State College Annual Holiday Dance Enjoyable

Young people not only from La Grande but from other Eastern Oregon towns attended the Oregon State college annual Christmas dance, which was held in the ballroom of the La Grande hotel here last night. There was an unusually large crowd, and the dance proved to be a most enjoyable affair.

The college colors, gold and black, were used to decorate the ballroom. Black and gold streamers hung from the large chandelier in the center of the room, and from the circle of smaller lights around the room to the top of the windows, and formed an attractive setting for the party.

Mrs. H. H. Hetherington's orchestra furnished music for the dance, and lunch was served from a booth at one end of the room.

A feature of the evening was a song and encore number and two character impersonations by O'Brien White.

Patrons and patronesses for the dance were Mr. and Mrs. Earl Reynolds, Mr. and Mrs. Charles Reynolds, Mr. and Mrs. Lee Reynolds, Mr. and Mrs. Elmer McManus, Mr. and Mrs. J. D. Meyers, Mr. and Mrs. Roscoe Neal, Mr. and Mrs. Homer C. Wilson, Mr. and Mrs. W. C. Crowe, Mr. and Mrs. Hugh E. Brady, Mr. and Mrs. Frank L. Lilly, Mr. and Mrs. Gilbert Hunter, Mr. and Mrs. Harry B. Bridge Pointers

By Milton C. Work

This is the fifth Saturday Auction Bridge article written to meet the demands of the novice, the object being to enable any one totally unfamiliar with Bridge to acquire quickly and easily a knowledge of its fundamentals. Those who wish to follow this series should keep all the articles for ready reference; do not skip a single chapter.

The Game of Auction Bridge Chapter 5

After a bid has been made, the next player on the left may pass, overcall the bid by making a higher or bid, or double.

To understand what is meant by "overcalling" the preceding bid, it is now necessary to explain the arbitrary value assigned to the various bids. No Trump, in which tricks count ten toward the score, is the highest bidding declaration. The four suits in which tricks count respectively: Spades 8, Hearts 8, Diamonds 7 and Clubs 6, rank in that order, so that a bid in No Trump is the highest declaration and a bid in Clubs the lowest.

To overcall a bid that has been made, it is necessary to do at least one of two things: bid a higher number of tricks, or bid for an equal number of tricks in a higher-valued declaration.

Suppose the Dealer, whose position is called "South", opens the auction by bidding one Heart. West, on the left of the Dealer and the Second Hand in the bidding, could then pass double the one Heart, or make a higher bid. A higher bid would be one or more of a higher-valued declaration one or two or more of a lower-valued declaration (two or more Diamonds or two or more Clubs). Supporting West to bid one Spade, it then would be North's turn; North would have the privilege and Third Hand in the bidding. North would have the privilege of passing, doubling North's two Diamonds, or of making a higher bid. The last bid made is the only one which may be doubled; a player may not double his partner's bid.

If East should pass, it would be South's second turn and he could pass or make any higher bid. He could not double because his partner made the last bid.

The bidding continues in this way, each player's turn coming after that of his adversary on the right, until three successive passes are made; that ends the auction and the last bid becomes the contract.

MENUS

By Sister Mary

BREAKFAST—Oranges, corned beef with raisins, cream, corned beef, milk, tomato sauce, cabbage, milk, coffee.

LUNCHEON—Scalloped oysters, apple dumplings, milk, tea.

DINNER—Casseroles of rabbit, cauliflower, stuffed celery, orange soufflé, milk, coffee.

Small children should not be allowed to eat game, so a lamb chop or scraped beef patty might be provided for their dinner at noon time and no meat served to them at night.

Casseroles of Rabbit

Be sure that the tiny kernels under the forepaws of the rabbit have been removed when the rabbit was dressed. Cover with cold salt water and let stand over night for six or eight hours. Drain and disjoint. Put into a kettle with one medium sized onion, cover with boiling water and parboil for thirty minutes. Drain and throw away the water. Roll pieces of rabbit in flour and brown quickly on all sides in a hot frying pan using half butter and half lard. Put rabbit into a casserole with 1 cup diced carrots, 1/2 cup diced celery, 2 tablespoons minced onion, 1 cup diced tart apple. Make a thin gravy in the frying pan in which the rabbit was browned and pour over combination in casserole. There should be enough gravy to completely cover rabbit and vegetables. Cover casserole and cook one hour in a moderate oven. Salt and pepper are added to the gravy to season the entire dish. One and one-half teaspoons salt and 1/2 teaspoon pepper season it nicely.

FROG LEGS LIKED

NASHVILLE—Frogs' legs seem to be quite popular. More than 1,000,000 frogs were shipped out of Louisiana last year at $1 per pound. Fifteen others, weighing 15 1/2 pounds each, after constituting a biological exhibit, were reserved to scientists attending a convention here.

TOO REALISTIC

NEW YORK—The realism of Marjia Jeritza in opera is causing her to consult a physician. She injured her right wrist in a scuffle in "Tosca" so painfully that a fracture is feared. Because of pain the Florida Tosca she depicted, stabbed Scarpia, the chief of police with her left hand.

Queen Mary did her own Christmas shopping, we learn. Maybe she feared the kind would be crowned in the rush.

KIMBALL

THE gradual advance to nation-wide favor by the Kimball piano is a far more convincing story than any sudden leap to popularity could have been.

It has won behind the esteem of individual owners—one by one. These have told their story to others without bias. The immense number of Kimballs now in use is cumulative proof of merit.

When you hear the rare tonal beauty of the Kimball, you will realize wherein the reputation of this wonderful instrument lies. May we give you a demonstration today?
