Bible Searchers' Class Meets at Humphreys Home

Mrs. C. M. Humphreys and Mrs. C. W. Thompson were hostesses to the Bible Searchers' class of the First Presbyterian church yesterday afternoon at the home of Mrs. Humphreys on Oak street.

About 25 members were present for the meeting, which was presided over by Mrs. Harry Turner, president. Many gifts were received for the Christmas box, which will be sent to Miss Mable Titman, missionary, for the Presbyterian mission school at Santa Fe, New Mexico.

During the afternoon, Mrs. H. H. Cleaver gave a talk on "Good Books" in keeping with book week. She also told a story of missionary work in China. Miss Bethel Trill sang two numbers, accompanied by Miss Virginia Hoelm at the piano. The rooms were decorated in a color scheme of yellow and green, bouquets of the season's flowers being used. The hostesses served luncheon during the social hour, which followed the program.

Mrs. Jack Hatt, Mrs. C. E. Wate, Mrs. H. E. Williams and Mrs. Clyde Webb were hostesses at an attractive bridge party yesterday afternoon at the Hatt home on Washington avenue.

Baskets of yellow chrysanthemums were effectively arranged about the rooms, where nine tables of bridge were at play during the afternoon.

Mrs. H. H. Smith made high score and the second prize went to Mrs. J. E. O'Connell. Mrs. Hag Goodenough received the third prize and Mrs. E. Jacobson the fourth. Consolation went to Mrs. Claude Mackey.

After the games a two-course luncheon was enjoyed.

Members of the Past Matrons' club of Holy Chapter, Order of the Eastern Star, were entertained last evening by Mrs. C. M. Humphreys and Mrs. Anna Leslie at the Masonic lodge rooms.

A short business meeting was held during the early part of the evening, when plans were made for a family dinner, for all members of the Past Matrons' club and their families, which will be held Nov. 20 at the Masonic hall.

Following the business session, the remainder of the evening was pleasantly spent in a social visit around the fireplace. The hostesses served refreshments.

Campfire Guardians Plan Summer Camp

An interesting meeting of the Campfire Girls Guardians' association was held Tuesday evening in the Neighborhood club rooms with a large attendance. Mrs. Leif H. Awee presided over the business session and a report from the Hallweden party was heard, after which summer camp was discussed. Miss Myrtle Hoyt gave a report of the organization work in Baker so far, and the announcement of book week and the meeting of all campfire girls at the library tomorrow evening at 4 o'clock to hear a talk on "Good Books for Girls" was made.

Mrs. Awee resigned as chairman of the association, and Miss Myrtle Hoyt was elected to the office. Miss Sarah Williamson was elected to the office of treasurer, formerly held by Miss Hoyt.

Mrs. W. T. Phay reported from national headquarters. Every group here is registered at headquarters, and the guardians' association is now working toward the organization of an Eastern Oregon council and its registration with national headquarters.

After the business session adjourned, E. Russell Scott, scout executive of the Eastern Oregon boy scout council, spoke on "The Summer Camp." He stressed the fact that leadership must be of the highest quality for the product to be accordingly. He told of the importance of a well balanced menu in camp, of activities worthwhile for a summer camp, and of the importance of discipline.

The Loyd Sisters of the Christian church met yesterday afternoon at the home of Mrs. Harry Sandos, with Mrs. Sandos, Mrs. J. H. Sandgrass and Mrs. J. L. McPherson as hostesses.

During the business session plans were made for the bazaar, which will be given by the society Saturday, Dec. 3. Committees have been working for several weeks preparatory to the bazaar and all plans are now practically complete. A social hour followed the adjournment of the business meeting when the hostess served refreshments.

A program on "The Development of Buddhism in India" was given yesterday afternoon when the Missionary society of the English Lutheran church met at the parsonage with the Rev. Leif H. Awee as leader.

During the business meeting the society voted to pay postage on a Christmas box, which is being made up by the Sitkalawa campfire girl group to be sent to the neglected babies' hospital in the West India islands. The society also voted to foster Golden Rule Sunday, Dec. 4.

The Ladies' auxiliary to the Brotherhood of Railway Trainmen met Tuesday evening in regular session at Eagles' hall.

During the business session reports of delegates who attended the state meeting in Portland were heard.

A social hour was enjoyed when refreshments were served by the hostess committee: Mrs. Nora Courtney, Mrs. Blanche M. Cartwright, Mrs. Hazel Denny and Mrs. Hazel Coughenower.

Officers for the new year will be elected at the next meeting of the lodge Tuesday, Dec. 6.

Announcements

The Mother's Self Culture club will meet with Mrs. A. L. Stoddard, 1504 Fourth street, Friday afternoon at 2:30 o'clock.

A "Harvest Festival" will be given by the Willow Parent-Teacher association at the school building tomorrow evening. There will be a program and refreshments. All members are requested to attend.

The Central Parent-Teacher association will meet tomorrow afternoon in the Neighborhood club rooms.

MENUS

By Sister Mary
BREAKFAST—Stewed prunes with lemon, cereal, cream, soft cooked eggs, crisp toast, milk, coffee.

LUNCHEON—Cream of spinach soup, croquettes, cottage cheese sandwiches, apple tapioca pudding, milk, tea.

DINNER—Noodle soup, broiled ham, stuffed onions, head lettuce with Russian dressing, pumpkin pie, milk, coffee.

The luncheon menu is ideal for young children. Too many mothers think that after a child is three or four years old he can "eat anything." However, constant care of his diet is necessary just as long as he is growing and making bone and muscle.

Stuffed Onions
Four medium sized Spanish onions, 1 cup mashed potatoes, 2 tablespoons rich milk or cream, 1 cup sausage meat, 1/2 teaspoon salt, 1/2 teaspoon pepper, 1 egg, 1 cup beef broth.

Peel onions and cut a slice from "top" end of each. Drop into 4 cups of boiling water containing 1 teaspoon salt, boil 12 minutes. Drain and drop into cold water for one minute. Drain and scoop out inside of each. Season mashed potatoes with salt and pepper and beat in cream. Mix thoroughly with sausage and add egg well beaten. Beat well and fill cavities of onions with mixture. Place in a pan just large enough to hold the onions without touching and simmer until tender, about 40 minutes. Serve surrounding ham.

JOHN HER BEAT
SCOTTISH HALEY, Mass.—Well, Florence Trumbull has been graduated and Mount Holyoke college is much nearer Amherst than Hartford, or Plainville, Conn., and a dance is a dance. Miss Sarah Kungis, of Mt. Vernon, N. Y., tall blonde sophomore, had at the first formal college affair of the no less a beau than John Coolidge.

Three cases of typhoid were added to the 10 or 12 already developed in the city of Coquille. Children are the victims of the recent reports. Dr. P. M. Drake is yet undecided as to the source of communication, but the indications point to the city water system.

A cannon from the British ship Otter, abandoned in 1775, was recently recovered from the waters of the Black River, near Hampton, Vermont.

OUT OUR WAY

Bridge Pointers

By Milton C. Work

This week we are considering, in connection with the informative double, situations which are of a more difficult character than those that usually arise. Two hands are given each day and the answers on the next day.

YESTERDAY'S HANDS

X-X-X

NO. 8
X-X-X
A-X
K-J-X-X-X
X-X-X

Both of these hands are held by North; South (Dealer) has bid one No Trump, and West doubled. What should North declare?

No. 7. North should bid two Spades. The balance of the Spade strength is undoubtedly in the South or West hand—not held over North by East. At least four Spade tricks are reasonably sure, and the Ace of Hearts adds to the strength of the combined hands. That, plus a No Trump in the South hand, makes a game at Spades probable and makes it advantageous that the bid should be interpolated when it will show strength, and not later when it might be made with length but weakness. With a side Ace, a five-card suit headed by K-J is enough to bid under these conditions. Without the Ace, the bid would not be advisable on the first round.

No. 8. North should bid two No Trumps. A Minor bid under such circumstances is advisable only when the strength of the hand is wholly in the suit named. With strength in two suits and a five-card Minor, the score being low (nothing), there is a better chance for game at No Trump than at the Minor. Making this distinction between Minors and Majors gives important information. When a Minor is called over the partner's doubled No Trump, it shows strength in that Minor, but no other help for the No Trump. Calling a Major over partner's doubled No Trump does not deny other strength. If North and South had a score, Diamonds should be bid with Hand No. 8. With a score, the partner of a No Trump treats a strong five-card Minor just as he would a Major at a love score.

Today's hands are held by South; the first round bidding has been:

South West North East
1 No Trump Double Pass Pass and the question is: What should

South declare on the second round?

BONDHOLDERS TO MEET

SALEM, Ore., Nov. 17 (AP)—Bondholders of the Grants Pass irrigation district and the members of the state reclamation commission will meet Saturday at Grants Pass to formulate plans for the refinancing of that district. Bonds of the district, it is said, are maturing more rapidly than they can be met by the district under present conditions, caused by a serious flood of last winter.

NO HOGS, NO COLLEGE.
COLUMBIA, Mo.—John Compton's "collateral" died and he had to leave college. He raised a prize fillet of hogs and put them up for security on a loan for his college expenses. The hogs died and the banker who made the loan compelled him to return and raise another batch to safeguard the loan.

STARKEY PERSONALS

STARKEY (Special)—The Mendocino grangers met for their regular meeting Sunday but owing to sickness in the neighborhood only a few members were present. Mrs. Ann Sullivan's mother, Mrs. McKay, is now visiting her and expects to spend the winter at Starkey. Miss Nellie Rogers, of Island City, was at Starkey one day last week. Mr. and Mrs. Ana Robertson and family, of Kamela, are visiting at the home of Mrs. Robertson's parents, Mr. and Mrs. W. H. Briggs.

Mr. and Mrs. H. A. Thornburg motored to Baker for Armistice day. Mr. Thornburg's mother returned with them. She will visit for a short time here.

Winfield Scott, of Hilgard, was a Starkey visitor last week. Roy Marks, who has been helping on the H. A. and V. P. Thornburg ranch this fall, returned to his home at Island City Saturday.

"PLEASE PASS THE BREAD"

In the hundreds of homes where Golden Crust Bread is served you will hear this phrase repeated over and over again. Why?—because Golden Crust satisfies.

Run your knife through one of these temptingly toothsome loaves, notice how cleanly it slices, how delightful its aroma is. There is the proof of honest quality, pure ingredients, correct baking.

The next time you are ordering groceries, make sure of the best bread you can buy. Specify Golden Crust Bread and then hear your family say, "Please pass the bread."
