

SOCIETY NEWS

Mrs. Reynolds Is Hostess to Alpha Club At Bridge

Members of the Alpha club were guests at an attractive bridge luncheon yesterday afternoon given by Mrs. Charles Reynolds at her home on Washington avenue.

Luncheon was served at 1:15 o'clock, covers being laid for 12 at one large table which was decorated in a color scheme of yellow and pink. Abers formed the center bouquet and favors at each place were rose leaf sachets.

Mrs. H. R. Dixon made high score at bridge following luncheon.

Members of the Jolly Bridge club spent an enjoyable afternoon yesterday when Mrs. R. R. Hart presided at luncheon at 1:15 o'clock.

The room and luncheon tables were prettily decorated with bouquets of garden flowers, a color scheme of yellow and gold being used.

Three tables of bridge followed luncheon. Mrs. H. R. Dixon won first prize and the consolation prize went to Mrs. H. Stevens.

The club will meet again Thursday, Oct. 5, with Mrs. J. J. Peterson as hostess.

Entertain Members Of Church Choir

Members of the Methodist Episcopal church choir gathered at the home of Mrs. and Mrs. Sherwood Williams last evening for supper and a final practice preparatory to the program of old songs, which will be presented at the church Sunday evening.

The program was attractively decorated with many bouquets of autumn flowers. Favors were laid out on the supper table.

In addition to practicing songs, a final five was held during the evening.

The high school girls Sunday school class of the First Methodist Episcopal church enjoyed a surprise supper last evening at the home of their teachers, Mrs. H. W. Parker. About 100 girls were present, the supper being in the form of a gift-giving preparatory to the opening of a new year of school.

Supper was at six o'clock and afterwards the evening was spent in games and music.

An interesting meeting of the Avonlea society has been arranged for Saturday evening at the Neighborhood club rooms to which the public is invited. Mrs. L. E. Bussey, chairman of the program committee, announced.

The program will begin at eight o'clock, and the subject will be "Migration."

This club was organized last spring and since that time the growth has been general. However, a greater growth is expected during the fall and winter. Several out-of-town speakers have been scheduled for programs here and a number of illustrated lectures will be given. Members of the club will also be available to give illustrated lectures before grade meetings at the meetings of other organizations.

The society is a mature study club and the public is invited to attend all meetings. A special membership fee has been arranged for school children wishing to belong to the society.

Fall Meeting of Presbyterian Set

The fall meeting of the Grande Ronde Presbyterian will be held in the First Presbyterian church at Union Boulevard, Sept. 24, presided over by Mrs. A. J. Hill, president.

The morning session will begin at 10:30 o'clock and will adjourn at noon for luncheon at the Union hotel. The afternoon program will begin at 2:30 o'clock. The secretaries of the various organizations will make their semi-annual report.

An attraction is expected from Baker, Union, La Grande, Watrous, Lostine and Enterprise.

The third birthday anniversary of little Miss Marylin Reynolds, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Earl Reynolds, was the occasion for a delightful party Tuesday afternoon, when 75 children gathered at the Reynolds home on Pennsylvania avenue.

The children enjoyed games and

COLLEEN MOORE FACE POWDER

Smooth, adherent — stays on well. Delicately perfumed. Suited to any complexion. We also carry her complete line of toilet goods.

Moon Drug Co.
Agents For
The West Drug Co.

To Organize New Campfire Groups

Plans were made for the organization of several new campfire groups in the county Tuesday evening when the regular meeting of the Campfire Guardians association was held in the Neighborhood club rooms with several prospective guardians in attendance.

Mrs. Lloyd Pierce and Mrs. Hunt of Island City, were present and plans are being formulated for the organization of a campfire group there. Mrs. Stuegg represented Union. Miss Elene Morelock and Miss Williamson, of Willow school, were present and will act as guardians for the organization of a campfire group in that school. Several girls at Greenwood school want to become campfire girls, but have no guardian so far.

Mrs. J. P. Richardson and Mrs. Julius Roscoe were present for the meeting and offered the assistance of the American Legion auxiliary in the campfire girl work in La Grande.

The meeting was presided over by Mrs. L. H. Aves, president of the association, and there was an informal discussion of plans for the year during the evening.

Mrs. A. V. Lindgren resigned as treasurer of the association, and Miss Myrtle Hoyt was elected to fill the vacancy.

The association will meet again next Tuesday evening, Aug. 27, in the Neighborhood club rooms.

Members of the Lutheran Ladies' Aid society enjoyed an interesting program yesterday afternoon at the home of Mrs. Frank Wurl when a part of the book "The Child From Two to Seven" was received.

The Rev. L. H. Aves, pastor of the English Lutheran church, led in the devotion.

The society will meet again Thursday, Oct. 12, with Mrs. L. H. Aves as hostess.

Pan Cha of China, about A. D. 50, wrote the first book in any language on the education of women.

The program will begin at eight o'clock, and the subject will be "Migration."

This club was organized last spring and since that time the growth has been general. However, a greater growth is expected during the fall and winter. Several out-of-town speakers have been scheduled for programs here and a number of illustrated lectures will be given. Members of the club will also be available to give illustrated lectures before grade meetings at the meetings of other organizations.

The society is a mature study club and the public is invited to attend all meetings. A special membership fee has been arranged for school children wishing to belong to the society.

Fall Meeting of Presbyterian Set

The fall meeting of the Grande Ronde Presbyterian will be held in the First Presbyterian church at Union Boulevard, Sept. 24, presided over by Mrs. A. J. Hill, president.

The morning session will begin at 10:30 o'clock and will adjourn at noon for luncheon at the Union hotel. The afternoon program will begin at 2:30 o'clock. The secretaries of the various organizations will make their semi-annual report.

An attraction is expected from Baker, Union, La Grande, Watrous, Lostine and Enterprise.

The third birthday anniversary of little Miss Marylin Reynolds, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Earl Reynolds, was the occasion for a delightful party Tuesday afternoon, when 75 children gathered at the Reynolds home on Pennsylvania avenue.

The children enjoyed games and

OUT OUR WAY

By Williams

Announcements

The World Wide Guild of the First Baptist church will meet tomorrow for luncheon at 12 o'clock with Miss Marjorie Maguire as hostess at 206 Adams avenue. An interesting program has been arranged by Miss Jennie Nelson and all members are urged to be there.

The Royal Neighbors will meet in regular session tomorrow evening at the K. P. hall. All members and officers are urged to be present. The meeting will begin at 7:30 o'clock and after the business session refreshments will be served.

ALICE PERSONALS

ALICE (Special) — Miss Vester Conklin started to school on Monday. She is a sophomore this year.

Mrs. Maud Walsinger, president of the Alice aid, was given a surprise and lunch on Wednesday afternoon by the members of the aid, the occasion being her birthday anniversary. The afternoon was spent in playing games on the lawn after which refreshments were served and the luncheon on the birthday cake were lighted. Mrs. Walsinger received 29 banknotes and a host of good wishes.

Funnel McKennon returned from a hunting trip with a deer this week.

Little Miss Evelyn McKennon

JOEL'S

6 lbs. Sweet Potatoes 25c
10 lbs. Irish Potatoes 17c
Watch the paper for special sales next week.
Money saving bargains for all.
Nice firm tomatoes, create
Gravenstein apples, extra fancy, box $1.35
Rhode Island Red Fryers

"Get them at Jones' Cash Market and your wife'll never know the difference."

The Reason Why — we can sell for less is because our overhead expense is not much and we buy and sell on a large scale basis.

Watch Our Windows for Saturday Specials

Jones' Cash Market
Next to Piggly Wiggly
1410 Adams Ave. Phone Main 130

Free Delivery

had the misfortune to fall from one of the playground apparatuses and sprain her right wrist quite badly recently.

Mrs. and Mrs. W. R. Ledbetter and son, Lyle, Mrs. Carl Putter and Mrs. Ted Conklin attended the hamper at Imbler Wednesday night given by the L. D. & W. women.

Vigil Walsinger plans to return to O. A. C. Friday. This will be his second year.

Mrs. Marie Howell, teacher at Valeria school, is ill and Mrs. Maud Walsinger is teaching for her a few days.

Japan has shipped a variety of waste peculiar to Japan to the United States Department of Agriculture to prey upon the Adande beetle.

The Farmer

is the man with a smile this year, and naturally we all smile with him. He is entitled to all he can get.

United States
National Bank

Patent leather with gold patent-spider wide strap. Cuban in heel. Desirable for afternoon and evening wear.

"Shoes That Fit The Feet"

PUTMAN'S
La Grande's Exclusive
Ready-to-Wear, Millinery and Shoes

Look Over Our Want Ads for Bargains

A New Way To Buy Lamps

You have no doubt experienced the very embarrassing situation of being out of lamps—our new special offer will eliminate this—and be a keen surprise to you.

Eastern Oregon Light & Power Co.

"Always At Your Service"

Phone Orders
Main 94

We Deliver
$2.50 Orders

FRUITS & VEGETABLES

If you have not already visited Stones Cash Store in the last month we suggest that you do so at your earliest convenience and look over the fine assortment of fresh Fruits and Vegetables, you will find the finest display of quality produce in La Grande and the unusual Low Prices will meet with your approval. For Saturday and Monday we offer some very substantial savings in Vegetables and Groceries. Note the Quality Merchandise and the Low Prices.

PRUNES Large Fresh Italians 50 lb. box $1.29	SPUDS Local Netted Gems 50 lbs. 65c	PEARS Fancy Packed Bartletts Pear Box $2.19
ORANGES —Medium size Sweet and Juicy 2 doz. 55c	CONCORDS —Those fine Jelly Grapes 25 lb. box 79c	ONIONS —Sweet Walla Walla's 9 lbs. 19c
VEGETABLES —Turnips, Beets or Carrots 6 bunches 25c	SUGAR Pure Cane Red Letter 100 lb. sack $6.55	SWEET SPUDS —No. 1 California Jerseys 6 lbs. 27c
RAISINS —4 lb. pkgs. of Market Day 37c	FLOUR White Down Old Hard Wheat 49 lb. sack $1.79	CORN —Fresh Local Golden Bantam, Dozen 19c
CHEESE —Mild full cream well aged. Pound 27c	SOAP The P & G Naptha 20 Bars 67c	CLEANER —Old Dutch the Dirt Chaser, 3 cans 19c
JAM —3 lb. Jars of Kerrs assorted flavors 59c	BROOMS $1.00 Value 5 Sew Domestic 65c	PEP —That Better Breakfast Food, pkg. 10c
SYRUP Stones Cane and Maple 5 lb. tins 89c	COFFEE Supreme Blend 45c lb. Green Bag 35c lb.	CRACKERS —3 lb. boxes Plain or Salted 37c

No other coffee can taste like Hills Bros because none is roasted the same way

When Hills Bros. discovered Controlled Roasting, they found the correct way to roast coffee. That exact process of roasting a few pounds at a time not only brings out the utmost in coffee goodness, but assures you of uniform flavor every time you buy.

Because Hills Bros. Coffee is packed in vacuum, all of this entrancing aroma and superb flavor created at roasting time is kept for you. How well you realize this when you open the can and make a cup!

Drink Hills Bros. Coffee. Your grocer has it—remember that the Arab on the can is the trademark that identifies this matchless coffee. Send for a free copy of "The Art of Entertaining." Address Hills Bros., 2 Harrison Street, San Francisco, Calif.

HILLS BROS COFFEE

Fresh from the original vacuum pack. Easily opened with a key.