EGGS CONTINUE TO CLIMB HIGHER

Exchange Quotations in Portland Advance Two Cents Today

PORTLAND, Ore., Oct. 25 (AP)—Portland dairy exchange quotations on wholesale eggs are up 2c on extras to 50c per dozen today, following Monday's late afternoon exchange meeting. Light supplies and a brisk demand were contributing causes.

Medium grade eggs are unchanged in price but firsts are up another cent to 46c and undersized are advanced 2c to 25c per dozen.

Butter quotations are unchanged and the market rules fully steady and active.

Larger receipts of country dressed hogs along the wholesale street Tuesday morning depressed values of top grade offerings around half cent to 14½ to 15c per pound. Veal quotations remained practically steady under normal volume of receipts which were cleaning up fairly well. Veal was quoted mostly at 17½c for choice grade stuff, while lambs were steady at 20 to 21c.

Live poultry trade was normal at steady prices.

Increasing receipts of potatoes from Yakima and Central Oregon districts have brought about slightly lower prices here, with U. S. No. 1s quoted from $1.60 to $1.75 per sack; 85 per cent No. 1s, $1.50@1.60 and combination $1.25@1.40.

for the convenience of the citizens of La Grande. They may use it as they want it, for a convention room, for dancing, for meeting of any sort; it is for them", said Mr. Becktell this morning.

Pleased With Paving

Mr. Becktell and others in charge expressed themselves as delighted this morning with the promptness of the work on the paving in front of the hotel which was completed last night and was opened to traffic this morning. In addition to completion of this paving tract which extends from Adams to Jefferson through Fourth, the patching work on Adams avenue is completed and the rounding of the corner by the post office has been finished. The installation of the city lighting unit is expected to be completed by the opening date as well.

Laying Carpets

Two expert carpet layers arrived yesterday and are now laying carpets in the rooms of the hotel. Their capacity of work is 20 rooms a day and it is expected to advance rapidly. Chandeliers, which are to carry out the Spanish design will arrive Monday. Laying of tile is being completed this week and other finishing touches are being added from day to day.

If necessary a double crew will be added to complete the work by Nov. 15, but it is not anticipated that any occasion will arise for doubling of the workmen. "Everything is progressing to our satisfaction," Mr. Becktell summed it up this morning.

BOOK SCRAP IN CHICAGO TAKES ON NEW WARMTH

clergymen and historians. For the most part the developments were not encouraging to the mayor's case, yet there was neither pause nor slowing down at the city hall.

One high spot of the day was at the offices of the board of education where the trial of William McAndrew, suspended superintendent of schools, was to have been resumed. It was this trial, echo of Mayor Thompson's campaign pledge to "rid the schools of King George's stool pigeon," that kindled the fire which now is lapping at tomes in the public library.

Hearing Postponed

The board finally postponed the hearing because of the absence of the defendant who was out of town filling a speaking engagement. There were sharp interchanges between counsel for McAndrew and for the school board, the latter describing McAndrew's absence as an "insult."

Carl B. Roden, head of the city library and also president of the American Library association, spoke of the proposed burning of the books as "a pity".

His suggestion was that books found to be pro-British be put in a cage and read under the eye of a guard.

Competition on Street Drives Market Upward

NEW YORK, Oct. 25 (AP)—Disregarding recent unfavorable corporation reports and disappointing railroad earnings statements, the stock market today was driven upward in the brisk competition to buy stocks as cheaply as possible. The purging of the market recently appeared to have placed it in a position affording ample justification for a natural rebound and when prices began to mount, conservative interests, awaiting definite signs of a check to the recent liquidation, commenced to buy.

Shorts, who had overstepped the market, rushed to cover, adding to the upward impetus, which seemed to sweep away all opposition.

Several specialties rose to new peaks for the year, particularly the drug group. United Drug, Lambert, Sterling Products, American Linseed, Columbia Carbon, U. S. Leather, Warren Brothers and United States Leather A, and Prior preferred in the list of shares selling at new high prices for 1927.

A sudden drop in Wabash was without effect on the general list.

The closing was strong. Specialties were in the van of the final hour's upward whirl of prices. American Machine and Foundry common soared 13 points to a record high and the preferred issue, with Abraham and Straus, International Silver, International Harvester, U. S. Cast Iron Pipe and Dupont gained 5 to 7. Manhattan Electrical Supply fell 3 points to 43, the year's lowest. Total sales approximated 2,000,000 shares.

Blames Gossip For Trouble in Walt Hill's Home

LIVINGSTON, Mont., Oct. 25, (AP)—Friends who circulated "untimely and unfounded" reports were responsible for the trouble that caused Mildred Harrison Hill, ex-Follies girl, wife of Walter Hill, son of the late James J. Hill, to seek a separation, it was revealed today.

Last night Mr. and Mrs. Hill occupied the Hill suite in a Livingston hotel and word came from Walter that they had reached a complete understanding and that there had been a reconciliation.

Both Mr. and Mrs. Hill said today that the trouble between them was all a misunderstanding and that everything had been fixed up. It is presumed that motion will now be filed with State Senator Thomas Walker, counsel for Mrs. Hill, asking that the suit for separation be dismissed.

Walter Hill declared "you can say that the reconciliation was brought about between Mrs. Hill and myself without any consideration for court action."

"There simply was a misunderstanding between us that was due to untimely and unfounded reports on the part of persons pretending to be friends," Walter Hill said.

TOLERANCE NEED, BANKER DECLARES

America Should Have a Fresh Baptism of Faith, Chicago Leader Says

HOUSTON, Tex., Oct. 25. (AP)—What the country perhaps most needs "individually and as a people is a genuine revival of tolerance, a fresh baptism of faith—a tolerance for the views and acts of others—a belief in something beyond ourselves and faith in the destiny of life."

Melvin A. Traylor, of Chicago, president of the American Bankers' association, made this declaration here today in his address before 3000 of the nation's bankers at the 53rd annual convention of the organization.

Serenely confident that American bankers have the enduring machinery to become the intelligent custodians of the world's credit supply, Mr. Traylor warned against inexpert tinkering with it.

Discusses Dawes Plan

Among a wide range of subjects the president of the association discussed the Dawes plan, which he said most bankers in the beginning thought would fail but who subsequently had witnessed vast sums being poured into Germany; foreign investments, which had become the concern of every man, banker and investor alike, whether it pleased them or not; relief for the farmer, the way to which had not yet appeared; the federal reserve act, which had been criticized but which should not be fundamentally changed and which probably needed smoother administration and maybe strengthening; reformers, at whom he aimed a good natured shaft, and taxes, about which he was not alarmed.

Americans are realizing the responsibility of living in a billion dollar age in a billion dollar country, James Francis Burke, general counsel of the Pittsburg clearing house association reported to the general assembly.

Advises Bankers

H. C. Nicholson, vice president of the Omaha National bank, advised the national bank division "not to keep all your eggs in one basket." He listed Liberty bonds as the utmost in safety, and found call loans were well protected by highly negotiable security. He advocated purchase of commercial paper as sound banking.

A service charge on small accounts to make possible a fair net earning for all departments of banking, was advocated by John S. Love, superintendent of banks in Mississippi.

A report by the protective committee of the association deplored the practice of crime insurance companies to compromise with criminals in the return of stolen property and urged a relentless war on robbers. The committee found "this evil seemed to grow in proportion to the increase volume of insurance carried."
