Honor Miss Baker At Handkerchief Shower Last Night

Miss Margaret Baker, who will leave tomorrow for Monmouth where she will enter the Oregon Normal school, was the inspiration for a handkerchief shower last evening given by the women employees of the J. C. Penney company at the home of Miss Leona Waldroff.

A chill supper was enjoyed at seven o'clock and the honor guest was presented with a gift of handkerchiefs by her friends. The seasonal garden flowers served as a centerpiece for the table and were also used about the other rooms of the Waldroff home.

Two tables of bridge were enjoyed following the supper. Mrs. Edna Owens made high score and the second prize went to Miss Dorothy Ann Warnick. Miss Gladys Smith received the consolation prize.

A marriage of interest to the many La Grande friends of the bride took place Saturday, Sept. 17, at Hattie Creek, Mich., when Miss Vera Emmert, sister, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. John E. Orvis, formerly of this city, was united in marriage to Glenn W. Wilkinson.

Mr. and Mrs. Orvis formerly made their home in La Grande for a number of years and Miss Orvis attended the public schools here. During her residence here she made many friends, who extend their best wishes.

Mr. and Mrs. Wilkinson will make their home at Hattie Creek.

Losing Team Host At Auxiliary Party

About 40 women were present for the first evening meeting of the Ladies' Society of the Brotherhood of Locomotive Firemen and Engineers, which was held last night at the K. P. hall with members of the losing team in a recent membership campaign as hostesses.

The winning team, of which Mrs. S. G. Coleman was leader, furnished the evening's entertainment, a one-act play, with seven women of the lodge taking part.

Following the program supper was served by Mrs. Art Wiegand and her assistants. The tables were attractively decorated with bouquets of asters in various colors.

During the evening plans were discussed relative to the Oregon-Washington meeting of the society, which will be held in Seattle, Nov. 12. Several from the local organization plan to attend.

The next of a series of teas was announced to take place at the home of Mrs. O. Cade Thursday, Oct. 5.

Members of the White Rose club, the social club of the Ladies' auxiliary to the Brotherhood of Railway Trainmen, made plans for a business party to take place at the last meeting in October last evening when the auxiliary met in regular session at Eagles hall.

About 12 members were present each one bringing an article for the hope chest, which was sold during the evening, the money to go to the auxiliary flower fund.

A short sociable was enjoyed following the business session.

The W. C. T. U. organization held an interesting meeting at the home of Mrs. Hardesty yesterday afternoon. The coming elections, both state and national, were discussed and Mrs. Edith Hulse was elected a delegate to the state convention at St. Helens, Oct. 26, 27 and 28. Mrs. Hulse is to select two other members to accompany her.

The meeting adjourned to meet with Mrs. George Pierce on Oct. 13.

MENUS
By Sister Mary
BREAKFAST—Peaches, cereal, cream, French toast, syrup, milk, coffee.
LUNCHEON—Bouillon, toast, stocks, individual potato salad, brown bread, baked apples with whipped cream, milk tea.
DINNER—Chicken with mushrooms, candied sweet potatoes, creamed corn, tomato surprise salad, peach ice cream, milk, coffee.

As long as tomatoes are in market there is no salad that can surpass them in some form. When an elaborate salad is wanted smooth tomatoes of uniform size are delicious filled with any preferred combination of fruits, vegetables or fish jellied or plain.

The dinner suggested would make an ideal company luncheon or seasonal foods. The addition of a soup or cocktail would make the menu answer for a formal dinner. The sort of cocktail used will be determined by the stuffing used for the tomato salad.

Individual Potato Salad
Four or six cold boiled potatoes, 1 sweet green pepper, 1 cooked beet, 1 hard cooked egg, 1 small slicing cucumber, 1-2 onion, 4 tablespoons broken nut meats, tart cooked salad dressing, lettuce.

Chop potatoes quite fine. Remove seeds and pith from pepper and chop fine. Chop beet and egg. Pare and chop cucumber. Mince onion. Combine potatoes with pepper, beet, egg, cucumber, onion and nut meats. Sprinkle with salt and add salad dressing to make quite moist. Pack in cucumber cups rubbed lightly with salad oil and chill for several hours. Unmold on a bed of lettuce and mask each mold with mayonnaise. Serve at once.

The Garden
TULIPS TURN MAY INTO JUNE
Late tulips are the great display of the May garden, coming from the first to the last of the month, according to the forwardness of the season and giving the finest masses of color that can be grown. Tall, graceful, with huge flowers, the May flowering tulips have become one of the garden indispensables. Their popularity is really dates in the introduction of the Darwin class in the late nineties, a race of soft but bright coloring notable for the height of its stem and the size of the bloom, which has a series of lavender and purples, scarlets and crimson, and from white to deep pink. It has no yellows.

The popularity of the Darwin brought into prominence the Breeder class, the Darwins being a selected strain of Breeders. The latter are so called because the tulip at some stage of its career breaks from a self-color into stripes, a phenomenon for which no adequate explanation has been found. It

WEDDING IN "FIFTH ACT"

STAMPFORD, Conn.—At last the student prince and Kathie, the maid, his one real love, have gone to the altar. For some 500 times in the fourth act of the play Lloyd Garrett of Montion, Iowa, as the bridegroom, has had to put aside the maid played by Miss Ruth Williams of Oklahoma City, in order to marry a princess as a duty. Now there has been a fifth act. In the costume of the play Mr. Garrett and Miss Williams were married under a bowyer on the lawn of the home bought with some of the proceeds of their stage tour.

Milan Builds Subways

Milan, Italy, was bitten by the subway bug recently when means were sought to relieve traffic congestion in the city that has grown from 400,000 people in 1914, to 800,000 this year. The Podesta, however, decided the cost of building subways had to be paid. A plan for the construction, at two tunnels which will carry the four principal tramways under the most congested section. The present cars will be used.

"I agree with Mary Lewis - Luckies have the finest flavor"

Said Jean Ackerman to Murrel Finley, Blanche Satchel and Myrna Darby while they rested between acts of The Ziegfeld Follies.

Mary Lewis, Famous Metropolitan Star, writes:
"Because they never irritate the throat and because of their finer flavor, Lucky Strikes are my favorite and of all whose voices are precious."
