DOING WONDERS: O God, thou hast cast us off; O restore us again. Thou hast made the hand to tremble; Thou hast showed thy people hard things; Thou hast given a banner to them that fear thee; that it may be displayed because of the truth. Psalm 69:1-4.

Many Pupils of Union High Are Far From Home

UNION, Ore., Oct. 11 (Special)—Because Union high school offers a greater variety of courses to its students than many of the other high schools in this part of the state, including domestic science, manual training, the Smith-Hughes work, commercial work, besides the regular academic courses, and several extra-curricular activities such as music, debating, athletics, dramatics, the enrollment contains the names of many students from other schools in the county and even from other counties.

Among the students who have been attracted to Union high school are: Marion and Almon Goss, James Ogilvie, and Elden Southwick, of Cove; Alice Gauthier, Pearl and Cecil Haunz, Ralph Milk, Allan Boyles, Irene and Eunice Wilkinson, and Mary and William Wright, from Hot Lake; Wilford and Wayne Ackley, Inez and Vernon Wilson, and Douglas and Gilbert Wilkinson, of Tolocmet; Carl Stratton, of Canyon City; Kenneth Storie, of Nyssa; Clifford Lyons, of Glenns Ferry, Ida, and Clyde Marsh, of Thief Valley.

WALLOWA PERSONALS

WALLOWA, Ore. (Special)—Charles Klinghammer and wife, of Leap, were visitors here the latter part of the week.

Pete Knott went to F. A. Downing's farm in the Leap section the latter part of the week to help Mr. Downing with his combining.

T. E. and Leslie Bell and families visited Sunday with Ed Bell, of Whiskey Creek.

Ray Knight has been hauling wheat to the warehouse here for Mr. Renfrow.

C. A. Hunter started his threshing outfit at his farm east of town the last of the week.

Willard Bell left recently for a few days visit with relatives in La Grande.

There has been a great demand for stock hogs of all sizes in this section of the country recently and many farmers who have grain still standing in the field feel that if they are able to get a good bunch of hogs they would be able to make something out of part of the grain. However, the demand is much greater than the supply and some fancy prices are being asked for good stockers.

Two severe freezes have occurred here during the past week, doing considerable damage to alfalfa and some of the late garden truck.

George Cussins and Roy Gastin were business visitors at Joseph the early part of the week.

George Fisher, of Leap, recently delivered a "load of fat hogs" to buyers at Evans.

Mrs. J. B. Gastin received word from her daughter, Mrs. H. O. Anderson, of Payette, Ida., recently stating that their small son had accidentally run a stick into his nose, injuring him painfully.

Jay Dunn, of Isaker, was a recent visitor at the Ed Bell home.

Mrs. A. Peterson and family were visiting at Ed Bell's Sunday.

A. V. McAlexander and James Loudagin returned home the first of the week from the mountains south of Lostine where they spent a few days hunting, but were not successful in getting any deer. They state they saw a few tracks but no deer.

George Cussins and the Gastin boys have been hauling wheat to the warehouse during the past few days. L. W. Minor has been helping them.

Mrs. Victoria Hearing, who is teaching district No. 40 school this year, spent Monday and Tuesday at Enterprise, attending the teachers' institute.

Bruce Fisher, of Leap, was busy the early part of the week cleaning and treating seed wheat. While a large amount of fall seeding has been done in this community, there still remains a considerable amount to be completed. The continued rains have caused much delay in the work on the farms. While the grain has been too wet for thrashing, farmers have not been able to do much in the way of seeding, because the ground has been too wet to allow a good job of drilling being done. The early sown grain has not made a very good showing due to the ground being wet and cold.

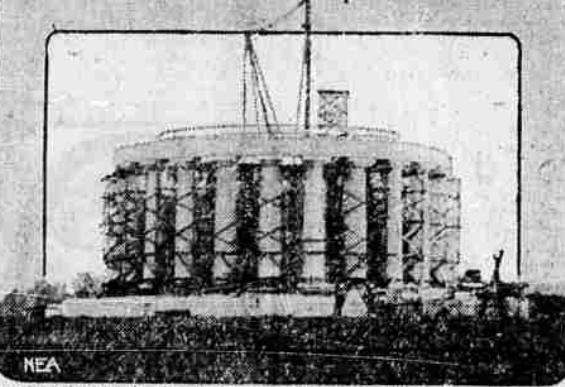

Many hunters were out both in the valley and hill sections early Sunday morning for chisne pheasants. Many hunters state the birds do not appear nearly as plentiful

PETS HUSBAND—FOR $3675

Mrs. Lillie Mack, 53, of Cleveland, Ohio, has a perfect right to get her husband any old time and place. A jury awarded her $3675 damages from the city because she was arrested when getting her hubby in a parked automobile. She had sued for false arrest.

Harding Memorial Takes Shape

Construction of the $300,000 memorial to President Warren G. Harding is well under way with the completion of the marble work. The structure is on the outskirts of Marion, O., a few hundred yards from the tomb where rest the bodies of President and Mrs. Harding.

Various opinions are expressed as to the security of these game birds and many are inclined to believe that the late, cold spring interfered seriously with hatching and rearing the young birds.

Babe Moore succeeded in bagging a fine four-point buck while hunting in the Bear creek section recently.

James Morelock, of La Grande, was a business visitor here the early part of the week.

Henry McKroy made a trip to Hot Lake to visit his wife the first of the week. He was accompanied as far as La Grande by Charles Henderson.

Quite a large crowd turned out at the McLean theater Friday night

SALEM, Ore., Oct. 11 (AP)—For the first time Columbus day, tomorrow, will be observed here by state departments closing their offices for the day. Prior to the 1927 legislature there was confusion as to whether the day was a legal holiday, but that session definitely listed it as a legal holiday. It is not a school holiday, but the law directs that the schools set apart part of the day for appropriate exercises.
