30,000 TO VIEW FOOTBALL GAME

California and Oregon
Elevens Playing in Portland Today

PORTLAND, Ore., Oct. 15 (AP)—Fair weather this morning gave promise of a dry field and a record crowd at Multnomah stadium this afternoon for the game between Oregon and California. Seat sales indicated that about 30,000 persons would witness the clash.

The Golden Bears of California continued the favorite in the general wagering as the game time approached. Captain John J. McEwan, Oregon coach, admitted that his team would be something short of its best on account of an injury to Bob Robinson, quarterback, in the battle with Idaho last Saturday.

"Oregon has a good team and a powerful one," said Nils Byrce, California coach. "We are expecting one of the hardest games of the season and we would be lucky to win."

The probable opening lineup:

California	Position	Oregon
J. Dougherty	LT	Hardley
Green	LT	Woods
Pilo	LT	McCutchan
Regels	C	Stadlerman
Gill	RG	Hodgen
Collins	RT	Weems
Phillips	RT	Wetzel
Evan	Q	Woodie
Evans	LB	Coleman
Newman	RB	Burnell
Quinn	FB	Boyd

STANFORD BACKS COULDN'T BUDGE THIS LINE

This remarkable photograph partly explains Stanford's 15-0 defeat by St. Mary's in the season's biggest upset to date. Note "Buff" Huffman, No. 24, in white sweater, attempting to clear the path for the Stanford full carrier, and note the resistance some of St. Mary's linemen is offering him. Also note the players sprawled on the ground. It's a corking photograph, isn't it?

HEALTH

LATE HOURS AND IRREGULAR MEALS UNDERMINE HEALTH

By T. Richard Sealy, M. D., Santa Anna, Tex.

Member Gorgas Memorial Good health is the greatest material blessing. It is capital to those who labor and is essential to the rich. And yet, many make to attempt to keep fit, even though the causes of most cases of poor health are preventable.

Eating at irregular intervals, eating too fast, eating too highly seasoned food, frequent chilling of the stomach with cold drinks, and eating heavy meals while under nervous and mental strain all sooner or later impair digestion and assimilation. Then the body fails to get the proper nourishment and the normal resistance toward disease is lowered, as is also the ability to supply the normal amount of nervous and muscular energy.

Sleeping is next to eating in the plan of nature to keep the body fit. It is a state of unconsciousness planned by nature to permit the human dynamo to rest and store up energy for the next run. Sleep should therefore be regular and sufficient. At least six hours for adults and more for children out of each twenty-four. Though many of us use many of the hours that properly belong to the body for sleep to keep it fit in indulging in the numerous frivolous social diversions so common to the night life of our country. Only a great crusade for better health, just such as the Gorgas Memorial has undertaken, can check it. This lack of sleep has much to do with so many not keeping fit.

Constipation so common among women in offices, stores, schools, and most all branches of public work ranks high as the cause for not keeping fit.

Saturday were Mr. and Mrs. J. F. Hutchinson, Mrs. Fred Fox, Mr. and Mrs. Tom Eicklin, John Scarrbrough, J. I. Stuehl, Mrs. Homer Cheney, John Sheppard, Mrs. Ernest Kohler, Mrs. Vernon Allen, Mrs. Sarah Shappert and Mrs. Fred Spain and daughter, Marie.
