Club Women Hear Schubert Program At Regular Meet

Members of the Neighborhood club were entertained with an unusually interesting musical program yesterday afternoon, when Miss Gladys Miller, chairman for the day, presented "An Afternoon With Schubert."

Mrs. Dale Cox and Mrs. Elmer McManus acted as interpreters and gave a clever little skit, which was directed by Mrs. Donald Pague, telling something of the life of Schubert and his works, especially the numbers given during the afternoon.

The Rev. Oliver Riley played the piano solo "Impromptu in A Flat," and E. E. Hurley sang "The Hunter," accompanied by Miss Miller at the piano. Mrs. Leo Miller, violinist, played "The Bee," accompanied by Mrs. J. D. Meyers at the piano and Miss Dorothy Brownton played the Schubert-Liszt piano selection "Hark, Hark, the Lark."

Mrs. Leal Russell sang Schubert's "Serenade" and "My Abode," which concluded the program.

It was the regular meeting of the club and during the business session, which preceded the program, three new members, Mrs. Martin Fitzgerald, Mrs. Ruben Fleming and Mrs. Carmen Connor, of Union, were admitted. Mrs. Frank Harris reported that plans were nearly completed for the booth which the club will sponsor at the D. S. bazaar for the benefit of the new recreational hall, which is now under construction.

Mrs. Lynn Bohnenkamp, chairman of the tea to be given for the delegates and visitors here for the parent-teacher convention next week, also reported. The tea will be given on Wednesday afternoon.

Announcement was made that Rosella Zura, who will direct the musical comedy to be sponsored by the club, would arrive here today and begin rehearsals preparatory to the comedy, which will be presented Nov. 7 and 8.

Mrs. J. D. Lynch, formerly of La Grande but now of Portland, was present for the meeting and spoke to the club members briefly about the Federation News, of which she is business manager.

Mrs. Lloyd J. Busy spoke on forest conservation and the work of the Audubon society, which has been organized here.

Plans were made and committees were appointed for the annual Thanksgiving dinner to be held Nov. 18, last evening when the regular meeting of the Ladies' society to the Brotherhood of Locomotive Firemen and Engineers was held at the K. P. hall. Mrs. Ossie Cade, Mrs. J. S. Streiff and Mrs. W. Lane were appointed members of the dinner committee and Mrs. E. H. Lyons will have charge of the entertainment.

Several members of the society will attend an Oregon-Washington meeting, which will be held at Seattle, Nov. 15, when they will assist in putting on the work.

Six New Campfire Groups Organized

Six new campfire girl groups, in addition to the eight already established in the county, were announced last evening when the regular meeting of the Campfire Guardians association was held in the Neighborhood club rooms.

The new organizations include one at Cove, of which Mrs. William M. Bradner will be guardian; one in Willow school with Miss Sarah Williamson as guardian; a second group in Central school with Mrs. R. P. Tyler as guardian; a group at Iliana city, with Mrs. Lloyd Pierce as guardian; one in the Christian church, of which Mrs. Frank Hardesty will be guardian; and one in the Greenwood school, of which Miss Amy Jacoby and Mrs. D. C. French will have charge.

During the evening plans were made for a Halloween party for the 14 groups, to be held Oct. 31 in the basement of the First Presbyterian church. The chamber of commerce will furnish apples and doughnuts for the party and Miss Williamson and her group of girls will make the elder.

Miss Arta Verity and Miss Henrietta Hoering were appointed as members of the entertainment committee for the party and Miss Sarah Williamson and Mrs. D. C. French will have charge of the decorating.

Last night's meeting was presided over by Mrs. L. H. Aves, president of the association.

La Petite Bridge Club Entertained

The La Petite Bridge club was entertained last evening by Mr. and Mrs. Milton Price at their home on Cedar street. Three tables were at play during the evening and high score among the women players was won by Mrs. Tom Buckman and Mr. Buckman received the night's prize. Consolation prizes went to Mrs. Nolan Skiff and Fred Jones.

The rooms were decorated in keeping with the Halloween season. Marigolds were the flowers used. The hostess served a two-course luncheon following the card games.

Mr. and Mrs. Tom Buckman will entertain the club at its next meeting, which will be Tuesday evening, Nov. 1.

A birthday surprise party was given last evening in honor of Orval Doan. Dinner was served early in the evening by his sister-in-law, Mrs. J. G. Miller, and her mother, Mrs. George Barnett, for members of the family, after which the party went to the Doan home, where they were joined by a number of friends and four tables of bridge were enjoyed.

Mrs. K. Lucille Dady made high score among the women. Mrs. George Tias received the second prize and the women's guest prize went to Mrs. C. M. Dallas. George Tias received the first prize among the men players. Frank Malotte the second prize, and Orval Doan the consolation. Mr. Doan was also presented with a gift in remembrance of his birthday anniversary. After the card games luncheon was served.

An attractive party was given Monday evening at the home of Mr. and Mrs. George Moser in honor of their tenth wedding anniversary.

Bridge was the diversion of the evening, at three tables, and high score was won by Mr. and Mrs. Al Herman. The second prize went to Mr. and Mrs. John Adkiss. Those present also presented Mr. and Mrs. Moser with a gift in remembrance of their anniversary. Another gift was given them during the evening by Mrs. Lynn, mother of Mrs. C. E. Wales, who was a special guest at the party.

Bouquets of chrysanthemums were used to decorate the rooms. After the card games a two-course luncheon was served by the hostess.

DINNER—Pork roast with sweet potatoes, apple sauce, lima beans in cream, tomato and pineapple salad, grape sherbet, milk, coffee.
 Sweet potatoes are delicious roasted with pork. Pare them and put them into the roaster with the meat about an hour before the roast is done. Season the potatoes with salt and pepper and baste with the drippings in the pan.
Toasted Combination Sandwich
 Cut bread 1/2 inch thick. Allow 2 slices of bacon, 2 slices of tomato, 2 thin slices of full cream cheese, 2 crisp lettuce leaves and a spoonful of mayonnaise for each sandwich. Broil bacon two minutes. Pare and cut tomatoes in slices 1-2 inch thick. On half the slices of bread put first the partly cooked bacon, then the tomatoes and cover the tomatoes with cheese. Cover with remaining bread and fasten together with long wooden tooth-picks. Place in a baking sheet on the middle grate in a hot oven. Toast about ten minutes. If the oven is not of uniform heat it will be necessary to turn the sandwiches with a bread spatula to brown both sides of the bread. The cheese melts and the bacon becomes crisp during the toasting. Serve each sandwich between two lettuce leaves, butterfly fashion, with a spoonful of mayonnaise in one leaf and a celery heart or tiny pickle or stuffed olive in the other leaf.

"PLEASE PASS THE BREAD"

In the hundreds of homes where Golden Crust Bread is served you will hear this phrase repeated over and over again. Why?—because Golden Crust satisfies. Run your knife through one of these temptingly toothsome loaves, notice how cleanly it slices, how delightful its aroma is. There is the proof of honest quality, pure ingredients, correct baking.

The next time you are ordering your groceries, make sure of the best bread you can buy. Specify Golden Crust Bread and then hear your family say, "Please pass the bread."

Some mustard has bite
Some mustard has flavor
Schilling mustard has both

It's no trick at all to make mustard merely with a high-voltage shock -- or with no "bite" at all, but merely a suave taste. The test of mustard is in combining "bite" enough for zest, with flavor enough to whet the appetite.

For goodness' sake, use 1/3 less of Schilling Mustard!
 That goodness is maintained by eliminating all bran and all bland oil -- Schilling Mustard is all mustard -- none but the flavor-making and zestful parts of mustard.
