Junior Operetta To Be Given At Neighborhood Club

A program which members of the La Grande Neighborhood club have been looking forward to for several weeks will be given Tuesday afternoon, the regular meeting time of the club, when a junior operetta will be presented under the direction of Miss Imogen Russell.

The operetta to be given is "The Land of Nod," taken from the St. Nicholas operas and plays, and 30 children about seven years of age will take part. The program will begin at 2:45 o'clock and will follow the business session of the club, which will start at 2 o'clock.

In addition to the operetta, Miss Winifred Scott will sing "Sand Man," and Miss Bertha Bantz will play a violin solo, "Baby's Boat's A Silver Moon." Miss Lois Nelson will be piano accompanist for the operetta.

W. B. A. Has Bazaar Carnival Saturday

The Woman's Benefit association held a very successful carnival-bazaar Saturday in the La Grande hotel building. Practically every article was sold, a large crowd coming and going all during the day. The amount made from the bazaar is not yet known.

A fortune telling booth probably created the most interest, Mrs. Conrads Nelderer, who was general chairman in charge of the bazaar, also played the part of gypsy fortune teller.

Other members of the committee were: Mrs. Ray Ledbetter, Mrs. Herman Goeck, Mrs. Trina Wade, Mrs. Ostland, Mrs. Claude Mackey, Mrs. Lena Elliott, Mrs. May Nedro, Mrs. Bessie Webb, Mrs. Hazel Jensen, Mrs. Artie Cooper, Miss Ruth Murchison, Miss Muriel Webb, and Miss Jensen.

This evening an officers' meeting will be held at the home of the president, Mrs. Irving Bramwell, 2706 North Fir street, preparatory to the annual election which will take place tomorrow evening at the regular meeting, which will be held at 7:30 o'clock in the K. P. hall.

After tomorrow night's business session and election, there will be a program, of which Mrs. Herman Goeck is chairman.

Members of the World Wide guild, the Young People's society and the Women's society of the First Baptist church, with other interested members of the congregation will meet for a covered dish supper this evening in the basement of the church, honoring Miss Louise Campbell, returned missionary from China, who will speak of her experiences in the Chinese mission field at 7:30 o'clock at the church.

Following Miss Campbell's address the World Wide guild, by special request, will repeat a part of the "Lighting the World" vesper service pageant, which was presented Sunday, Dec. 4.

The public is invited to hear Miss Campbell and to see the pageant.

The juveniles of the Neighbors of Woodcraft lodge met Saturday afternoon in regular session at the K. P. hall. The new senior guardian, Mrs. Hazel Robben, had charge of the meeting for the first time since her election. There was an attendance of more than 50 juveniles.

This organization has made rapid growth during the past year, the senior guardian, Mrs. Ray Buell, receiving an award for the largest increase in membership within this district, No. 10, which includes 23 lodges in Umatilla, Baker, Malheur, Wallowa and Union counties.

After the lodge session yesterday the children enjoyed a social hour when games were played and refreshments served.

Miss Phyllis Peterson entertained the member of the Oscha campfire girl group and their friends at a coasting party Friday evening. The party met at the home of the hostess' parents, Mr. and Mrs. Clyde Peterson at 7:30 o'clock. After enjoying coasting for some time they returned to the home, where refreshments were served. Sixteen boys and girls and the guardian of the campfire group, Miss Arta Verity, were present.

THE WRONG WICKET

Dear old lady: "Can you please tell me the berth rate for the Twentieth Century?"

Agent: "See the government statistic, madam. This is a Pullman office."

"Now boys," said the teacher, "I have to divide four potatoes equally among five boys. How shall I do it?" They couldn't think of a way. Then the smaller boy at the foot of the class held up his hand. "All right, Johnny, how would you do it?" "Mash 'em," said Johnny.

MENUS

BREAKFAST — Coddled apples with rolled oats, cream, crisp bacon, cornmeal pancakes, sirup, milk, coffee.

LUNCHEON — Veal timbales, creamed carrots, pop-overs, marmalade, canned cherries, vanilla wafers, milk, tea.

DINNER—Casserole of rabbit, brown rice, buttered parsnips, sliced Spanish onion, canned green gage plums, eggless cake, milk, coffee.

Rabbit is usually an inexpensive meat and since it is in season only during the winter months it pays the housekeeper to serve it quite frequently while she may. If the family do not like the wild, gamey flavor, the simple trick of parboiling the rabbit, after disjointing, with an uncut onion in the water does much to relieve the disliked taste.

Eggless Cake

One and one-half cups brown sugar, 2 tablespoons butter, 2 cups flour, 1 cup sour milk, 1 teaspoon soda, ¾ cup chopped raisins, ½ cup chopped nut meats, 1 tablespoon cocoa, ½ teaspoon cinnamon, ½ teaspoon salt, 1 teaspoon vanilla.

Mix flour and sugar and rub in butter. Dissolve soda in sour milk and add at once to mixture. Beat well and add remaining ingredients. Turned into an oiled and floured dripping pan and bake 40 minutes in a slow oven. Cover with frosting without removing from pan.

White Frosting

One cup granulated sugar, ⅓ cup milk, 1 tablespoon flour, 1 teaspoon butter, ½ teaspoon vanilla.

Cook sugar and milk until a soft ball is formed when a few drops are tried in cold water. Add butter. Put flour in a bowl and add a little sirup. Beat smooth and slowly add remaining sirup beating constantly. Beat until cold, add vanilla and spread on cool cake.

OUT OUR WAY By Williams

Bridge Pointers

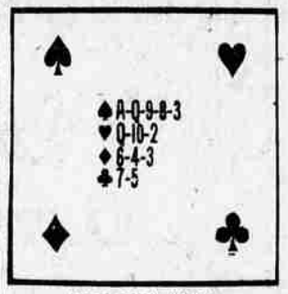
Many questions arise in connection with the bidding of every day hands which are perplexing to the average player merely because the conventions covering them have not been called to his attention. These conventions in the main are simple, logical and easy to remember; but that fact does not help a player who never heard of them.

The hands to be given this week will be the kind which are occurring constantly and will involve situations which affect all four players during the bidding. Following the plan which has proved very popular with readers of these articles, hands will be given one day and the answers the following day. Six questions will be asked concerning each hand.

It will be most interesting to keep your score for the week; there will be twenty-four questions in all. Enter on a slip of paper what you think the answer should be to each one of these questions, and then note on the succeeding day how many you have right. Get your friends to do the same thing, and compare your scores with them.



THE QUESTIONS

With the above hand, what would you declare: (score love-all unless otherwise stated):

1. If you held it as South (Dealer)?
2. If you held it as South (Dealer), with a score of 24?
3. If you held it as West, South (Dealer) having bid one Heart?
4. If you held it as West, South (Dealer) having bid one No Trump?
5. If you held it as North, South (Dealer) having bid one Heart, and West having passed?
6. If you held it as North, South (Dealer) having bid one No Trump and West having passed?

Answers tomorrow.
