Bouquets of yellow chrysanthemums were used to decorate the luncheon tables and were also used in the club room of the mezzanine floor of the hotel, where tables of bridge were formed following luncheon at 1:15 o'clock in the main dining room. Covers were laid for 42 guests.

ANOTHER COOPERATIVE PLAN
"What are you crying about?" the kindly old gentleman asked the small boy.
"Cause my pa's a philanthropist."
"Well, that's nothing to cry about, is it?"
"But he says he'll give me $5 for Christmas providing I can raise an equal amount."

We need to hike along the land
In days gone by
Ambitions splendidly expand.
We want to fly.
We need to paddle a canoe
Our skill to try.
At present we are looking sharp
For heavenly things.
We murmur, "Never mind the harp,
We've got the wings."

Next to feeding oats to a dead horse, the most useless waste of energy we know of.

DID YOU EVER NOTICE THAT—
Carpet is purchased by the yard and worn out by the foot?
It is just as hard to pay back money as it is to borrow it?
Before 70 we hide our age; after 70 we brag about it?
Both women and time tables are subject to change without notice?
A record is a fragile thing—you can't lower one without breaking it.
Give a small boy a watch and he will have the time of his life.
Hitches have a bad habit of creating new wants instead of satisfying the old ones.
