

SOCIETY NEWS

Convention Of Aid Societies Is To Be Held Here

The third annual convention of the Methodist Episcopal Ladies Aid societies of Union county will be held tomorrow at the First Methodist church here, presided over by Mrs. Wayne Wade, of Island City, president of the convention.

About 200 women from over the county are expected to attend the meeting, which will open at 10:30 o'clock in the morning and will continue all day. A potluck luncheon will be held in the church basement at noon.

An interesting program has been arranged by Mrs. Everett Wainwright, convention secretary, chairman of the committee in charge of that feature. It has been announced.

The purpose of the annual convention of the aid societies is to create more interest in the work and a cooperative spirit among the members of the various organizations.

The first convention was held at Union and last year the meeting was held at Cove.

Officers for next year's convention will be elected during tomorrow's meeting and a time and place set for the fourth annual convention.

Mrs. Sallie Orr Dunbar arrived in La Grande last night from Portland to attend the Christmas Seal institute, which is being held at Hamlin hall today. Mrs. Dunbar is a past president of the Oregon Federation of Women's clubs and has visited La Grande many times in that interest and in the interest of the Oregon Tuberculosis association, of which she is a member.

She will stay over in La Grande tonight and while here is a guest of Mrs. George T. Cochran. Her home is in Portland.

Party Compliments Mrs. Van Sieten

A number of affairs have been given during the past week complimenting Mrs. William Van Sieten, who is visiting in La Grande with her mother, Mrs. Carl Gassett, and with other relatives and friends.

Sunday Mrs. Lan Eyres entertained at dinner at her farm home near Cove in honor of Mrs. Van Sieten. Dinner was served at 2 o'clock, after which the remainder of the afternoon was spent with friends.

Sunday Mrs. Lan Eyres entertained at dinner at her farm home near Cove in honor of Mrs. Van Sieten. Dinner was served at 2 o'clock, after which the remainder of the afternoon was spent with friends.

Announcements

The Woman's Missionary society of the Lutheran church will meet Wednesday afternoon at 2 o'clock by the annex of the church. Mrs. L. H. Awea will give a report of the annual convention, which was held at Tacoma, Wash. All members are urged to attend.

The Ladies' Aid society of the Christian church will meet Wednesday afternoon at 2:30 o'clock in the church annex with Mrs. Newkirk, Mrs. Hardesty, Mrs. Gutridge and Mrs. Thomas as hostesses. The trays ordered by the society have been received and all members are asked to come to the meeting prepared to purchase one.

The Westway club will meet at the home of Mrs. James Wade.

What The Salvation Army Is Doing

Unfortunately, too often the people think of the Salvation Army only as giving out Christmas baskets, and holding their street meetings.

Ever has the sympathy of the world turned toward the orphan child. The child without Father or Mother. The child who must look for its life to charity. The Salvation Army maintains several such homes.

Boys are in a sense "Community Property." They are the maternal from which tomorrow is built. The Salvation Army carries on an extensive work among boys, especially the under-privileged boy.

The Girls of the Salvation Army Rescue and Maternity Homes are open to any girl who, in the hour of her greatest need, seeks inviolable sanctuary. Here she is received in love and cared for in love. These girls come from all walks in life; many are victims of betrayed trust, and too often they are only 15 or 16 years of age.

One of the important phases of the Salvation Army work is the Temporary Relief. Illness causes poverty; death of a breadwinner will make a family dependent until it has made a readjustment. The Army method is "To help others to help themselves," and usually these people can be restored to independence.

Besides these important branches of work, the Salvation Army operates many free employment bureaus for unskilled labor; conducts an International Missing Friends Bureau; an Anti-Suicide Bureau; and an organized Prison work, Fresh Air Camps for weary mothers and their children. Young Women's Boarding Homes, for girls alone in a city. Hotels for men, where shelter and lodging can be secured at a nominal price, or free to those who have no money. Day Nurseries where babies are cared for while the mother is out working earning the living, and garments for the Milliner are distributed free from our Store Rooms.

The Salvation Army asks $1200 to carry on the work in La Grande for the coming year. Will you do your share?

Through the Salvation Army you give so that the blessings you enjoy may in a measure reach those more unfortunate.

The service of the Salvation Army is limited only by the generosity of the Public for whom it functions.

"SUPPOSE NOBODY CARES."
CAPT. OMAR J. KNUTSON.—Adv.

Moon Drug Co.

Agents For The Owl Drug Co.

If you are troubled with dandruff, irritated or itching scalp, dry hair, falling hair—see us. We use the Parker-Herbert Method of scalp treatment. We do not use strong alcohol or acid preparations.

PHONE MAIN 759
For Appointment
REYNAUD'S Beauty Shop
New Foley Bldg.

The Bible Searchers' class of the First Presbyterian church will meet at the home of Mrs. M. M. Miller, 1206 B avenue, Wednesday afternoon at 2:30 o'clock. All members are urged to be present. There will be a car at the church at 2:15 o'clock to take all those who have no other way to go to the Miller home.

The Ladies' auxiliary to the Brotherhood of Railway Trainmen will have a Halloween costume party at Eagles hall this evening for all members of the auxiliary and their families.

MENUS

By Sister Mary
BREAKFAST—Baked apples, cereal, cream, boiled bacon, stewed tomatoes with toast cubes, oven toast, milk, coffee.

LUNCHEON—Meat and vegetable pie, onion salad, graham bread, doughnuts, sweet cider.

DINNER—Beef broth with rice, broiled halibut steak, spinach timbales, stuffed pepper rings, coffee, wheat rolls, grape pie, milk, chocolate.

The fish and spinach are served on the same hot platter with a garnish of lemon slices and parsley. Serve the pepper rings stuffed with a well seasoned mixture of cabbage and celery on a bed of lettuce arranged on a chilled platter or salad server. Let each person serve himself on his dinner plate. Since there is no over-moist vegetable nor a meat with a gravy or sauce this is an ideal arrangement, meaning the saving of some dish-washing.

Doughnuts
Three eggs, 2 tablespoons melted lard, 1 cup mashed potatoes, 1 cup granulated sugar, 1/2 cup sour milk, 1/2 cup flour, 4 teaspoons baking powder, 1/2 teaspoon salt, 1/2 teaspoon soda, 1/2 teaspoon grated nutmeg.

Beat eggs until very light. Beat in sugar and shortening. Add mashed potatoes and mix smooth. Add soda to sour milk and immediately stir into first mixture. Add remaining dry ingredients, mixed and sifted. Mix to a smooth soft dough. Put part of dough on a well-floured moulding board and roll with a floured rolling pin to 1/2 inch thickness. Cut with a doughnut cutter dipped in flour and drop in deep fat heated to 365 degrees Fahrenheit. Fry until brown, turning several times. If a thermometer is not used the fat should be hot enough to brown an inch cube of bread from the soft part of the loaf in 50 seconds. When doughnuts are done, drain on brown paper and roll in powdered sugar when cool.

Aimee Burned By Electric Charge
LOS ANGELES, Oct. 18 (AP)—Aimee Semple McPherson was convalescing at Mount Wilson today recovering from severe burns and shock suffered last Thursday when an electrical device she was using to treat a cold became short circuited.

The famous evangelist had been using the apparatus as a cold cure during the evening and about 3 o'clock the next morning her secretary Miss Emma Schaeffer awakened by a muffled scream, found Mrs. McPherson helpless in the folds of the short circuited equipment. Before the current heating the device could be shut off Mrs. McPherson was burned and shocked. She was unconscious for an hour.

A safety council officer calls moving day the most dangerous of the year. Doesn't that depend on whether or not your rent is paid?

Cheer up! If you swallow your collar button, at least you know where it is.

Don't marry trombone players, girls; they always let things slide.

Breakfasts that 'stand by' you

Urged as Essential to Success by Great Business Institutions

THE business world has learned that almost 70% of the day's important work falls into the four short morning hours before luncheon.

Thus correct breakfast eating, as essential to good work, is being urged on employees in such famous institutions as General Electric Co., James McCreery's and many others.

To keep up with your job, you must eat at your best mornings.

Thus Quaker Oats—providing an excellent food balance of protein, carbohydrates, vitamin "B" and laxative bulk, has become the dietetic urge of the world. Thousands, on expert advice, are making "Quaker" now their daily breakfast.

No other cereal grows compares in food balance. No other is quite so appetizing. Deliciously attractive food that "stands by" you in protecting your priceless morning hours.

Grocers have two kinds: Quick Quaker—cooks in 2 1/2 to 5 minutes—and regular Quaker Oats. Get today for mornings at your best.

Starting TOMORROW

Rod La Rocque in "THE FIGHTING EAGLE" COLONIAL

Quaker Oats

OUT OUR WAY

CLOTHES AND CLOSER.

AT THE THEATERS

"Fighting Eagle" With Rod La Rocque At Colonial

Here in brief is an outline of the story of Rod La Rocque's latest DeMille star picture, "The Fighting Eagle," which comes to the Colonial theater on Wednesday, Thursday and Friday. Phyllis Haver, Julia Payne, Sally Rand and Sam DeGrasse are featured.

Etienne Gerard, grandson of a Basque inn keeper, is ambitious to serve Napoleon. He gets his chance when Countess de Lanray, one of Napoleon's spies, arrives at the inn with papers which Talleyrand has agreed to steal from her. Etienne and the countess fall in love and he helps her to escape with the papers, after Talleyrand has had him locked up. As a reward, Gerard is made a captain in a crack regiment.

He innocently boasts of his exploits to his brother officers and when they laugh at him, he challenges all of them. All accept for the next morning. That night the countess arrives with Napoleon's orders that Gerard escort her secretly to Talleyrand's house to recover a certain treaty that Talleyrand has obtained dishonestly. When Gerard hesitates, the countess tells him that Napoleon's commands come before affairs of honor and they leave.

At Talleyrand's house, dressed as a servant, Gerard again ensures the success of the countess by jumping on Talleyrand, gagging him and locking him in a chest. The countess is leaving with the treaty and frees Talleyrand. Gerard is locked in the chest and sent back to Napoleon. He does not know that he has dropped the treaty and that the countess has recovered it and hidden it in the cap Gerard is wearing. Intriguing, eh? And what a finish!

"Bush Leaguer" Scores Hit At Star Theater

Here is an uproarious version of the old story of the ugly duckling who became the swan. It was the style in the little Idaho village which was "Specs" White's home, to razz the lad, to speak lightly of the gas pump which he had invented and on which he meant to make a fortune one day. But Specs played ball with the bush league team, on the sand lot near his gas station, and played so well that a scout for a Los Angeles team urged him to come on to that famous city for a try-out.

Specs may not have listened to the stranger, but for the fact that a certain pretty young lady, having stopped at the station to get her gasoline replenished, had fallen at him, and whisked away leaving her lies in a bag. Specs had found it, read its inscription, "Los Angeles, etc.," and determined to set out on quest of the lady whereupon the chance offered.

Here was the opportunity. To Los Angeles he went, and, unmercifully ridiculed by Skeeter McKinnon, the catcher, and others, he lost all the track he had developed on the home town lot. It was here that the pretty lady again bobbed up, smiled on Specs, revived his fainting courage, spurred him on to win the game and to foil the attempt of her manager (for he it known, the fair one owned the team on which Specs played) in his attempt at dirty work.

"The Bush Leaguer" is a wholesome, amusing and wonderfully human piece. Morrie Blue, who has endeavored himself to no vain efforts, as every sort of red-blooded hero, a star even himself, is this new role.

Clyde Cook and William Demarest are a team of comedians to remember chuckling and Lela Hyams who appears with Monte Love in "The Brat" is certainly good to look at. Howard Lovelace has directed with sure instinct. The photography is of the most modern type.

"The Bush Leaguer" is a sincere and authentic bit of roughneck life that no one should miss seeing. It is tonic, hilarious, you'll root for it. See it today or Wednesday at the Star theater.

A Time-Honored Name

KIMBALL
1857-1927

Consider the tack and the automobile tire and don't go around blowing yourself up.

NOTHING gives a more definite note of character to a tasteful home interior than the name on the piano—when that name stands for unexcelled merit.

A reputation like that of the Kimball piano can never be won in a few years. Only the test of time can determine the lasting qualities of a beautiful tone.

The prestige of a Kimball has been built up gradually through seventy years. And every home containing one of these beautiful Kimball pianos shares the prestige that they have won.

Let us show you the Kimball today.

EASTERN OREGON MUSIC CO.

More Kimball Pianos in use than pianos of any other name

"Loves of Carmen" Features Stars of "Glory"

In the pictures, as elsewhere, history repeats itself. This occurred here last night at the Arcade theater, with the initial showing of the new Fox picture, "Loves of Carmen," featuring Dolores Del Rio and Victor McLaglen. The production was directed by Raoul Walsh.

A critical audience was obviously charmed. Miss Del Rio and Victor McLaglen, who are remembered for their crowning achievements in "What Price Glory," repeated their success over again, although the roles are far removed from those in the screen interpretation of Laurence Stallard's stage play.

There isn't a loose spot in this whole picture. Director Walsh has aimed for realism and as a result he has faithfully reproduced the romance and color of Spain. In order to do it, he sent investigators abroad.

Victor McLaglen, as a matador, is as striking as he was in "What Price Glory," as a hard-boiled army captain. Miss Del Rio, as Carmen, is equally effective as she was in the role of Charmaine.

Don Alvarado, the noted Spanish player, appears as Jose. In the supporting cast are Nancy Nash, Rafael Valverde, Mathilde Comont, Jack Bastian, Carmen Costello and Fred Kohler.

The "Loves of Carmen" will be shown at the Arcade theater again tonight and Wednesday.

Office Cat

By Junius

Is May a good girl? Yes, indeed. After the wedding she forgot she was married and slapped her husband when he tried to kiss her.

Too many people would sooner borrow trouble than pay back the money they owe.

Is anything more irritating than to be unable to decipher the handwriting of an apparently interesting personal letter?

Many a woman would not object to her husband's talking in his sleep if he would only talk more distinctly.

The old-fashioned house used to cause a drinker to sing a few songs before he went to sleep, but with bootleg liquor he doesn't have time to get in any singing.

Face powder may attract the men to the fair ones, but baking powder does a blamed sight more toward holding them.

"My boy, when you grow up I want you to be a gentleman." "I don't want to be a gentleman, pop, I want to be like you."

Diner: "Walter, you ought never to have brought this coffee from the kitchen. It's too weak to stir."

OFFICE CAT

By Junius

Is May a good girl? Yes, indeed. After the wedding she forgot she was married and slapped her husband when he tried to kiss her.

Too many people would sooner borrow trouble than pay back the money they owe.

Is anything more irritating than to be unable to decipher the handwriting of an apparently interesting personal letter?

Many a woman would not object to her husband's talking in his sleep if he would only talk more distinctly.

The old-fashioned house used to cause a drinker to sing a few songs before he went to sleep, but with bootleg liquor he doesn't have time to get in any singing.

Face powder may attract the men to the fair ones, but baking powder does a blamed sight more toward holding them.

"My boy, when you grow up I want you to be a gentleman." "I don't want to be a gentleman, pop, I want to be like you."

Diner: "Walter, you ought never to have brought this coffee from the kitchen. It's too weak to stir."

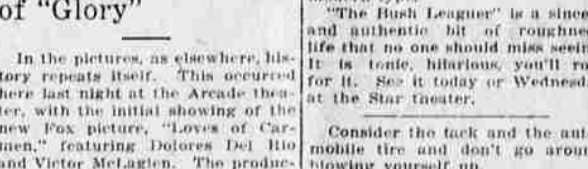

JOEL'S WE OFFER FOR WEDNESDAY

- 10 Lbs. Potatoes.....17c
- Royal Fruit Gelatin, 3 pkgs.....25c
- Firm Cabbage, Lb.....2c
- By the sack for kraut.....$1.75
- 2 cans Shrimp.....38c
- Drifted Snow Flour, 50 lb. sack.....$2.05

FOR RENT—Small house, unfurnished or partly furnished. Call Main 759.

HANDY

—that's the middle name of this

HOME LIGHTING HANDY BOX

YES SIR! This assortment will take care of all your lighting needs. Two 100's; three 60's; two 40's; two 25's—all for—

$2.47

Let us show you the Kimball today.

EASTERN OREGON MUSIC CO.

More Kimball Pianos in use than pianos of any other name

Starting TOMORROW Rod La Rocque in "THE FIGHTING EAGLE" COLONIAL

Urged as Essential to Success by Great Business Institutions

THE business world has learned that almost 70% of the day's important work falls into the four short morning hours before luncheon.

Thus correct breakfast eating, as essential to good work, is being urged on employees in such famous institutions as General Electric Co., James McCreery's and many others.

By Williams

CLOTHES AND CLOSER.

AT THE THEATERS

"Fighting Eagle" With Rod La Rocque At Colonial

Here in brief is an outline of the story of Rod La Rocque's latest DeMille star picture, "The Fighting Eagle," which comes to the Colonial theater on Wednesday, Thursday and Friday. Phyllis Haver, Julia Payne, Sally Rand and Sam DeGrasse are featured.

Etienne Gerard, grandson of a Basque inn keeper, is ambitious to serve Napoleon. He gets his chance when Countess de Lanray, one of Napoleon's spies, arrives at the inn with papers which Talleyrand has agreed to steal from her. Etienne and the countess fall in love and he helps her to escape with the papers, after Talleyrand has had him locked up. As a reward, Gerard is made a captain in a crack regiment.

He innocently boasts of his exploits to his brother officers and when they laugh at him, he challenges all of them. All accept for the next morning. That night the countess arrives with Napoleon's orders that Gerard escort her secretly to Talleyrand's house to recover a certain treaty that Talleyrand has obtained dishonestly. When Gerard hesitates, the countess tells him that Napoleon's commands come before affairs of honor and they leave.

At Talleyrand's house, dressed as a servant, Gerard again ensures the success of the countess by jumping on Talleyrand, gagging him and locking him in a chest. The countess is leaving with the treaty and frees Talleyrand. Gerard is locked in the chest and sent back to Napoleon. He does not know that he has dropped the treaty and that the countess has recovered it and hidden it in the cap Gerard is wearing. Intriguing, eh? And what a finish!

"Bush Leaguer" Scores Hit At Star Theater

Here is an uproarious version of the old story of the ugly duckling who became the swan. It was the style in the little Idaho village which was "Specs" White's home, to razz the lad, to speak lightly of the gas pump which he had invented and on which he meant to make a fortune one day. But Specs played ball with the bush league team, on the sand lot near his gas station, and played so well that a scout for a Los Angeles team urged him to come on to that famous city for a try-out.

Specs may not have listened to the stranger, but for the fact that a certain pretty young lady, having stopped at the station to get her gasoline replenished, had fallen at him, and whisked away leaving her lies in a bag. Specs had found it, read its inscription, "Los Angeles, etc.," and determined to set out on quest of the lady whereupon the chance offered.

Here was the opportunity. To Los Angeles he went, and, unmercifully ridiculed by Skeeter McKinnon, the catcher, and others, he lost all the track he had developed on the home town lot. It was here that the pretty lady again bobbed up, smiled on Specs, revived his fainting courage, spurred him on to win the game and to foil the attempt of her manager (for he it known, the fair one owned the team on which Specs played) in his attempt at dirty work.

"The Bush Leaguer" is a wholesome, amusing and wonderfully human piece. Morrie Blue, who has endeavored himself to no vain efforts, as every sort of red-blooded hero, a star even himself, is this new role.

Clyde Cook and William Demarest are a team of comedians to remember chuckling and Lela Hyams who appears with Monte Love in "The Brat" is certainly good to look at. Howard Lovelace has directed with sure instinct. The photography is of the most modern type.

"The Bush Leaguer" is a sincere and authentic bit of roughneck life that no one should miss seeing. It is tonic, hilarious, you'll root for it. See it today or Wednesday at the Star theater.

A Time-Honored Name

KIMBALL
1857-1927

Consider the tack and the automobile tire and don't go around blowing yourself up.

NOTHING gives a more definite note of character to a tasteful home interior than the name on the piano—when that name stands for unexcelled merit.

A reputation like that of the Kimball piano can never be won in a few years. Only the test of time can determine the lasting qualities of a beautiful tone.

The prestige of a Kimball has been built up gradually through seventy years. And every home containing one of these beautiful Kimball pianos shares the prestige that they have won.

Let us show you the Kimball today.

EASTERN OREGON MUSIC CO.

More Kimball Pianos in use than pianos of any other name

Office Cat

By Junius

Is May a good girl? Yes, indeed. After the wedding she forgot she was married and slapped her husband when he tried to kiss her.

Too many people would sooner borrow trouble than pay back the money they owe.

Is anything more irritating than to be unable to decipher the handwriting of an apparently interesting personal letter?

Many a woman would not object to her husband's talking in his sleep if he would only talk more distinctly.

The old-fashioned house used to cause a drinker to sing a few songs before he went to sleep, but with bootleg liquor he doesn't have time to get in any singing.

Face powder may attract the men to the fair ones, but baking powder does a blamed sight more toward holding them.

"My boy, when you grow up I want you to be a gentleman." "I don't want to be a gentleman, pop, I want to be like you."

Diner: "Walter, you ought never to have brought this coffee from the kitchen. It's too weak to stir."

JOEL'S

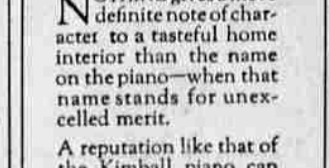

WE OFFER FOR WEDNESDAY

- 10 Lbs. Potatoes.....17c
- Royal Fruit Gelatin, 3 pkgs.....25c
- Firm Cabbage, Lb.....2c
- By the sack for kraut.....$1.75
- 2 cans Shrimp.....38c
- Drifted Snow Flour, 50 lb. sack.....$2.05

FOR RENT—Small house, unfurnished or partly furnished. Call Main 759.

HANDY

—that's the middle name of this

HOME LIGHTING HANDY BOX

YES SIR! This assortment will take care of all your lighting needs. Two 100's; three 60's; two 40's; two 25's—all for—

$2.47

Let us show you the Kimball today.

EASTERN OREGON MUSIC CO.

More Kimball Pianos in use than pianos of any other name