OUT OUR WAY

MENUS

By Sister Mary

BREAKFAST—Orange juice, cereal, cream, baked hash with tomato sauce, corn bread, milk, coffee.

LUNCHEON—Cream of celery soup, toasted crackers, pear and banana salad, bread pudding, grape juice.

DINNER—Filets of fish with spaghetti and mushroom sauce, steamed cauliflower, cucumber and lettuce salad, blueberry pie, milk, coffee.

Flounder or fluke could be chosen for the dinner fish. Had- dock cut in small filets might be used, but of course is not as delicately flavored as the other fish suggested.

Filets of Fish With Spaghetti. One-fourth pound spaghetti, 4 filets of fish, 1/2 cup grated cheese, 2 tablespoons cream, 1/2 pound small round (1 1/2) tablespoons butter, 1 1/2 tablespoons flour, 1/2 cup milk, salt and pepper.

Cook spaghetti in boiling salted water until tender, breaking the paste in two-inch lengths before cooking. Drain and arrange over the bottom of a hot deep platter or shallow serving dish. Pour over the mushroom sauce and place the prepared fish on top. Serve garnished with cream.

To make the sauce, melt butter and add mushroom peeled and broken in small pieces. Cover and saute five minutes. Sift over flour and stir with a fork until flour is absorbed and blended. Slowly add milk, stirring constantly. Cook until thick and smooth. Season with 1/2 teaspoon salt and 1/4 teaspoon pepper.

To prepare fish, sprinkle filets with salt and pepper and saute in a hot frying pan until a delicate brown on both sides. Moisten cheese with cream and spread the top of each filet with the mixture. Slip the fish under a gas broiler flame and brown. Remove carefully to prepared platter and serve.

Good chance for everybody to rest up when the boss takes his vacation.

Rosy Glow Held Harmful to Eye By Lamp Expert

NEW YORK (AP)—Lamps should suit the personality just as glasses the eyes, suggest Bernice Bower, one of the few women lamp experts in the United States.

All her life Mrs. Bower has been interested in lighting effects, and for six years has bought and sold lamps for many department stores. She is also equipped with a highly specialized electrical knowledge.

The obstacle Mrs. Bower finds hardest to overcome is the general belief on the beauty of rose colored lamp shades. For most people, she says, the rosy glow gives a pleasant aspect to a room, whereas it is very harmful to the eyes and not conducive to work or recreation.

Many men have complained to her that their homes were so suffused with red that their nervous systems were affected. Thousands of such cases convinced Mrs. Bower that people could be made happier by better lighting. She is exhibiting some of her lighting effects at the sixth annual Exposition of Woman's Arts and Industries, held in New York.
