Idaho and Oregon Play a Scoreless Tie—St. Mary's Is Beaten by Bears

COLISEUM, Los Angeles, Cal., Oct. 10 (AP)—The Trojan warriors of the University of Southern California, showed off their feet by the stubborn, charging Oregon Agricultural college for three periods of Saturday's football game... The game ended with Oregon on the Idaho two-yard line, leaving away at the huge northern forward wall in a last desperate attempt to drive for a touchdown.

Idaho-Oregon UNIVERSITY OF OREGON, Eugene, Oct. 10 (Special)—In a game that was exactly the reverse of everything it was expected to be, Oregon and Idaho battled and rocked each other to a separate 0-0 tie here Saturday afternoon... The game ended with Oregon on the Idaho two-yard line, leaving away at the huge northern forward wall in a last desperate attempt to drive for a touchdown.

ST. MARY'S LOSERS MEMORIAL STADIUM, Berkeley, Cal., Oct. 10 (AP)—In a stunning reversal of form Saturday California trounced in a smashing 53 to 0 victory over St. Mary's a second opponent, in one of the season's most important non-conference games... The upset was as startling as it was complete.

Enterprise Eleven Defeats Powder 28-0

ENTERPRISE, Oct. 10 (Special)—The first game of football of the local high school to be played on the home field this season was played Saturday afternoon with North Powder at the fair grounds with a victory for Enterprise, the score being 28 to 0... The North Powder boys were accompanied by Ward Hamilton, fair superintendent and coach, who was coach of the Enterprise squad last year.

HE SHOULD WORRY NEW YORK (AP)—The views of the Rev. Hugh L. McManis, Denver Catholic priest on "the new woman" attracted attention today... He is from me, mere man, to find fault with what my lady should wear. If she insists on wearing her hair as short as her skirt, it is her business, but it may be indicative of the pagan tendencies she attempts to attract by the lure of her person rather than her personality and men are beginning to take here at her own valuation, a rag, a bone and a hank of hair.

CO-CAPTAINS WILL LEAD ELEVEN

Because they received the same number of votes in an election, Rufus King, a back, and Clem Higgins, a lineman, will serve as co-captains of the Texas Longhorns this year. Higgins is shown above with King in the inset.

California vs. Oregon at Portland. Washington vs. Montana at Missoula. Southern California vs. Stanford at Palo Alto. Washington State vs. Gonzaga at Spokane. Whitia vs. Idaho at Moscow. Portland, Ore., Oct. 10 (AP)—Although the Pacific coast football season is only in its first week, so far as league games are concerned, the race already promises to be the closest in the history of the conference... Oregon and Oregon Agricultural college, rated by dopsters as "out of it" before the season even got started, now seem to be very much in it.

ST. MARY'S BEATS STANFORD ELEVEN As for Oregon, its scoreless tie game with Idaho at Eugene speaks for itself. Not even the Webfooters' fondlest admirers had expected the Oregon line to show up as well as it did against the onslaught of the powerful Idaho backs. What the score against the Vandals might have been had the game not ended when it did, is a debatable question. The fact remains that the half was in Oregon's possession on Idaho's two-yard line... St. Mary's California team, as Oregon, exhibited unexpected strength when it conquered St. Mary's victor over Stanford only the week before, by the score of 13 to 0. The Bears' surprising victory over the Irish gives every indication of a battle royal when Oregon and California meet at the Multnomah stadium Saturday. Both are strong on defense, so it should not be surprising if the final outcome depends on the "breaks"...

ST. MARY'S BEATS STANFORD ELEVEN

Bears voracious LIVINGSTON, Mont. (AP)—Yellowstone park bears are so intent on having square meals before denning up that they are invading villages, stealing horses' oats and tumbling over garbage cans. They are to be shooed away with Roman candles, fire extinguishers loaded with ammonia and shotguns loaded with rock salt.

Chicago police captured a number of geese after they had escaped from the stockyards and drank a quantity of liquor that had fallen from a truck. Not all the geese ever got to the stockyards, however... A college is a place where a football hero, money by a good strong handshake, changes a villain into a gentleman—in the movies.

St. Mary's College eleven provided what may be the biggest upset of the Pacific Coast grid season by trouncing Stanford 16-0. Above is Frank Wilton, Cardinal star, making only long run of the game. Below, Coach "Big" Madigan of St. Mary's.

Yale to Meet Browns Yale will have to buckle down for the Brown game at New Haven. The "Iron men" lost their first game since the 1925 season when they tumbled before Pennsylvania Saturday. They met a great team at Philadelphia, one that looks like a winner in one of the hardest schedules on record.

Eastern Teams Face Hard Week on the Gridiron NEW YORK (AP)—Opening inter-sectional rivalry involving eastern football teams has resulted in a mathematical edge for the east, but the effect was almost completely erased by Saturday's two major upsets: the 19-0 defeat of Harvard by Purdue and the 14-10 triumph of Georgia over Yale.

There were several striking individual performances among Saturday's games, especially those marked by large scores. The longest run of the day was contributed by Gibby Welch, Pittsburg captain, who took a hike off on his own goal line and dashed through the entire West Virginia team for a touchdown.
