...of flowers and toys. The costuming for this group was especially attractive.

A religious episode, telling of the birth of Christ, the death and the resurrection in music, was given by the trio, Mr. Patton always at the piano with his assistants. In appropriate costume, singing of "During the evening Mr. Patton played several piano groups, "Stars and Stripes Forever" by Sousa, Nevin's "Rosary" and "Bacchante" from Tales of Hoffman being the outstanding numbers.

Also played a few of his own compositions, one called "Pearls" which Edward Qualen sang, and one called "Bones" which he played and sang. His interpretations on the piano were excellent.

especially in "The Rosary" and other numbers.

In addition to his piano groups he gave numerous monologues, some humorous and some of a more serious nature. Robert Service's poem "Florette" was probably the most outstanding.

Edward Qualen, who possesses a rich and beautiful voice, furnished several solo numbers and a clever interpretation of an old man was given by his brother, John, who responded to the encore with a whistling number, accompanying himself at the piano.

The last "Impression" was a group of modern numbers, and in this the Qualen brothers appeared in clown costumes. The group consisted of a solo by Edward Qualen and a flute duet, vocal duet and a saxophone, flute and piano number.

As a closing number Mr. Patton invited the audience to join in the singing of one verse of "America,"

Obituary

JAMES MAHAHY
James Mahady passed away at 10 o'clock Tuesday morning in Baker. He was born in Brooklyn, N. Y., June 8, 1857 and was 70 years and six months old at the time of his death. He was a resident of La Grande for a number of years, but for the past four years he has made his home with his daughter, Mrs. E. H. Johnson, near Haines.

The funeral will be held Friday afternoon at 2 o'clock from the Snodgrass and Zimmerman chapel. Burial will be in the L. O. O. F. cemetery.

BABY THOMPSON
The body of Leo Thompson, four-months-old son of Mr. and Mrs. Arthur Thompson who passed away Tuesday morning at the Grande Ronde hospital, was taken to Echo this morning for burial. The baby's death was caused by burns received when the Thompson home was destroyed by fire. Mrs. Thompson was able to rescue her child from the flames but not before fatal burns had been received. The tragedy occurred Monday afternoon at Meacham. Leo was the only child of Mr. and Mrs. Thompson.
