Promise Boy Is Successful In Finding Father

PROMISE, Sept. 22. (Special)—Robert Runnier, who several years ago made his home here with Mr. and Mrs. Potter, returned to the Potter home last Friday and visited a short time with them and his younger brother, Raymond. He told them he had found his father and that he had come out with him. Mr. Potter was preparing to go with the boys up to where they had left the car and take Raymond up to see his father but just at that time two men friends of Mr. Potter came in so Mr. Potter could not leave to go with the boys. They said they would take the little gun of Raymond's and the fishing tackle and go fishing as they live quite near the river. The boys left and never returned and Mr. Potter has never heard from them since.

As it is known here Robert and Raymond were placed in an orphans' home in Portland when Raymond was quite small as they said their mother had died and their father had disappeared. There were some sisters too but these two boys were given a home here by Mr. and Mrs. Potter. Robert was taken back from the Potter home to the orphans' home about five years ago. From there he was taken to a private home at Gervais, Ore. After that he lived at a private home and attended high school at Pendleton. He has always kept in touch with his brother, Raymond, and for some time past has been located in Tacoma, Wash. He came to Promise Friday morning calling at the Riverside school for his brother, Raymond, but finding that he was at home went on to the Potter home. Mr. and Mrs. Potter have no children of their own and had become greatly attached to the boy and grieving over their disappearance. Robert is about 20 years old and Raymond is 12 years old.

Seven Planes Take Last Hop

Hundreds watched a column of flame shoot up at Blackwood flying field, Nashville, Tenn., the other night. It was the funeral pyre of seven obsolete "Jenny" planes of the 105th Observation Squadron. Formerly used as training vehicles for fledgeling war birds, they recently were declared unfit for further service.

AVIATOR CONTINUES FLIGHT

ROSEBURG, Ore., Sept. 22 (AP)—James Rinehart, Portland flyer competing in the San Francisco-Spokane air derby, who made a forced landing at Camas Valley yesterday breaking a wheel on his landing gear and a propeller, tuned up his plane at 7:30 this morning preparatory to taking off again on the last lap of the air journey. His father, Dr. Rinehart of Portland, brought repairs for the damaged ship at 6 o'clock last night, making the trip from Vancouver to Camas Valley by auto in six hours. The plane was repaired at 6:30 last night but because of darkness flight could not be resumed until this morning.

PROMISE PERSONALS

PROMISE, (Special)— Mr. and Mrs. Halle Taylor visited Sunday with Fred Trump.

Mr. and Mrs. Newt Downs visited Sunday at the home of Ole Swearingen.

James Carper, who has been working at Hilgard, returned home Thursday. He went to Wallowa Sunday and returned Tuesday.

Mrs. Pearl Lively and family visited at the Boyd Carper home Sunday.

Boyd Carper has received word that his father passed away at his home in Hinton, W. V., Sept. 4, at the age of 84 years.

Andrew Fleshman is helping Clay Wood put up ensilage.

Bill Reed and J. W. Carper completed a cloak room in the grange hall last week. The grangers are getting ready for the dedication of the new grange hall which will be held Saturday, Oct. 8.

Mrs. Alice Chenoworth is working at Camp No. 2 in the Powwatka vicinity.

Remeo Swearingen is at home this week stacking his grain and getting ready for threshing.

Lora Barton and Edd Carper visited last Wednesday at the C. P. Carper home. Mrs. Carper was doing some dressmaking for Mrs. Barton.

Ethel, Lillian and Melvin Carper visited Sunday at the I. S. McDonald home.

Sunday, Sept. 4, the widow and children of the late Jonah Trump gathered at the home place and by mutual consent divided the household goods and personal belongings of their parents among them. They had a most pleasant and agreeable time and whenever there was some specially prized article that more than one of them would want they drew straws to see which one would get it and in that way no one was favored and all were satisfied. Mrs. Trump is living near Wallowa where she has a home. The real estate has not all been settled as yet.

Bill Carper went to Wallowa with a load of fruit and vegetables Tuesday.

Alfred Carper, who has not been well for the past few days, went to Wallowa Tuesday to consult a doctor and also to transact some business.

Miss Dorothy Henderson, of Wallowa, is staying with her cousin, Mrs. David Garrett, and attending school at Promise.

Mrs. Bessie Gorbett was quite ill Friday night and Saturday but is now able to be up again.

Mrs. Philips, who has been visiting in the Willamette valley since the middle of July, returned to Promise last Thursday.

Mrs. Bertie Barton, of East Gresham, is at Hot Lake taking treatments for rheumatism.

Edgar Barton left the first of last week for Portland and Southern Oregon where he intends to visit for a short time and probably will go from there to West Virginia to spend the winter with his parents.

The weather here is ideal after the heavy rains of a few weeks ago. The grain has dried out and the threshing is continuing. The fruit is coloring up and everything in general is doing fine. The fall range is getting extra good.

Mr. and Mrs. C. P. Carper and small children visited recently at the home of Alford Carper.

Miss Magill, of Lostine, began school in the Riverside district Monday, Sept. 12. She is staying at Mrs. Lucy Reed's home.

Miss Eunice Courtney, Miss Gladys Magill and Roy Carper visited Sunday at the Ula Poulson home.

IMBLER PERSONALS

IMBLER (Special) — Charley Whitmore, of Bend, Ore., is visiting his sister, Mrs. T. M. Rockman, and family here this week. It had been 18 years since they had met.

Mr. and Mrs. T. M. Rockman and Charley Whitmore were the dinner guests of Ellis M. Walker last Wednesday.
