Alpha Members Entertained At Bridge-Luncheon

Members of the Alpha club were entertained at an attractive bridge-luncheon yesterday afternoon when Mrs. Adolph Siegrist was hostess at her home at the corner of Walnut street and Washington avenue.

Luncheon was at 1:15 o'clock, after which bridge was enjoyed at three tables during the remainder of the afternoon. Bouquets of the season's garden flowers were used to decorate the rooms.

Mrs. H. E. Dixon made high score among the club members and the guest prize went to Mrs. Walter Heuter.

Mr. and Mrs. Lester Allen entertained the members of the Swastika Bridge club last evening at their home on Oak street.

A pink and white color scheme was carried out in the decoration of the room, the season's garden flowers being used.

Four tables of bridge were at play and Mrs. Herbert Pittman made high score among the women and the men's prize went to Walter Nowland. Miss Grace Allen and Fred Spoth received the guest prizes.

A two-course luncheon followed the card games.

Mr. and Mrs. Ward Fowler will entertain the club at its next meeting, Thursday, Oct. 26.

Christian Church Society Meets

The Women's Missionary society of the Central Christian church met Wednesday afternoon at the home of Mrs. George Rochester, 1341 Ninth street. The meeting was called to order by the president, Mrs. R. J. Kitchen, followed by a song, "More Love to Thee," and prayer by Mrs. L. C. Harper.

A report of the division leaders was given during the meeting, and a reading circle committee was appointed, consisting of Mrs. George Anderson, Mrs. Walter Price and Mrs. R. L. Putnam. It was decided to answer to the roll call with the name of a missionary, and keep in touch with the missionary chosen during the entire year and report to the society.

Mrs. A. P. Nelson was appointed to direct a play to be given the last part of this month for the society and Mrs. R. L. Purdy was appointed to the music committee. Three new members were admitted to the society.

Mrs. O. W. Jones, of Portland, was present for the meeting and gave a talk on what the missionary society of the Montross church there is doing. Mrs. R. L. Putnam, who recently came to La Grande from Salem, told something of what the Salem missionary society is doing, and Mrs. Walter Keller told of the work of the missionary society of the Mallory Christian church, of Portland. Mrs. Leonard, from South Carolina, told of the work being done by the mission.

Mrs. A. L. Voels, program leader, spoke on the subject, "Our Daily Bread." Mrs. H. J. Putnam gave a paper on "Why Should Christians Be Concerned About the World's Laboring Condition?" Mrs. J. V. Caldwell gave three papers, entitled "A Problem in the Rice and Cotton Fields in the South," "The Mexican Problem in the United States," and "The Orient's Opinion of Us." Mrs. C. F. McPherson read a paper on "Facts About Our Industrial Situation" and Mrs. A. L. Voels on "Christianity in Industry."

Refreshments were served by the hostess committee, consisting of Mrs. George Rochester, Mrs. Walter Price and Mrs. L. C. Harper.

A large crowd gathered in the basement of the First Methodist Episcopal church last evening for the "shake down," which was held there for the church membership. Members of the committee in charge were Miss Mabel Doty, Miss Minna Cooper and Mrs. Sherwood Williams.

As the guests entered the church they were greeted at the door by a group of "hand shakers," one greeting the visitors with a Chinese

Those present were divided into families and each family presented a stunt, a ten-piece orchestra furnishing music during the stunts.

A musical program was also given, a trio, consisting of Benjamin Oesterling, clarinet; Dorothy Brown, piano, and Bertha Bang, violin, playing a selection. Mrs. Ray Fuller and Paul Knauts each sang a number.

The basement rooms were attractively decorated with baskets of the season's flowers.

Refreshments were served at the close of an evening of fun.

Union Couple Married Here

Miss Sarah Mackey and Royal C. Young, both of Union, were united in marriage yesterday afternoon at 4 o'clock at the parsonage of the First Methodist Episcopal church here, the Rev. H. W. Parker, pastor of the church, officiating.

Mrs. Sarah Workman and Mrs. Harry Cochran accompanied the bride and bridegroom.

Mrs. M. S. Carol, of Maypark entertained at dinner in honor of Mr. and Mrs. Jack Wilson, of Portland and Mrs. Mollie Buck on Thursday evening. A bouquet of roses served as a centerpiece for the table.

After dinner the remainder of the evening was spent visiting.

Mr. and Mrs. Wilson will leave soon for Portland, where they make their home. Mrs. Bue will accompany them.

Campfire Group Hikes to Park

The Tatapochon campfire girl group, with their guardian, Miss Henri Hering, enjoyed a hike to Riverside park Thursday afternoon, going by way of the Bowman-Hicks mill. They were accompanied by six guests and two Bluebirds.

The party arrived at the park at about 2 o'clock, where a picnic lunch was served, after which the girls returned home, hiking about four miles during the entire trip.

The regular business meeting of the women's auxiliary to the Eagles lodge was held last evening at Eagles hall with a large attendance.

During the evening plans were made for a tea to be held sometime in November. Arrangements were also discussed for a Halloween masquerade dance to be held Halloween night.

It is a good plan to go over the ewe flock before breeding and cut out all the ewes not up to standard, says H. A. Langren of the agricultural college extension service. As to size the selected breeders need measure up to the breed they represent—Shropshire 160 pounds, Hampshire 155, Oxford 220, Dorset 185 and Merino 130 with all other breeds in proportion.

Don't boil string beans a long time with ham or pork merely to flavor them. The vitamins will be destroyed and most of the other valuable ingredients extracted. Instead, add bacon fat or crisp diced bacon at serving time.

MENUS

By Sister Mary
BREAKFAST—Baked apples, cereal, cornmeal pancakes, broiled sausage, oven toast, milk, coffee.
LUNCHEON—Spinach timbales, sliced tomatoes, bread and butter sandwiches, oatmeal cookies, milk, tea.

DINNER—Baked whitefish with baked tomatoes, scalloped potatoes, hearts of celery, fruit custard tart, milk, coffee.

If possible get the tiny individual sausages for breakfast. These can be broiled without any previous cooking. Larger sausages should be parboiled for 20 minutes before broiling to insure thorough cooking.

The dinner dessert is quite elaborate and might be served to your sewing or bridge club in place of "ice cream and cake."

Fruit Custard Tart

Six eggs, 2 cups milk, 3-4 cup sugar, 1/2 teaspoon vanilla, 1/2 teaspoon lemon flavoring, peaches, green grape plums, raspberries or blackberries, 1 cup whipping cream, 1/2 cup currant jelly, baked pie shell.

Use a deep pie dish and a rich crust for the shell and do not remove from dish.

Pare, halve and remove stones from enough peaches to border the outside of the pie. Cook in a heavy strap until tender. Remove stones from enough green grapes to make a border inside the peaches. Cook in heavy strap until tender. Beat eggs slightly with sugar and a few grains of salt. Slowly add milk heated to the scalding point and cook over hot water until mixture coats spoon. Let cool and beat in flavoring. Pour into baked pie shell and let stand until cold. Then arrange the halves of peaches around the edge and inside the peaches put a row of green grapes. Fill the center with any small fresh fruit lightly sprinkled with powdered sugar. Whip cream until thick and beat into a little more than half of it the jelly, which has been melted over hot water. Garnish with alternating spoonfuls of plain and pink whipped cream.
