For Christmas..... A Gift of
FURNITURE

There is something about furniture—its usefulness, its charm as a part of an interior, its permanent value—that makes the thoughtful shopper prefer it for Christmas giving. Especially is this true when you are buying for a member of the family or an intimate and beloved friend—and you are sure that nothing can reflect your taste and good sense as a carefully selected piece of furniture.

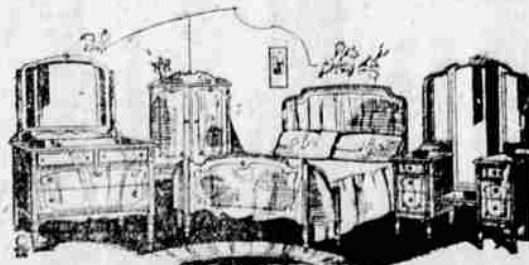

Every purchase you make permits very liberal credit arrangements if you wish—and we'll reserve anything you select and deliver the day before Christmas or whenever you instruct. Shop early and benefit by an especially large and beautiful stock.

A Thoughtful Family Gift

To set off the Christmas dinner properly give the family this handsome genuine walnut dining room suite. Beautiful cabinet making and each piece a beauty in itself. The suite includes a table, buffet, host chair, and five side chairs. Remarkably low priced at this figure—
