St. Peter's Aid Annual Bazaar Is Successful

The annual bazaar given by St. Peter's Aid society of the Episcopal church took place Saturday at Ho-

The bazaar opened at 1 o'clock in the afternoon and before 7 o'clock in the evening practically all of the booths were sold out.

An article of special interest was a hand-made napkin ring, which was sent to Mrs. W. P. Remington of Pendleton, wife of the Rt. Rev. W. P. Remington, bishop of the eastern Oregon diocese of the Epis-

From 5 o'clock until 7 a chicken dinner was served in the dining room of the hall, which was in charge of Mrs. G. N. Tarkington. The Rev. and Mrs. J. S. Hester, of Baker, were among the out-of-town guests present for the dinner.

The money raised from the bazaar will go toward the church organ fund. A complete report of the bazaar will be given Wednesday afternoon when the aid society will meet at 2 o'clock at the rectory with Mrs. Oliver-Billy.

Members and friends of the Methodist Episcopal church Sunday evening at a harvest festival Friday evening at the church when an interesting program was given. Miss Marian Webb sang a solo and Misses Eleanor and Florence Hicks played a piano duet.

The Sons and Daughters of Union Veterans of the Civil War will meet in the basement of the Christian church tonight at 8 o'clock.

The Cove Women's Improvement club bazaar, announced for Nov. 17, will be held Nov. 22, instead.

A cafeteria lunch was served by the committee in charge following the program, the proceeds from which go to the women's missionary society of the church.

P-T. Associations I. Meeting Friday

A program was given Friday evening at the Island City school house by the Parent-Teacher association, with a large crowd in attendance.

Paul Knautz sang a solo "Holy Night" accompanied by Mrs. Knautz at the piano. Story slides of "The Other Wise Man" were shown by Mr. Hunt, principal of the school, and while the slides were being shown the story was read by Mrs. Ethel DeHarris.

Following the program refreshments were served by the social committee, of which Mrs. Alex Robertson is chairman, assisted by several of the members of the organization.

More than 100 persons attended a program and cafeteria supper given by the Fruitdale Parent-Teacher association Friday evening at the school. An interesting program was given after which supper was enjoyed. A total of $16.31 was cleared, which will go to the treasury of the association to purchase supplies for the new school building.

The program opened with two songs by the school, followed by a reading by Mrs. Alma Carroll. Mrs. Nell Thacker sang a solo, accompanied by Eldridge Huffman. Howard Carper gave a reading and Tom Carpenter sang a selection. Recitations were given by little Miss Ansell and by the little Salkeld boy.

Mrs. C. F. McPherson, district vice president of the Oregon Congress Parents and Teachers, sang a selection. An instrumental trio, consisting of Eldridge Huffman and Frank and Johnny Young, accompanied by Miss Alice Struck, furnished several musical numbers.

ENTERPRISE (Special)—Alice Zurcher entertained 12 little boys, members of her Sunday school class, at her home here Saturday evening. After games were enjoyed, Miss Zurcher took the boys

Photographs of Frederick J. Fisher of Detroit, philanthropist and high official in the General Motors Corporation, are rarely obtained. This one, showing Mr. and Mrs. Fisher, was taken upon the opening of a $750,000 home for nurses that was their gift to the Charity of St. Vincent de Paul.

Since children under school age or under eight years of age are served oysters for their luncheon, evening meal. They will find an excellent variety in the sweet potatoes, spinach, salad and dessert without missing the ham.

Three lemons, 3 oranges, 2 cups granulated sugar, 4 cups milk, 1 cup cream, 1 tablespoon granulated gelatin, 4 tablespoons cold water.

Squeeze juice from lemons and oranges and press pulp of bananas through ricer. Mix thoroughly with sugar and stir in gelatin softened for five minutes in cold water and dissolved over hot water. Add milk and turn into freezer. Freeze to a "mush" and beat in cream beaten until firm. Finish freezing and serve in orange shells.

Bridge Pointers

By Milton C. Work

The pointer for today is: Normal support precludes denial of partner's major, but does not preclude an overcall of partner's minor.

It is very usual for a partnership to hold hands which, combined, do not contain a game at No Trump, but which will produce exactly ten tricks with their best suit the trump. Such hands obviously contain a Major game only; not a Minor which requires eleven tricks. Therefore partner's Major bid should not be changed except under unusual conditions; but the same doctrine does not apply to a Minor bid, because it is not so apt to be a gamegoer. Even with a bid more than normal support for the Minor, it seldom has the best chance for game and generally the partner should bid another suit or No Trump.

To illustrate today's pointer, take this North hand: Suit 1. Ace-10-x-x. Suit 2. Ace-x-x. Suit 3. Ace-x-x. Suit 4. x-x-x.

If Suit 1 be a Major which South has bid initially and West has passed, North should not give the slightest consideration to a No Trump, regardless of his three Aces. Why risk an unstopped suit? He should either pass or jump. (By "jump" I mean raise the partner's bid when the intervening adversary has passed.) If, after South's bid of Suit 1 (that suit being a Major), West should bid Suit 2 or 3 which are stopped, North should even more securely assist South's Major, not bid No Trump. But if Suit 1 be a Minor and South bid it, North should bid No Trump if West pass or bid Suit 2 or 3. Only if West bid Suit 4 should the partner's Minor be John F. Dille Co.)

QUIT DAY FOR DUCHE

HOME—A quiet day at home for Musciling; played the violin in his music room to the accompaniment of a mechanical piano; played with his cats; went out to his private riding course and took high jumps; posed for his portrait in riding togs, with one hand on his hip, the other clenched on a table. He thinks this work of Howard Chandler Christy is the best ever made of him.

It seems President Coolidge called in Senator Foss to explain that what he meant when he said he "did not choose to run" was that he "did not choose to run."

"I agree with Morris Gest Luckies are most enjoyable"

Said Nikita Balieff, leader of Chauve-Souris, to one of his stars, during a performance of their nation-wide tour.

Morris Gest, World-famous Theatrical Producer, writes:

"Most of the American actors in my productions smoke Lucky Strikes—if not, I recommend these cigarettes because they protect the voice and are more enjoyable. Likewise I suggested Lucky Strikes to the Russian cast of Balieff's Chauve-Souris, which I am bringing back to America. First the men adopted them, then the women. To give the public one's best, either in spoken parts or in singing, my stars appreciate that Lucky Strikes are ever kind to the throat and are always superior in flavor."

You, too, will find that LUCKY STRIKES give the greatest pleasure—Mild and Mellow, the finest cigarettes you ever smoked. Made of the choicest tobaccos, properly aged and blended with great skill, and there is an extra process—"IT'S TOASTED"—no harshness, not a bit of bite.

"It's toasted" No Throat Irritation—No Cough.
