Reginald Denny and His Wife Separate

LOS ANGELES, Oct. 17 (AP)—The Examiner says that Reginald Denny, film star, and his wife, Irene Hazeman, musical comedy actress, have separated. Mrs. Denny is moving from the family residence in Hollywood.

At the theater where she is appearing, Mrs. Denny referred all inquiries to her attorney.

Denny is vacationing at his camp near Tuning Springs in San Bernardino county, Cal.

FOR SALE
160 acres in the very heart of the Sandridge. Small payment down and the crop will meet all future payments, interest and taxes. Something out of the ordinary as to price and terms.

I have a client who has a good wagon in splendid condition; good rubber; who will exchange same as part payment on a home. He will assume and can pay some money. What have you to offer?

I have, I think, one of the best city loan plans offered. Long time it is desired. You pay a portion of your principal and in time your property is all paid for. I would be glad to give you the plan. I am sure it would result in our mutual benefit.

THEY RUN TO MEET US

Though spring may tardily arrive, And summer may be late, The fall and winter both contrive To promptly keep their date.

We should always cover our neighbor's fault with a cloak of charity, for we need a tent to cover our own.

"Why did you send your son into the air service?" "Because he's no earthly good."

A man is advertising in a magazine that he can teach anybody to play the harmonica in a few minutes. It amounts to a national disaster if it's true.

And one wonders if radio announcers go right to bed when they say good night.

The parson told a parishioner of dissolute habits. "I was surprised, but very much pleased," said he, "to see you at the prayer meeting last night."

"So that's where I was," replied the man.

BEFORE THE BATTLE
"I'm going to be married tomorrow."

"Are you? Who's your opponent?"

"First Girl." "Who told you that dress is too long?"

Second Girl: "Nobody, but yesterday it caught in my karters."

They called her Compass, because she does have her good points.

Democrats to Pick Caucus City Jan 2

WASHINGTON, Oct. 17 (AP)—Neutral territory will be sought by democratic leaders for the scene of their 1928 national convention, it was indicated here by Chairman Shaver of the democratic national committee.

Selection of the convention city will be made at a meeting of the national committee beginning here Jan. 2. Nearly a dozen cities have or are expected to tender proposals with Denver and Detroit apparently have the inside track among competitors.

ABOUT DANCING
NEW YORK—Isadora Duncan dancer, is now where no curtains can separate her from the beauties of the universe in the opinion of John Cooper Powys, an English critic. Powys spoke at a memorial service at St. Marks in the Bowery and said he thought that a curtain across the star was peculiar.

The Rev. Dr. William Norman Guthrie explained the purpose of the curtain was to afford freedom of speech in what otherwise would be a church. Tributes to Miss Duncan were preceded by a service described as based on the theme that those who danced with Jesus understood him. Mr. Guthrie knelt before Isadora in what was termed spiritual dancing.

WOULD'NT BISHOP
LONDON—Bishop Barnes, of Birmingham, would be ousted from the Church of England if the Rev. Dr. Bullock Webster had his way. When the bishop entered the pulpit at St. Paul's cathedral, Dr. Webster, pastor of another church, interrupted and denounced him to the congregation for "false and erratic" teaching. The bishop recently criticized the doctrine of transubstantiation and praised Darwin.

More than 2,000,000 pounds of American confectionery was eaten by the Europeans last year.

AT THE THEATERS

"Sin Cargo" Showing at Colonial

A picture of unusual dramatic intensity, "Sin Cargo," was shown here for the first time yesterday at the Colonial theater before an audience who seemed to enjoy every minute of the film. It has that rare quality of story that holds one's interest with unflinching attention.

One of the big moments of this story of modern flapper life is the blowing up of a magnificent yacht which carries the "sin cargo" and the events leading up to this big scene are fraught with excitement, including a real lively mutiny and some real hand-to-hand encounters.

Ever Gibson, portrayed by the pretty little Shirley Mason, is in love with a handsome sea captain impersonated by Robert Frazer, who is used as a tool by the girl's brother to smuggle in some goods from China. He is caught by the inspectors and loses his ranking as a captain. He becomes an ordinary seaman aboard the yacht owned by the debonair society, villain who covets Eve.

The events in which Eve outwits the man and her safe escape from his hands are just a few of the many exciting highlights of this well constructed screen entertainment.

The story was from the pen of Lueta Leistikow and prepared for the screen by John Francis Natford and very well directed from every standpoint by Louis J. Gasnier. Other members of the cast who rounded out this excellent picture includes Earl Metcalfe, Lawford Davidson, Gertrude Astor, Pat Harmon, William H. Walling, Billy Clenders, James Mack and K. Nambur.

"Sin Cargo" will be at the Colonial theater for last time today.

"Bugle Call" Is Triumph For Jackie Coogan

One of the most gripping and enthralling pictures of the season is "The Bugle Call," Jackie Coogan's new starring vehicle, showing at the Star theater tonight, for the last time. It is an Edward Sedgwick production, for Metro-Goldwyn-Mayer, with Claire Windsor and Herbert Rawlinson leading an extremely capable cast. It is young Coogan's first nearly grown-up role, and is perhaps best described as a poignant human-interest story of the days just before the Civil war told against a background of battles between the cavalrymen and the red men.

Jackie plays the part of a bugle boy at a Western cavalry camp who harbors a deep and loyal devotion to the memory of his dead mother. His father remarries and commands the boy to address his stepmother as mother, and to transfer his affections to her. The ensuing conflict, which ends happily in the boy's capitulation, provides many dramatic scenes with a climax that brought a burst of applause from yesterday's excited audience.

Claire Windsor as the stepmother and Herbert Rawlinson as the boy's father contribute vastly to the success of the film, which has been produced on an elaborate and impressive scale.

"What Women Did For Me" is the title of the new Hal Roach Pathé-comedy starring Charley Chase also an attraction on the bill. What the beautiful girls of a young ladies finishing school do to Charley is a caution and he is the one who is nearly finished when they get through with him. This comedy is one of the funniest that this popular comedian has ever appeared in.

"Loves of Carmen" at Arcade

Director Raoul Walsh's screen version of "Loves of Carmen," with Victor McLaglen as the bull fighter and Dolores Del Rio in the title role, has been released by Fox films as the first of twelve giant specials, it was announced by W. H. Sheehan, general manager.

This place of honor leading off the new season's schedule was given to "Loves of Carmen" because it is considered one of the strongest pictures on the Fox list. The proved appeal of the Prosper Merimee story has been considerably enhanced by giving it a cast of well known players, a rich investiture and a director whose name is synonymous with success, both artistically and financially.

After completing "What Price Glory," Director Walsh's first step in preparing for the filming of "Loves of Carmen" was to secure the services of his "Glory" stars, Miss Del Rio and Mr. McLaglen, for the new picture. Old Spain has been invaded for costumes. Spanish artists and architects aided in producing the authentic atmosphere of Seville.

Miss Del Rio's Spanish heritage and her temperament enabled her to give a most artistic portrayal of the fiery Carmen. With the same skill shown in her interpretation of Captain Blaine in "What Price Glory," McLaglen played the role of Escamillo, the rugged bull-fighter, with convincing realism.

The part of Don Jose was assigned to Don Alvarado, himself a Spaniard. Nancy Nash, Mathilde Comont, Fred Kohler, Carmen Comello and Jack Huston have other important roles.

A cast of favorites, a romantic drama of popular appeal and a director who has proved he can produce great pictures—this is the combination that is offered the patrons of the Arcade theater starting today for an engagement of three days.

FILES FOR DIVORCE

LOS ANGELES, Oct. 17 (AP)—Marjorie Preston, film star, has filed suit for divorce against Kenneth Harlan, featured player of movieland. The charge was extreme mental cruelty.

A THREE DAYS' COUGH IS YOUR DANGER SIGNAL

Persistent coughs and colds lead to serious trouble. You can stop them now with Creomulsion, an emulsified creosote that is pleasant to take. Creomulsion is a new medical discovery with two-fold action; it soothes and heals the inflamed membranes and inhibits germ growth.

Of all known drugs, creosote is recognized by high medical authorities as one of the greatest healing agencies for persistent coughs and colds and other forms of throat troubles. Creomulsion contains, in addition to creosote, other healing elements which soothe and heal the inflamed membranes and stop the irritation and inflammation, while the creosote goes on to the stomach, is absorbed into the blood, attacks the seat of the trouble and checks the growth of the germs.

Creomulsion is guaranteed satisfactory in the treatment of persistent coughs and colds, bronchial asthma, bronchitis and other forms of respiratory diseases, and is excellent for building up the system after colds or flu. Money refunded if any cough or cold is not relieved after taking according to directions. Ask your druggist. (adv.)
