Dress Making Time Brings New Fabrics

Fall days are sewing days. The coming of winter urges you to fashion new frocks from the smart fall materials now being shown.

Silks are rich and lustrous — with black the favored color for afternoon or evening wear, though autumn browns and dark blues are also popular. To brighten them and give touches of individuality are new ornaments, rich braid, fancy buttons, and other new trimming creations.

School dresses for the children argue in favor of the new woolens—and a variety of new patterns are here to choose from.

Visit the dry-goods department and then make your pattern selection from our Standard Designer styles. You'll find inspiration for many new garments—and material prices will satisfy your demand for economy.

Scientific Shopping

Piggly Wiggly has large clean stores with complete stocks of merchandise. Should you be unable to find exactly what you want, no one will try to sell you something else, or urge you to take a substitute. The well-stocked shelves will make their own suggestions. You will see prices on every item and you will also note how much you can save by trading at Piggly Wiggly.

Piggly Wiggly does not make free delivery to your home because this service costs more than it is worth, and further, Piggly Wiggly believes you should have the opportunity of seeing what you buy in the stores, where you can make your own selections.

The clergy is to blame for the large number of divorces, according to a Chicago pastor. Maybe because the clergy marries 'em.

Zane Grey Sees Real Romance

Zane Grey has written romance. Recently he saw it, too, with the marriage on his schooner-yacht, The Fisherman, of Capt. Fred Kleibingat and Phyllis Reid, daughter of the skipper of another schooner (shown together above). The pair met three years ago in the South Seas port of Nukualofa. Fate called them apart. This summer Kleibingat searched the islands for his sweetheart and found her a nurse at Whangaroa—and waiting. They were married, but on returning to America it was discovered the consul at Whangaroa had neglected to vise the girl's passport. Separation seemed imminent again, but an ingenious immigration officer released the girl "in custody of her husband" until the vise arrived.

Jensen Gives Young Husbands Hint

Martin Jensen, winner of the $10,000 award in the Dole flight from San Francisco to Hawaii, seems to be offering a hint to husbands here. Mrs. Jensen is in the cage in which Jensen aims to carry a lion across the country, via airplane. The lion is the famous "Leo" of the movies.
