THE CHRISTMAS PUDDING

(A recipe)
Take some human nature, as you find it.
The commonest variety will do. Put a little gracefulness behind it. Add a lump of charity, or two.

Squeeze in just a drop of moderation.
Half as much frugality, or less. Add some very fine consideration. Strain off all of poverty's distresses.

Pour some milk of human kindness in it.
Put in all the happiness you can stir it up with laughter every minute.
Season with good will toward every man.

Set on the fire of heart's affection. Leave it till the foamy bubbles rise. Sprinkle it with kisses, for confection.

Sweeten with a look of loving eyes.
Flavor it with children's merry chatter.
Frost it with the snow of windy delis.

Place it on a holly-marshaled platter.
And serve with the song of 'Christmas bells.'

Back in the old days, when an Indian was broke all he had to do was to get a job standing in front of a cigar store.

An Ohio man bit the ear off his mother-in-law. Very few sons-in-law get so fond of their mother-in-law that they try to eat them.

The best Christmas present you can give your mother is your presence.

"Big fish!"
"Where?"
"Down by the lake—the waves are heaving up on the shore."

Even a wise man relishes the silly prattle of a pretty woman. Oh, My, yes!

There is a woman in New York who makes $100,000 a year selling corsets but her own investigation leads us to believe that girdles must be included.

Johnnie (to himself): "Ain't that h—"
Mother (horried): "Why, Johnnie? Where did you hear that naughty word?"
Johnnie: "That's what papa said when you fished the mail."

A woman may pretend to be convinced against her will, but she never is.

Point: "What are tobacco?"
Blunk: "The same thing to news-papers that lies are to a dog!"

Portland Man Is Killed In Wreck

IRYAN, Ohio, Dec. 12 (AP)—An airplane en route from Detroit to Fort Wayne, Ind., crashed near here Monday killing Captain John Zelger, and another passenger, and seriously injuring two other passengers. The two remaining passengers in the plane were slightly injured.

Later the other man killed was identified as C. J. Parker, Portland, Ore., vice president and general treasurer of the Iron Fireman Manufacturing company.

Senator Jim Reed says you can't make men good by law. Maybe not, senator, but that's one way of making them more interesting.

AT THE THEATERS

Chang Now Showing at The Arcade

"Chang" is in town. If you like it you have only yourself to blame. This department recommends it with hearty praise. "Chang" is the Wildest of the Wild and the Mightiest of the Mighty!
Paramount can well set another notch in its belt. Producers Merian C. Cooper and Ernest B. Schoedsack with places in the film hall of fame. It is not very often that a picture of the magnitude, entertainment value or true epicness of "Chang" comes along. Because of this it towers head and shoulders above practically everything which has come to local screens during the past year.

"Chang" tells no ordinary tale. There is nothing at all stereotyped about "Chang." It is just one thrill after another, a whole series of them; one gasp after another, a whole parade of them.
If you should ask that "Chang" be described in one short, terse phrase, we'd call it a mighty melodrama of the wild.
A leopard leaps over a high wall into the hero's home; a tiger huris itself right into the eye of the camera; four hundred ponderous stampeding elephants attack a native village, leaving nothing but desolation and death in their wake—and that only starts to tell what "Chang" holds in store for moviegoers. It holds one punch after another and your attention is never allowed to wander.

When "Chang" was given a preview in New York, critics acclaimed it and called it a road show picture. "Chang" will be shown at the Arcade theater today and Wednesday. Don't pass it by!

A Bobby Vernon Paramount comedy is also being shown.

"Yours To Command" Now At Colonial

A speeding car unable to stop at the close gates of a railroad crossing is one of the highlights of "Yours to Command," an F. B. O. production starring George O'Hara which is playing at the Colonial today and Wednesday. George is at the wheel of the powerful roadster which has been engulfed at full speed for miles before a curve in the road brings them within a few feet of the gates. It is impossible to stop the car, and George with his passengers go crashing through the barrier.

The actor insisted on doing the dangerous stunt himself, and it has been photographed to advantage making one of the most thrilling leaps ever shown on the screen. The picture also offers some screaming comedy sequences and a charming romance plays a very important part in the story. The story is ably supported by a splendid cast which includes Shirley Palmer, William Thurress, Jack Laffen, Doc Farley, Will Humphrey. The story is by Basil Dickey and Henry Haven, and the continuity was written by Scott Darling and Ewart Adamson. The picture was made under the direction of David Kirkland.

The trouble with most uplifters is that they're no depressing.
