

BEAUTIFUL NEW COATS

Rich In Fur Trimmings

This year it is fur that plays the most prominent part in your new coat—luxurious fur in shawl collars, in wide cuffs, in rich trimming at the flare.

You naturally expect a smart-looking coat to result—and here they are in all the warm colors of autumn, wood shades of red and brown.

The materials are as fine as the fur trimming, soft velour cloth, stylish kasha and duvblom—fine woolen creations that will wear and retain their smartness. The linings are mostly of fine silk crepe in matching or contrasting shades.

An especially attractive coat of natural kasha has just been received. It has a beautiful grey wolf collar in the shawl style, with cuffs to match—a rich lining of grey silk crepe. This coat is priced at—

$65

Black caracul fur provides the shawl collar and trim for another very unusual coat. It is on navy blue duvblom, the caracul appearing in a wide cuff and in generous trimming around the bottom of the flare. Extremely stylish—best of materials—

$125

Many other beautiful new models trimmed in Manchurian wolf, in squirrel, in caracul, in natural wolf. Prices range from $45 to $125

Velour Cloth Coats at $29.75

You will find excellent values in these new coats of velour cloth with fur trimming of mandel. Most of them have full shawl collars and there is a rich variety of colors. Flares are noted in most styles.

Metallic Hats —The Newest Thing

These are the newest arrivals in our millinery section—a stunning variety of creations in metallic cloth and velvet combinations. You may have them in rose, black, and browns. The new shapes are charming.

$10 to $14.75

A variety of other new hats at $3.95 and up.

Oregon Saving Its Tricks For Idaho Contest

UNIVERSITY OF OREGON, Eugene, Sept. 29 (Special)—Omitting grumblings have already begun to be heard on the Oregon campus concerning the University of Oregon football team which will begin its conference season against the University of Idaho here on October 3, but an eye who has any connection with the team-yell grid machine has not paid any heed.

"Just what it is, anything, has the Oregon football squad got to be optimistic about it? It is a question which puzzled many fans following the opening contest against Lathrop on Hayward field here last Saturday. A good many of them could not figure out how Oregon holds any hope of winning against Idaho, since it could register but one touchdown over Lathrop and could not consistently stop the Wildcat attack.

Although the Web-foot eleven did show very little in its opening encounter, the answer was not found in the fact that the Web-foot could do no better. Oregon and minor variations of her three plays on the offense and run in it, substitutes. Captain John J. McPherson, coach, did not want to show anything for the margin reason that he intends to leave the Idaho Varsity completely in the dark as to his course of procedure against them until the day of the game. He will do this even if it costs the Pacific game on next Saturday.

The Web-footers already have been given between 10 and 20 plays. Most of these they could not be depended upon to use after only three days of practice, but some of them had they been used in critical situations in the Lathrop contest, would have resulted in a much better showing.

Although not particularly enthusiastic over the showing of their men, the Oregon coaching staff was not at all discouraged by the Lathrop tilt.

Del Allen Will Fight Reese In Portland Oct. 4

Delmer Allen, La Grande pugilist, has signed to meet Harold Reese, Seattle boxer, in a six-round special event on the Oct. 4 armory boxing card in Portland. It is announced by Speed Mosser, today.

Allen, who met Rocky Waffy, Jewish trash, in Portland recently was given an ovation by the crowd because of his mixing ability and, although the bout ended in a draw, it is believed by local fans that his excellent showing will result in several fights for him in the Oregon metropolis.

Fire Captain Wins Patterson Derby

SALLEM, Ore., Sept. 25 (AP)—Fire Captain Wins of the stables of Mrs. Robert Emmert of Wilson, Ore., won the Governor Patterson derby in the state fair here yesterday with Jockey Verell up. His time was 1:55 on a track that was nearly deep with mud and with rain falling in sheets. In the daughter Miss Mary Jane Doby, of McMinnville, placed a third horse over the peak of the stabling horse and Governor Patterson presented a prize cup to the winner, also complimenting the rider.

The largest race ever featured by broadbacking fishhook, notably the 2:10 race in which Charles W. Goodrich, of McMinnville, placed a third horse over the peak of the stabling horse and Governor Patterson presented a prize cup to the winner, also complimenting the rider.

Some eye traps, to prevent the sport, have labeled the water "ventriferous." That, at least, is doubtful.

Clipping to their annual long-ride boys' and girls' race for the first place in the National Sprint, the New York Giants were in a slightly better showing today, the result of a 4-1 victory in the longest race Philadelphia, while the Pittsburgh Pirates and the St. Louis Cardinals were idle yesterday.

There are several possibilities for in the National Sprint race, Pittsburgh can catch the pennant by winning two out of three. St. Louis can win the flag if Pittsburgh loses all three games, while the Cardinals win their three remaining contests. The Pirates and Cardinals would end up in a tie for the lead if St. Louis won three and the Pirates two, and the Cardinals one. The Giants have three games with New York while the Cardinals have two.
