

LOSTINE PERSONALS

LOSTINE, (Special)—The Community club met Friday evening with Mrs. W. C. Plesner. After the business session was over the time was spent visiting. A delicious luncheon was enjoyed.

The Neighborhood club met Wednesday and placed the articles they had for the bazaar in M. Crow's store window for display.

Saturday night Mr. and Mrs. Oscar Peterson entertained a number of friends at their home. Those present were Mr. and Mrs. Victor Seales, Mr. and Mrs. J. H. Jackson, Mr. and Mrs. Edgar Hook and Mr. and Mrs. Harry Wade.

Mrs. Jennie Winning and son, Clifford, accompanied their grandson, Charlie Williamson, to Parma and Payette for a visit with Mrs. Winning's daughter, Mrs. Hodges, and Mrs. Farnell.

J. C. Profit spent the weekend in the north woods. He spends most of his available time in hunting or fishing.

Mrs. Mildred Daisey and children spent several days with her parents, Mr. and Mrs. Jase, recently.

Fred Balnes and wife left last week for Portland on a combined business and pleasure trip. Mr. and Mrs. Fred Winder are looking after the farm and also caring for the children.

Frank Sharfer and family, of Baker, spent Sunday with Mr. and Mrs. Floyd Hammock. Mrs. Sharfer is Mrs. Hammock's sister.

Miss Bouliu Magill, a graduate nurse from the Good Samaritan hospital of Portland, came in Saturday for a short visit with her parents, Mr. and Mrs. D. H. Magill. She returned Monday to stay until Christmas when she expects to return home for an indefinite time.

John Hutton, city recorder of Wallawa, was at Lostine Friday evening on business.

Karl Allen, Harry Wade, Roy Ham, Wallace Spencer, Victor Seales and E. B. Leonard went to Wallawa Thursday evening to attend the Masonic lodge.

Mr. and Mrs. Clara Childers and Mrs. George Childers drove to La Grande on a combined business and pleasure trip recently.

Mrs. J. J. Chapman, who has been very ill at her home, is still in a very critical condition.

Mrs. Paces became very ill Saturday night and a doctor was called. She is improving slowly.

Mr. and Mrs. Mark Crossland, of Union, drove over Thursday for a visit. Mrs. Crossland found her mother, Mrs. Olsen, very ill of appendicitis. She is some better at present.

Thursday a number of club women attended the art library put on in the gym of the Enterprise school under the auspices of the federated clubs of the county.

Mrs. E. P. Moorman, of La Grande, was present and an enjoyable afternoon was spent. The high school orchestra played and refreshments were served.

Edgar Marvin and wife and Mrs. Thelma Childers, of Joseph, were at Lostine Thursday night to attend the Eastern Star meeting.

Walter Quisenberry returned home Monday from Hayden Lake, Idaho, where he was called by the serious illness of his mother, Mrs. Aldeola. She is much better.

S. M. Crow and wife and sons, Lewis and Dean, and Mrs. Dean Crow returned Friday from an extended visit with friends in California. They visited Mrs. S. M. Crow's father, Mrs. Englehorn, who is well known in Wallawa county and Mrs. Dean Crow's parents, Mr. and Mrs. Goldsberry, who are residents of California.

Several members of the Masonic lodge went to Joseph to attend another of their county meetings recently.

Haliph Graham returned last week from Portland where he went on business.

Charles Hunter, Charles McDaniel, of Wallawa, and Charles Zureher, of Enterprise, were at Lostine Saturday to appraise some property on which a soldiers loan has been applied for.

E. E. Lefel, together with the engineer and chemist for the Black, MacIsaac & Lime company, were up the South Fork to their lime kiln to get some samples to analyze.

Mrs. Anna McKinzie took her mother, Mrs. J. H. Coats, to Elgin Tuesday.

Mrs. James Dale was an Enterprise visitor Tuesday. She visited her daughter, Mrs. Hansen.

Mike Gray and wife have moved to the Lapover cabin for the winter. They will spend the time trapping.

Mrs. Dean Crow became very ill Friday and the Wallawa doctor was called to see her.

Mrs. Asie Craig and children, of Enterprise, spent the week visiting her mother, Mrs. Eliza McKinnon.

Mr. and Mrs. Charles Chaplin and Mrs. J. D. Sommer, of La Grande, and Mrs. T. M. Fine and great granddaughter, Maxine Stillwell, of Walla Walla, and Mr. and Mrs. Harlan Huffman, of Wallawa, spent Sunday with Mr. and Mrs. J. C. Plesner.

Robert Williams and wife left Wednesday for San Diego, Cal., where they will spend the winter.

The annual bazaar of the Neighborhood club was held at the Crow store Saturday. A fine display of fancy work was sold. They also served chili, pie and coffee which netted them between $40 and $50.

Miss Vera McCreter, of Enterprise, spent Sunday with Miss Ruth Leonard.

A large lemon weighing 1 1/2 pounds which was picked by S. M. Crow while visiting in California has been on display at the Crow store.

Mr. A. H. Parsons and Mrs. Henry Parsons, of Elgin, spent Monday visiting at the home of

SOUTHERN CALIFORNIA HARD HIT BY FOREST BLAZES

Chimneys and barren tree trunks are all that remain in the fashionable mountain home section of the Sierra Madre, following weekend forest fires in southern California. The upper picture shows the devastation in the wake of the fire. Below is a picture taken at 2 o'clock in the morning of a fire on a three-mile front on the ridge of Verdugo hills, near Los Angeles.

of Mr. and Mrs. Vance Sunday. Harry Winning returned Monday from a visit at Parma, Ida., and also at Payette.

Mrs. Allen Quisenberry and daughter, of Enterprise, were weekend visitors at the Walter Quisenberry home.

The Y. P. C. E. met Saturday evening at the home of Mr. and Mrs. M. Crow for song practice. The leader, Mrs. Pierce, has made arrangements, as an accredited music teacher, to give this class of young people vocal instructions in church work. All young folks are invited to take part in the work.

The food sale Saturday afternoon held by the women of the Christian church was well patronized and a cake sale is planned for the near future.

UNION PERSONALS

UNION, Ore. (Special)—Local stores are making a nice display of Christmas goods in their show windows and the merchants are already putting out small Christmas trees in front of their stores.

Mountain Gown Rebekah lodge elected the following officers at the regular meeting last Wednesday evening: Noble grand, Cora Griggs; vice grand, Mabel Gale; recording secretary, Mrs. E. P. Coburn; financial secretary, Bell Bueck and treasurer, Ella Holly. The old fellows also have chosen their officers for the coming term: Noble grand, George Lawrence; vice grand, John Miller; recording secretary, W. V. Connor; financial secretary, Rex Gumbel; treasurer, William Kiehlbeck.

Lee Warnick, former sheriff of this county, was a visitor at Union Sunday morning.

Mrs. Sadie Connor and daughter

with, were shopping in La Grande Saturday.

The board of school district No. 5 has decided to allow the teachers a longer vacation for Christmas and the men went on to the farm. Those in the car were John Miller, Gilie Van Housen, W. V. Connor and D. M. Jones. Fortunately none of the men were injured.

Mrs. Flora Kiehlbeck and her daughter, Kathryn, and Mrs. Frank Sturcell were Christmas shopping in La Grande Saturday.

Miss Marie Smith, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Ralph Smith, whom many will remember as one of the players on the Union high basketball sextet a couple of years ago, is now attending Link Business college in Boise and is on the team for that college. She is playing her old position, as running center.

GIRL WORKERS FREED

TOKYO—One Japanese factory has broken away from the custom which required that girl factory workers remain within the confines of the plant or its dormitories, except on occasional holidays. In the past these restrictions were enforced to prevent their going to other shops or to safeguard the girls themselves. Efforts to extend this new freedom to girls in other factories now are being made.

TRAIN for BUSINESS SUCCESS

ENROLL ANYTIME
In America's GOLD MEDAL School. Within a few months you can be earning money, in a position with a future.

Although we placed over 1000 students in positions last year, demand is so great our supply. Often we can help students who need part time jobs while attending. Write for FREE SUCCESS Catalog today.

Behrke-Walker BUSINESS COLLEGE

PORTLAND OREGON
Bldg. 2138

of Mr. and Mrs. Vance Sunday. Harry Winning returned Monday from a visit at Parma, Ida., and also at Payette.

Mrs. Allen Quisenberry and daughter, of Enterprise, were weekend visitors at the Walter Quisenberry home.

The Y. P. C. E. met Saturday evening at the home of Mr. and Mrs. M. Crow for song practice. The leader, Mrs. Pierce, has made arrangements, as an accredited music teacher, to give this class of young people vocal instructions in church work. All young folks are invited to take part in the work.

The food sale Saturday afternoon held by the women of the Christian church was well patronized and a cake sale is planned for the near future.

UNION PERSONALS

UNION, Ore. (Special)—Local stores are making a nice display of Christmas goods in their show windows and the merchants are already putting out small Christmas trees in front of their stores.

Mountain Gown Rebekah lodge elected the following officers at the regular meeting last Wednesday evening: Noble grand, Cora Griggs; vice grand, Mabel Gale; recording secretary, Mrs. E. P. Coburn; financial secretary, Bell Bueck and treasurer, Ella Holly. The old fellows also have chosen their officers for the coming term: Noble grand, George Lawrence; vice grand, John Miller; recording secretary, W. V. Connor; financial secretary, Rex Gumbel; treasurer, William Kiehlbeck.

Lee Warnick, former sheriff of this county, was a visitor at Union Sunday morning.

Mrs. Sadie Connor and daughter

with, were shopping in La Grande Saturday.

The board of school district No. 5 has decided to allow the teachers a longer vacation for Christmas and the men went on to the farm. Those in the car were John Miller, Gilie Van Housen, W. V. Connor and D. M. Jones. Fortunately none of the men were injured.

Mrs. Flora Kiehlbeck and her daughter, Kathryn, and Mrs. Frank Sturcell were Christmas shopping in La Grande Saturday.

Miss Marie Smith, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Ralph Smith, whom many will remember as one of the players on the Union high basketball sextet a couple of years ago, is now attending Link Business college in Boise and is on the team for that college. She is playing her old position, as running center.

GIRL WORKERS FREED

TOKYO—One Japanese factory has broken away from the custom which required that girl factory workers remain within the confines of the plant or its dormitories, except on occasional holidays. In the past these restrictions were enforced to prevent their going to other shops or to safeguard the girls themselves. Efforts to extend this new freedom to girls in other factories now are being made.

TRAIN for BUSINESS SUCCESS

ENROLL ANYTIME
In America's GOLD MEDAL School. Within a few months you can be earning money, in a position with a future.

Although we placed over 1000 students in positions last year, demand is so great our supply. Often we can help students who need part time jobs while attending. Write for FREE SUCCESS Catalog today.

Behrke-Walker BUSINESS COLLEGE

PORTLAND OREGON
Bldg. 2138

of Mr. and Mrs. Vance Sunday. Harry Winning returned Monday from a visit at Parma, Ida., and also at Payette.

Mrs. Allen Quisenberry and daughter, of Enterprise, were weekend visitors at the Walter Quisenberry home.

The Y. P. C. E. met Saturday evening at the home of Mr. and Mrs. M. Crow for song practice. The leader, Mrs. Pierce, has made arrangements, as an accredited music teacher, to give this class of young people vocal instructions in church work. All young folks are invited to take part in the work.

The food sale Saturday afternoon held by the women of the Christian church was well patronized and a cake sale is planned for the near future.

UNION PERSONALS

UNION, Ore. (Special)—Local stores are making a nice display of Christmas goods in their show windows and the merchants are already putting out small Christmas trees in front of their stores.

Mountain Gown Rebekah lodge elected the following officers at the regular meeting last Wednesday evening: Noble grand, Cora Griggs; vice grand, Mabel Gale; recording secretary, Mrs. E. P. Coburn; financial secretary, Bell Bueck and treasurer, Ella Holly. The old fellows also have chosen their officers for the coming term: Noble grand, George Lawrence; vice grand, John Miller; recording secretary, W. V. Connor; financial secretary, Rex Gumbel; treasurer, William Kiehlbeck.

Lee Warnick, former sheriff of this county, was a visitor at Union Sunday morning.

Mrs. Sadie Connor and daughter

with, were shopping in La Grande Saturday.

The board of school district No. 5 has decided to allow the teachers a longer vacation for Christmas and the men went on to the farm. Those in the car were John Miller, Gilie Van Housen, W. V. Connor and D. M. Jones. Fortunately none of the men were injured.

Mrs. Flora Kiehlbeck and her daughter, Kathryn, and Mrs. Frank Sturcell were Christmas shopping in La Grande Saturday.

Miss Marie Smith, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Ralph Smith, whom many will remember as one of the players on the Union high basketball sextet a couple of years ago, is now attending Link Business college in Boise and is on the team for that college. She is playing her old position, as running center.

GIRL WORKERS FREED

TOKYO—One Japanese factory has broken away from the custom which required that girl factory workers remain within the confines of the plant or its dormitories, except on occasional holidays. In the past these restrictions were enforced to prevent their going to other shops or to safeguard the girls themselves. Efforts to extend this new freedom to girls in other factories now are being made.

TRAIN for BUSINESS SUCCESS

ENROLL ANYTIME
In America's GOLD MEDAL School. Within a few months you can be earning money, in a position with a future.

Although we placed over 1000 students in positions last year, demand is so great our supply. Often we can help students who need part time jobs while attending. Write for FREE SUCCESS Catalog today.

Behrke-Walker BUSINESS COLLEGE

PORTLAND OREGON
Bldg. 2138

of Mr. and Mrs. Vance Sunday. Harry Winning returned Monday from a visit at Parma, Ida., and also at Payette.

Mrs. Allen Quisenberry and daughter, of Enterprise, were weekend visitors at the Walter Quisenberry home.

The Y. P. C. E. met Saturday evening at the home of Mr. and Mrs. M. Crow for song practice. The leader, Mrs. Pierce, has made arrangements, as an accredited music teacher, to give this class of young people vocal instructions in church work. All young folks are invited to take part in the work.

The food sale Saturday afternoon held by the women of the Christian church was well patronized and a cake sale is planned for the near future.

UNION PERSONALS

UNION, Ore. (Special)—Local stores are making a nice display of Christmas goods in their show windows and the merchants are already putting out small Christmas trees in front of their stores.

Mountain Gown Rebekah lodge elected the following officers at the regular meeting last Wednesday evening: Noble grand, Cora Griggs; vice grand, Mabel Gale; recording secretary, Mrs. E. P. Coburn; financial secretary, Bell Bueck and treasurer, Ella Holly. The old fellows also have chosen their officers for the coming term: Noble grand, George Lawrence; vice grand, John Miller; recording secretary, W. V. Connor; financial secretary, Rex Gumbel; treasurer, William Kiehlbeck.

Lee Warnick, former sheriff of this county, was a visitor at Union Sunday morning.

Mrs. Sadie Connor and daughter

with, were shopping in La Grande Saturday.

The board of school district No. 5 has decided to allow the teachers a longer vacation for Christmas and the men went on to the farm. Those in the car were John Miller, Gilie Van Housen, W. V. Connor and D. M. Jones. Fortunately none of the men were injured.

Mrs. Flora Kiehlbeck and her daughter, Kathryn, and Mrs. Frank Sturcell were Christmas shopping in La Grande Saturday.

Miss Marie Smith, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Ralph Smith, whom many will remember as one of the players on the Union high basketball sextet a couple of years ago, is now attending Link Business college in Boise and is on the team for that college. She is playing her old position, as running center.

GIRL WORKERS FREED

TOKYO—One Japanese factory has broken away from the custom which required that girl factory workers remain within the confines of the plant or its dormitories, except on occasional holidays. In the past these restrictions were enforced to prevent their going to other shops or to safeguard the girls themselves. Efforts to extend this new freedom to girls in other factories now are being made.

TRAIN for BUSINESS SUCCESS

ENROLL ANYTIME
In America's GOLD MEDAL School. Within a few months you can be earning money, in a position with a future.

Although we placed over 1000 students in positions last year, demand is so great our supply. Often we can help students who need part time jobs while attending. Write for FREE SUCCESS Catalog today.

Behrke-Walker BUSINESS COLLEGE

PORTLAND OREGON
Bldg. 2138

of Mr. and Mrs. Vance Sunday. Harry Winning returned Monday from a visit at Parma, Ida., and also at Payette.

Mrs. Allen Quisenberry and daughter, of Enterprise, were weekend visitors at the Walter Quisenberry home.

The Y. P. C. E. met Saturday evening at the home of Mr. and Mrs. M. Crow for song practice. The leader, Mrs. Pierce, has made arrangements, as an accredited music teacher, to give this class of young people vocal instructions in church work. All young folks are invited to take part in the work.

The food sale Saturday afternoon held by the women of the Christian church was well patronized and a cake sale is planned for the near future.

UNION PERSONALS

UNION, Ore. (Special)—Local stores are making a nice display of Christmas goods in their show windows and the merchants are already putting out small Christmas trees in front of their stores.

Mountain Gown Rebekah lodge elected the following officers at the regular meeting last Wednesday evening: Noble grand, Cora Griggs; vice grand, Mabel Gale; recording secretary, Mrs. E. P. Coburn; financial secretary, Bell Bueck and treasurer, Ella Holly. The old fellows also have chosen their officers for the coming term: Noble grand, George Lawrence; vice grand, John Miller; recording secretary, W. V. Connor; financial secretary, Rex Gumbel; treasurer, William Kiehlbeck.

Lee Warnick, former sheriff of this county, was a visitor at Union Sunday morning.

Mrs. Sadie Connor and daughter

with, were shopping in La Grande Saturday.

The board of school district No. 5 has decided to allow the teachers a longer vacation for Christmas and the men went on to the farm. Those in the car were John Miller, Gilie Van Housen, W. V. Connor and D. M. Jones. Fortunately none of the men were injured.

Mrs. Flora Kiehlbeck and her daughter, Kathryn, and Mrs. Frank Sturcell were Christmas shopping in La Grande Saturday.

Miss Marie Smith, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Ralph Smith, whom many will remember as one of the players on the Union high basketball sextet a couple of years ago, is now attending Link Business college in Boise and is on the team for that college. She is playing her old position, as running center.

GIRL WORKERS FREED

TOKYO—One Japanese factory has broken away from the custom which required that girl factory workers remain within the confines of the plant or its dormitories, except on occasional holidays. In the past these restrictions were enforced to prevent their going to other shops or to safeguard the girls themselves. Efforts to extend this new freedom to girls in other factories now are being made.

TRAIN for BUSINESS SUCCESS

ENROLL ANYTIME
In America's GOLD MEDAL School. Within a few months you can be earning money, in a position with a future.

Although we placed over 1000 students in positions last year, demand is so great our supply. Often we can help students who need part time jobs while attending. Write for FREE SUCCESS Catalog today.

Behrke-Walker BUSINESS COLLEGE

PORTLAND OREGON
Bldg. 2138

of Mr. and Mrs. Vance Sunday. Harry Winning returned Monday from a visit at Parma, Ida., and also at Payette.

Mrs. Allen Quisenberry and daughter, of Enterprise, were weekend visitors at the Walter Quisenberry home.

The Y. P. C. E. met Saturday evening at the home of Mr. and Mrs. M. Crow for song practice. The leader, Mrs. Pierce, has made arrangements, as an accredited music teacher, to give this class of young people vocal instructions in church work. All young folks are invited to take part in the work.

The food sale Saturday afternoon held by the women of the Christian church was well patronized and a cake sale is planned for the near future.

UNION PERSONALS

UNION, Ore. (Special)—Local stores are making a nice display of Christmas goods in their show windows and the merchants are already putting out small Christmas trees in front of their stores.

Mountain Gown Rebekah lodge elected the following officers at the regular meeting last Wednesday evening: Noble grand, Cora Griggs; vice grand, Mabel Gale; recording secretary, Mrs. E. P. Coburn; financial secretary, Bell Bueck and treasurer, Ella Holly. The old fellows also have chosen their officers for the coming term: Noble grand, George Lawrence; vice grand, John Miller; recording secretary, W. V. Connor; financial secretary, Rex Gumbel; treasurer, William Kiehlbeck.

the reflections they dragged ing the prize and fear, encour them and injuring

The worst thing most of them were ers or the state, be trial, or made the any other tribunal place. This defect gestions are call American ca plunging you into worst. The a needless calamity by it results in the complete insur- cal action, protection offered by its agency.

The again. For 1000, jus

Union Mortgage & Investment Company

REAL ESTATE
Loan SERVICE
New Foley Bldg., La Grande Oregon.

FREE! FREE!

One Washable Oil Painting and Frame With Each 6 Pictures Sold Between the Hours of 9 and 12 A. M. on Wednesday, Thursday, Friday and Saturday

Mr. Rynhart is again painting in the window and those who were unable to get pictures when he was here last fall may get them this week.

COME AND SEE HIM PAINT

He holds the world's speed record of 86 11x26 pictures in 8 hours continuous painting. That's going some!

Prices of Pictures and Frames

13x26 in. one for 98c, 2 for $1.70
9x25 in. one for 79c, 2 for $1.49

Also orders taken for special work. Pictures Make Ideal Xmas Gifts.

OREGON HARDWARE COMPANY

13x26 in. one for 98c, 2 for $1.70
9x25 in. one for 79c, 2 for $1.49

Also orders taken for special work. Pictures Make Ideal Xmas Gifts.

OREGON HARDWARE COMPANY

13x26 in. one for 98c, 2 for $1.70
9x25 in. one for 79c, 2 for $1.49

Also orders taken for special work. Pictures Make Ideal Xmas Gifts.

OREGON HARDWARE COMPANY

13x26 in. one for 98c, 2 for $1.70
9x25 in. one for 79c, 2 for $1.49

Also orders taken for special work. Pictures Make Ideal Xmas Gifts.

OREGON HARDWARE COMPANY

13x26 in. one for 98c, 2 for $1.70
9x25 in. one for 79c, 2 for $1.49

Also orders taken for special work. Pictures Make Ideal Xmas Gifts.

OREGON HARDWARE COMPANY

13x26 in. one for 98c, 2 for $1.70
9x25 in. one for 79c, 2 for $1.49