COVE PERSONALS

COVE, (Special)—An air of the coming Christmas festivities is about with much preparation at the different churches in preparation for the event. A program will be a feature of the program at the Ascension Episcopal church on Christmas eve. A Christmas carol will be given at the Methodist Episcopal and the Baptist will give a children's program of songs and readings. Christmas trees with their boughs hung with tinsel and gay decorations and also laden with the Christmas treats will be a part of the program at all the churches. After the church programs the boys and girls club will sing Christmas carols. They will then go to the rectory where a Christmas feast will await them.

The service of Holy Communion will be held at the Ascension Episcopal Church at 10 o'clock on Christmas morning.

Several parties and family reunions are being planned for the Christmas holidays. Mrs. Herman Tripper and daughter, Leona, at Lewiston, Idaho, arrived Saturday and are the holiday guests of Mrs. Allen Tripper. Miss Tripper is a student at the W. S. U.

Miss Thomas Anderson, a student at Monmouth, came home Saturday to spend the holidays with her parents. Postmaster and Mrs. J. E. Anderson.

Francis Cook, a junior at the state university, arrived home Friday. His mother, Mrs. E. R. Cook, is a commercial teacher here. His father, who is principal at Fruitland, Idaho, will join the family this week.

Leonard Allen, assistant state club leader of Oregon State college, will spend the holidays here with his mother, Mrs. Allen. Allen is a brother in the Cove High school, left Friday for Ontario where he will go to a hospital for an operation. He was accompanied by Mrs. Price who will later visit her parents at Weiser, Idaho. Their daughter, Leona, is staying this week with her aunt, Mrs. L. M. Laird, at the end of the week she will join her mother at Weiser.

Mr. and Mrs. Franklin Wells, of Alsea, who were recently married, spent Sunday with Mrs. Wells' parents, Mr. and Mrs. H. I. Barker.

Miss John Childers, a student at Eugene, is at home for the holidays. Miss Childers is studying blue organ.

Miss Beryl Conley, of St. Paul, Washington, will go to Portland for the holidays.

Miss Dorothy Mills, a high school student at Walla Walla, will spend her vacation with her parents, Mr. and Mrs. J. E. Mills, here.

Pied Dutil, of Eugene, visited his sister, Mrs. Christ. Dutil, here on his return from abroad where he has been for the past eight months. His old home is in Seattle where he has three brothers still living.

G. G. Starkland and his sister, Mrs. Pauline Prillman, were La Grande shoppers Saturday.

The highway between Cove and La Grande is drifted with snow and it is necessary to go by the way of Union and Hot Lake.

GRANGE HALL PERSONALS

GRANGE HALL, (Special)—Mr. and Mrs. John Chandler, of Portland, visited with Mrs. C. D. Hoffman at her home Thursday. C. L. Green, of Medford, Ore., arrived Wednesday and will make a prolonged visit at the home of his brother-in-law and sister, Mr. and Mrs. L. P. Wright.

W. H. Gisher, arrived home Saturday morning from Portland where he has been attending official grange business for a few days.

Mr. and Mrs. Harold Taal, of Camas, Wash., are expected home this week to spend the Christmas holidays with his parents, Mr. and Mrs. Charles Taal, of La Grande, and with relatives in this district. Several women of the north end of the district, met Friday afternoon at the home of Mrs. C. D. Hoffman and made gifts that were distributed during the program hour at the grange meeting Saturday. Those who helped were Mrs. Alex Davis, Mrs. Sam Williamson, Mrs. Iva Kennedy, Mrs. L. A. Madarson and Mrs. Charles Taal.

Mrs. Ethel DeHaas, of Island City, was a guest at the Blue Mountain grange Sunday. While on his way to his home in Portland, James W. McAlister stopped Thursday in this district and was the guest of his sister, Mrs. C. D. Hoffman. He also visited with his brother-in-law and sister, Mr. and Mrs. Sam Williamson while here. Mr. McAlister has been at Walla Walla for the past five months attending to farming interests.

Mrs. Iva Davies, Miss Sam Williamson, Mrs. Charles Taal, Mrs. Fred Veste and two little sons, Ralph and Henry, were among the visitors at Blue Mountain grange Saturday.
