up of bronze ribbon mesh. All desks and tables are of steel and all equipment is finished in a dark olive green color. The vaults, upstairs and downstairs are provided with steel shelving.

Proud of New Quarters.
Electrical equipment and lighting arrangements are the best to be obtained, it is said. The heating plant is the latest steam system. The basement rooms are devoted almost entirely to the company's stores. Store headquarters will be on this floor and in addition there are construction headquarters.

Arrangement of the testing laboratory which is used for testing meters and all types of company equipment, is said to be as good as any installation in this part of the country, and employees of the company are very proud of their new working quarters.

Storm, Snow HIT EASTERN HALF OF U. S.
off on the eastern trip at 10:55 last night was forced to return and the mail was forwarded by train.

Weather bureau officials predicted continued snow and sub-freezing temperatures today.
Snow and cold prevailed throughout the lake states. Mayor Thompson on a hunting trip in Wisconsin, was reported almost snow-bound, while Governor Green of Michigan with another hunting party was snowed in and telephoned that he did not expect to get clear before the end of the week.

Here Yesterday.
Elmer Williams, of Portland, where he is connected with the bureau of biological survey, stopped in La Grande yesterday on his way to Trinitville. He has been experimenting with various kinds of coyote poison in the Sumner section. Destroyers of High Prices

Hotel Opens TODAY NOON; ROOMS TAKEN.
Walter M. Pierce will be the principal speaker. There will be other short talks and musical numbers, including numbers by the chamber of commerce quartet, solos by Paul Knautz, R. J. Dykhus and Mrs. Parker, and a piano selection by Dr. Emil Enna, artist from Portland, who will also play a piano concert on the hotel mezzanine following dinner. The musical numbers and speaking will be duplicated in the two rooms.

Guests of Honor.
Mrs. Lydia Grandy, on whose pioneer home site the new hotel now stands, and Dunham Wright, another Union county pioneer, will be guests of honor and will lead the grand march, which will start as soon as the ball room has been cleared after the banquet. It is to the pioneers of Oregon—the builders of Eastern Oregon—that the magnificent new structure will be dedicated.

Immediately following the grand march dancing will start to continue for the remainder of the evening.
Due to the excess of reservations the hotel management is seriously handicapped in securing competent help but hopes to take care of the crowd in a reasonably efficient manner. Experienced hotel help from Baker, Pendleton, Union and other points have been brought here for the occasion but the staff will not be as adequate as might be wished, according to Mr. Clinger.

ASK MORE MONEY.
SALISBURY, Ore., Nov. 18 (AP)—Representatives of employees in the state printing department appeared before the state board yesterday and asked for an increase in pay. The board has taken the appeal under advisement.

THE INCREASE ASKED IS FROM $4 TO $4.50 A WEEK FOR DAY WORK AND FROM $3.50 TO $4.50 FOR NIGHT WORK.
Governor Patterson wanted further time to investigate the request.

MEDFORD PLAYS CORVALLIS.
MEDFORD, Ore., Nov. 18 (AP)—The football teams of the Medford and Corvallis high schools clash here tomorrow in one of the outstanding inter-sectional games of the season in this state. The Corvallis team is claimant to the Willamette valley championship with one defeat. The Medford team is undisputed Southern Oregon champion, with recent victories over the University of Oregon football, and the Chemawa Indians, and is a contender for state honors. They have not been defeated for five years.

REQUESTS CLEMENCY.
PORTLAND, Ore., Nov. 18 (AP)—More than a score of Portland and Astoria citizens today united in an appeal to President Coolidge for executive clemency for Captain Robert Pamphlet, skipper of the Canadian run runner, Pecoswaha, who was sentenced to two years in prison and fined $1000, in connection with seizure of the Pecoswaha in Feb. 1925. He is to surrender Nov. 28 to start serving his term.

WRESTLES TO DRAW.
GRANTS PASS, Ore., Nov. 18 (AP)—Wild Bill Thornton, light heavyweight, of Portland, and Sallor Jack Wood, of Gallup, N. M., last night wrestled two hours to a draw in this city. Each wrestler took one fall. One of the wrestlers will be matched here next week with Stanley Rogers, of Grants Pass.

Obituary.
JOSEPH TRUESDALL, a pioneer resident of Union county, died in a Baker hospital this morning after a lingering illness, according to word received here. Funeral services are to be announced tomorrow.

Mr. Truesdall leaves a sister, Mrs. Irene McCarthy, and a brother, Bud Truesdall, living in La Grande.
