Surprise Party Complimentary to Miss Michaelson

Miss Margaret Michaelson was the inspiration for a delightful surprise party last evening when several members of the Lutheran Sunday school and friends gathered at the Michaelson home at May Park. An interesting impromptu program of music and talks was given during the evening after which refreshments were served by the committee in charge.

Miss Michaelson has been secretary-treasurer of the Lutheran Sunday school for more than a year. She will leave La Grande Thursday for Monmouth, where she will attend the Oregon Normal school. During the evening she was presented with a sum of money by the Sunday school with which to buy herself a gift.

Hot Lake Couple Quietly Married

The marriage of Miss Anna Winn, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. H. L. Winn, of Hot Lake, and Arthur French, son of Mr. and Mrs. H. C. French, of this city, was quietly solemnized Friday evening at the residence of the Central Christian church here, the Rev. R. L. Putnam, pastor of the church, performing the ceremony.

Miss Louise French, sister of the bridegroom, and Earl Murry were present for the wedding.

Mr. and Mrs. French are spending a few days in La Grande at the home of their parents, before returning to Hot Lake, where they are both employed and will make their home.

Four girls of the Scandinavian church will sing next Friday with Miss Myrtle Hoyt as instructor and assisted by four friends, which they won during the summer months. Welcome honors and hand bands were also made, Miss Hoyt instructing the girls in the work. Six girls of the group received the honor of being under during the summer, but only four were present for the meeting.

The girls of the group have been practicing hymns on the local courts each morning before school.

OFFICE CAT By Junius

The worst thing about a cat-petter is that he will not let us sleep in the daytime.

LOVE CONQUERS ALL.
He held her close against his breast
And said with ardor choking:
"Chairs are busting in my seat,
But what care I for seating?"
—Youngstown, O. Telegram

And then he held her tighter yet,
And said, his brave eyes lighting:
"My fountain pen is busted, pet,
But what care I for writing?"
—Houston, Tex. Post-Dispatch

Once more he pressed her to his frame,
And said, all reason fleeing:
"My spectacles are busted, Mince,
But what care I for seeing?"

Eye knew better than to try tempting Adam with anything she had cooked.

A young man proposed to a young girl on a moonlit beach, and then hastened to suggest a long engagement.

"Of course, darling, we can't marry for some time," he said, as he clasped the girl in his arms with all his strength. "I am too poor to marry now. But, oh, my treasure, if you will only wait! How I'd struggle then to earn a fortune and lay it at your feet! Yes, love, if you'd consent to wait! I'd struggle as a man never struggled before."

But the girl, withdrawing her lips from his, said gently: "No, George, I'll marry you now, and then you'll have to struggle."

Man (heaving a great sigh): "This street car service is rotten, always over-crowded!"
Conductor: "You had a seat, didn't you?"
Man: "Yes, but my wife had to stand all the way."

"Come here quick, sheriff. There's a hecking party going on down in the woods."
"Who's havin' it?"
"Five cowboys and a horse thief."

A Bar of Pure Gold 4 1/2 inches wide, 6 1/2 inches long and 1 1/2 inches thick would be worth $10,000. An insurance policy weighs only 2 ounces. Yet it both would be destroyed by a fire in your home, the gold would be lost, but your insurance, written in this agency, would be good for every dollar up to the amount it was written for.
