Harvest Festival Held Friday At Willow School

A "Harvest Festival" was held Friday evening at Willow school and was very successful. During the evening an interesting program was given, the first number being a musical trio, played by W. E. Nezel, M. E. Huffman and H. M. Finnie. The numbers played were "Whispering Hope" and "How Can I Leave You."

The first and second grade children of the school presented several scenes of life as lived in the days of the pilgrim and the first today. "Recollections of a Pilgrim Grandmother as Told to Her Grandchildren" was given by Ola Mae Hough. The grandchildren were Eugene Schmitz, Darrel Lyman, Blanche Cunningham and La Veda Millering. Features of the recollections were: "A Long Ago Girl" by Wilma Hansell; a colonial dance in costume by 12 girls of the sixth grade; a Dutch dance by 12 girls of the fifth grade; an Indian dance by nine boys of the fifth and sixth grades; and an Indian song by Gerald Bates. Norman Allen sang a Thanksgiving song and the program closed with a song and dance by the mysterious South Sea Islanders, J. E. Bates.

Following the program refreshments of pumpkin pie, coffee, cider and doughnuts were served.

Members of the F. S. club were entertained Saturday afternoon by Mrs. H. E. Williams at her apartment in the Lyman apartments. Three tables of bridge were played during the afternoon and high score was won by Mrs. W. D. Warner. Mrs. Ray Conough received the second prize.

The room was attractively decorated with bouquets of yellow poinsettias. Two new members, Mrs. J. L. Thomas and Mrs. Rex Treace, were received during the afternoon.

Mrs. G. G. Griggs will be the next hostess to the club Saturday, Dec. 2.

About 50 persons were present for the dinner served by Oliver P. Jordan Relief Corps No. 37, Saturday at the K. P. hall. During the dinner a program was given consisting of a history of Corporal Jordan, told by Mrs. A. P. Nelson. Four tables were laid for the dinner. E. J. Kitchen gave a short talk, and Mr. Hillman, a Grand Army Veteran, also spoke.

During the meeting of the relief corps which followed the dinner, two candidates were initiated.
