

EGGS UP CENT; POULTRY QUIET

Apple Prices Firm With Large Sizes Selling Freely Around $1 Box

PORTLAND, Dec. 28 (AP)—Egg prices are quoted higher at the Portland daily exchange today following a well-attended meeting of traders here yesterday. Standard extras are a cent higher at 24c, while medium extras are a cent lower at 23c. Other grades are unchanged. Supply of eggs is good. Apples are quiet today. Apples are quiet today. Apples are quiet today.

The wholesale poultry market is quiet. Comparatively large birds are scarce. Retailers have tended to make the market. Ducks and geese are quiet. Live geese and ducks are a little lower. Prices are unchanged with demand good. Country dressed meats are a shade steadier. With best light hogs selling around 13 1/2c and a shade higher. Lamb is decidedly firm. With demand good between 20c and 22c for choice. Veal is steady around 17c to 18c. Apple prices are firm with large sizes of well-colored offerings moving freely around $1 per box for standard varieties.

Potatoes and onion markets are dull with prices holding steady.
