and velvet textures are found in colors of tan and brown.

JEWELRY

Lately crystal beads as well as pearls are cleverly combined and many varieties of a collection of black and white are to be seen.

BUTTONIERS

to give flowers complete the costume as well as best color. They are found in bright colors, black, pink and green.

Footwear

By Armstrong and Johansen

The shoe sketched is by Johansen of black patent leather, spike heel and patent bow trimmed in tan kid at $7.50. Other striking models are to be had in patent and brown calf and kid leathers in all heights of heels. From Armstrong, Boyd Welch, Lape & Adler and W. B. Coon.

N. K. West & Co., Inc.

La Grande's Leading Store for 25 Years