Union's Eleven Beats Wallowa Friday, 12 to 6

UNION, Ore., Oct. 25 (Special)—Union high school football eleven just defeated the strong Wallowa team on the former's grid-iron Friday afternoon.

With two or three of the boys still in poor condition for playing as a result of the Baker game last Saturday and with Jack Orr out of the backfield, Union was apprehensive about the result of the encounter with the Wallowa eleven.

One thing caused a bit of gloom in the ranks of the Oregon state agricultural college players, and that was the fact that Dave Luby, the little half, would be out of the lineup because of an injury he suffered in the game with Southern California.

Coach Babe Hollingberry and 17 of his troops arrived here late yesterday and took a workout. He announced his men in good condition. The probable starting lineup:

W. E. C. Position O. A. C. Parkehill LE Rothlis R. Spindel LT Kent L. Hansen LG Bader G. Graham C Godesse F. Fleck RG Eilers J. Drewehl RT Schell E. Exley ME Logan M. Meeker Q Maple R. Rohrer LH Riedt H. Wilson RH Whitlock G. Gustafson P Gilmore

Note—Because of delay in the mails of advance radio programs for several western stations, The Observer is unable to give as complete a list as usual today.
