

Smart Jersey Dresses Special Values at $10.75

This is a particular value that will find immediate favor with the girl or young woman who wishes a stylish, practical frock for school or business wear.

Jersey is extremely popular this Fall and here you see it fashioned into very becoming dresses at this low price. There are both one and two-piece styles, some self-trimmed, others with pretty trimming of velvet. Belts and pleats, with chic metal buttons used occasionally, add to the smartness of these dresses.

Varied colors—new for Fall—are available. Grecian rose, tanbark, channel red, beige, and the new tile blue. The sizes are from 14 to 20 years.

The thrifty shopper will see occasion for buying two of these useful jersey frocks. The price is extremely low—

$10.75

Dependable Quality

HILL'S

Dependable Values

Aggies Prepare For Clash With Stanford Oct. 22

OREGON STATE COLLEGE, Corvallis, Oct. 12—"Get Stanford" is the slogan of the Oregon State eleven and it is no idle dream either. The Southern California clash boosted the Oregon eleven from a second division probability to a rating as one of the dangerous teams on the coast.

Stanford has lost to St. Mary's, who managed to scrape a one-point win over the Olympic club, 7 to 6, and Saturday she goes against Southern California with the odds about equalized. Saturday's game is one of the hardest on the Stanford schedule. The following week the Cardinals come north to play the Oregon State team in Portland. No matter what the outcome of the first clash it is very doubtful if Stanford can come through the victor in the second of two such difficult contests.

Neither Max Whitlock, star half-back, punter, passer, ball carrier for the Orangemen, nor Les Ayvif, powerful Orange fullback, were able to play against the Trojans, for which Mr. Howard Jones may be duly thankful. However, these two advantages will be recovered from their hurts and ready to go against the Cardinals. And while on the subject it might be well to mention Ralph Twitchell, who played a peach of game in Whitlock's place. He consistently out-kicked Drury and Elliot the Trojan booters. His defensive play was frequently instrumental in breaking up charges of the Thundering Herd.

Coach Paul J. Schlotter has two weeks in which to prepare for the clash with Stanford. The Orange eleven should be in top form by the end of that time. No injuries of note were suffered in the Trojan game and barring hurts in scrimmages, the Orangemen will have all their regulars ready to repel the invader Cardinals.

POST-BELLEM RELICS

CHICAGO—A large sign advertising "Dempsy-Tunney Fight Tickets For Sale Here," hung in front of a Chicago billiard hall for several days after the fight. When informed that the scrap was over the owner said he knew it, but he "still had the tickets and they were still for sale."

"So far as I know, not a single member of the American Legion need be ashamed when he gets home to tell everything that happened to him in Paris," said the Paris commissioner of police. He's a nice fellow.

NAILS GORMAN KAYOS JAMES IN THE EIGHTH

EUGENE, Oct. 12 (AP)—Nails Gorman, the pride of Hood River fistlers, knocked out Floyd James of Oakland, Ore., after 17 minutes of ferocious slugging in the scheduled 16-round event of the fight card promoted by Herb Owen at the armory last night. The battle was one of the greatest ever staged in a Eugene ring and the knockout came only after the two fighters had pounded each other with vicious rights and lefts through eight fast, hard rounds.

A rout-out from the main event in style of fighting was the semi-windup which Bobby Lammie, the 140-pound Silverton ace, won from Pat Pedalford, Roseburg, in six rounds by decision. The two boys were boxers rather than sluggers and they threw a wicked pair of gloves.

Mike Mead, the popular little University of Oregon boxer, and Orlando Farmer, fought four rounds to a draw in the special event. The four rounder was a great slugging bee and the toughest battle which Mead has yet been in.

No less sensational was the four-round draw between Datsy Cohen, of Albany, and Hugh Covert, of Springfield, a couple of featherweights.

When two of Herb Owens' pups failed to appear, a preliminary fight between Jack Beowna, Salt Lake City, and Frank Munroe, of Boise, Ida., substituted. The fans got a big kick out of the bout which Munroe won by a knockout in the second round though nobody saw the blow which rubbed Beowna's nose in the resin.

Football Rules To Be Discussed Here

School officials and others interested in football in Union, Walla and Baker counties are to gather at the La Grande high school this evening for an informal discussion of the 1927 grid rules. The meeting is called for 7:30 o'clock.

Mr. Campbell, of Walla, has written to some of the coast conference officials for opinions on the rule changes and expects to present these at tonight's meeting. Several of the men who referee games in Eastern Oregon are planning to attend.

TONIGHT—Dr. Copeland's third sermon on the series of "Prayer," Methodist church, 7:30 sharp. —Adv.

FIRST RUN OF GAME

Lloyd Waner opened the Pirate attack in the first inning of the second game with a triple to left field. The picture shows him sliding into Joe Dugan's station at third, whence he scored a minute later on a sacrifice fly.

RUTH SOCKS THE SERIES' FIRST HOMER

Babe Ruth hit the first homer of the World Series in the first New York game, and here he is congratulating him.

LOMSKI WHIPS BELANGER IN PORTLAND GO

PORTLAND, Ore., Oct. 12 (AP)—Leo Lomski, Aberdeen light heavyweight, scored a ten-round decision over Charley Belanger, British Columbia, in the main event here last night. Tiger Thomas, Philadelphia light heavyweight, won the nod over Rube Finn, Seattle in a six-round semi-windup.

PLAY GOLF TO REDUCE

PORTLAND, Maine—In order to reduce and enjoy yourselves at the same time, girls, play golf. The advice comes from Miss Helen Payson, who has just won the championship of Canada. In a few months after taking up the game she lost 20 pounds and had a good time doing it.

SPORT NEWS

BAN JOHNSON TO STEP OUT SOON

May Hand Over American League Reins to Someone Else Nov. 1

CHICAGO (AP)—Ban Johnson is putting his baseball house in order. The doughty old warrior is about ready to step out as president of the American League.

He may hand over the reins to someone else November 1, but he one knows definitely when he will step from the stage to the wings. He says he will retire when he gets everything straightened up.

In the meantime, he has tidied up his office here. He and his clerical staff have swept through an accumulation of papers that tell in stray figures and records the fighting career of Ban Johnson. The office is about in shape for his successor, who, it is freely predicted, will be E. S. Barnard, president of the Cleveland American League baseball team.

Technically, the American League magnates are expected to dispose of the very important business of selecting a president at the annual meeting which usually is held about December 1. But they may move swiftly and secretly before then, according to the gossip in major league circles. But, whenever the action is taken, the new president will find the books cleared for him.

Barnard has been connected with organized baseball for nearly a quarter of a century. He had been a football coach, sporting editor of a newspaper, and secretary of the Columbus, O., builders exchange before that.

He went to Cleveland in 1903 as secretary of the Cleveland club. In 1910 he became vice president and in 1916 was made manager. He held that post until July, 1922, when he was made president.

Barnard was graduated from Oberlin college at Westerville, O. In 1907 and 1908 he coached the Seventeenth U. S. regiment football team and in 1908 was coach at the Ohio Medical University. He was sports editor of The Co-

Select Gehrig As Best Player In League, 1927

CHICAGO, Oct. 12 (AP)—"Larripping Lou" Gehrig, first baseman with the world champion Yankees last night was proclaimed the most valuable player in the American league for the 1927 season.

Selection of Gehrig, who gave Babe Ruth a sizzling battle for homerun honors and finished with a total of 47, more than any other player in baseball history, with the exception of the Bambino himself, was made by a committee of baseball writers comprising the cities of the league. All but one of the first-choice votes were given to Gehrig, who won the coveted honors with 54 points out of a possible 64.

Gehrig's nearest competitors for the honors were Harry Heilmann, Detroit outfielder and 1927 batting champion of the American league, and Ted Lyons, star pitcher with the Chicago White Sox. Heilmann had 35 points, while 24 went to Lyons.

BAN LABOR FOR SOLDIERS
TOKYO—Manual labor for soldiers, such as the making of shoes, clothing and rifles, is to be stopped by the ministry of war. Special men will be employed at regular wages for this work. The new arrangement will enable reduction of the term of military service from 20 to 18 months.

A Missouri man admits he has been arguing for 25 years and never scored a victory. He shouldn't start controversies with his wife.

Amundus Dispatch from 1888 to 1902 helped organize the Columbus baseball club and later was president of the Western Association.

Barnard is a hard worker and many consider him hard-boiled, but the Cleveland papers declare the opposite. When he draws a players' contract, they say, he puts in the highest figure he thinks reasonable and possible, and then stands pat.

Barnard is married and lives in Cleveland with his wife and aged mother.