

IMBLER PERSONALS

IMBLER (Special)—Prof. Warren, the magician, gave a very interesting program Tuesday night in the Wood hall under the auspices of members of the Woodmen of the World. There was a large crowd and they succeeded in getting 22 new members.

Mrs. Joe Brown, Mrs. Archie Brown and Mrs. M. Walker visited the packing houses at Elgin one day last week.

Art Johnson returned to his work here last Sunday. He was called to Wallawa because of his mother's illness. On his return he reported her as much improved.

H. W. Cowan left Sunday for his home at the Twin Umbrella auto camp near Portland. He spent the weekend visiting friends here.

Marvin Wright and Clarence Brown were in La Grande last Sunday.

The many friends of Mrs. Mike Royce are glad to learn that she is improving and was able to be brought home last Saturday from Hot Lake where she has been taking treatments.

Mrs. Pieper has moved from her ranch north of Summerville into the Keefe estate. She will stay for the winter. Her father is visiting her and plans on staying until spring.

An eight and one-half pound baby boy was born to Mr. and Mrs. Dick Page last Wednesday, Nov. 8.

Mother and baby are getting along nicely.

Rose Perry has a new coach. He drove in from Portland one day last week.

Mr. and Mrs. Clement Thatcher and baby, of Huntington, spent Armistice day at the home of her parents, Mr. and Mrs. Frank McKinnis.

Edison Conklin arrived here last Sunday. He will visit friends and relatives for a few days.

Miss Gail Tucker returned to Cave last Sunday.

Karl Stackland, of Cove, was transacting business here last Tuesday.

Mr. and Mrs. John Skilling and children, of Wallawa, were visiting friends here last Friday.

Mrs. Ish Littered was bothered last week with rheumatism in one of her feet.

LINDY AND RUTH

WASHINGTON—The tall handsome king and the petite queen of aviation made a handsome picture together. When they posed Ruth was the envy of girls who gathered outside the White House and called in vain "Lindy." Lindy, we want to see you. "You are a very plucky girl," said the king to the queen. "He's a peach," said the queen of the king.

No one knows who the two parties will allow us to choose from, but the ordinary citizen has a great hankering for a fight for the presidency between Charlie Davis and Jim Reed.

WALLOWA PERSONALS

WALLOWA, Ore. (Special)—George Cassin was called to Eugene the first of the week by the sudden death of Mrs. Laura Langston, who passed away Nov. 6 of heart disease.

Brace Fisher and wife, of Leap, were visitors here during the week. Mr. Fisher brought in some fat hogs which he sold here. Mr. and Mrs. Harmon were in town the latter part of the week bringing some chickens for shipment to Walla Walla, Wash.

Roy Gaslin and Sam Meek were Enterprise business visitors the latter part of the week.

E. A. Crowder, of the Chapman district north of Lostine, was a business visitor in town last week.

Lawrence Ford, of Powhatan, was a recent business visitor. He reports roads quite bad between here and that section of the country.

Scott Powell, one of the old timers of this end of the valley and who makes his home with the E. R. Johnson family, was in town last week. Mr. Powell is well advanced in years, but reports his health exceptionally good for one of his age, stating he has been able to work some at outside chores every day, having just recently finished the work of getting in the garden truck at home.

Mrs. Elmer Osborn, of Parsnip Creek, was a visitor in town last week.

The dirt roads in all sections of the county are becoming quite muddy. The weather has caused deep ruts to be cut in many places, which remain full of mud and water and keep getting deeper.

The recent work of resurfacing a large portion of the highway between here and the upper end of the valley, has put the highway in the best condition it has been in since the road was built.

The short market roads are also in good condition.

TEACHER WINS $5,000—ALEXANDER, La.—Miss Mabel Alexander, school teacher, has been awarded a prize of $5,000 for a treatise on "Louisiana" which will be used as a text book in the state high schools. The Louisiana Teachers' Association offered the prize.

Joe Gaslin made a trip to Cassin River, near Lostine the first of the week, to help the Cassins with hauling of their wheat to the warehouse at Evans.
