Mission School Now Under Way In Local Church

Two programs of interest took place at the First Presbyterian church here during the week. On Wednesday evening a church school of missions was held, the meeting being the first of a series which will be conducted every Wednesday evening for the next five weeks.

About 45 interested members of the congregation were present, gathering in the basement of the church at 8:30 o'clock for a potluck dinner and remaining for the classes which followed, beginning at 7:15 o'clock.

The older people took up the study of mission books and the young people are studying faith and doctrine. E. E. Drusey is teacher for the men, Mrs. H. H. Cleaver, in the women's classes, and the teachers for the young people are Mrs. L. C. Bower, Mrs. Hursey Steneberg, Mrs. Hilda Anderson, Mrs. John V. Macpherson and the Rev. J. George Wala.

The second meeting of the school will be held Wednesday evening, Jan. 11, at the church and will be similar to the first meeting. On Tuesday afternoon and evening an evangelistic conference of the Grande Ronde presbytery was held at the church with the Rev. Thompson, of Portland, synodical executive of Oregon, in charge. Conferences were held during the afternoon with the Rev. Norman K. Tooley, of Salem, Mrs. E. E. H. Anderson, of Enterprise, Miss Hilda Anderson, of La Grande, the Rev. William Baird, of Baker, and the Rev. E. Paris Wells, of Enterprise as speakers. The Rev. J. George Wala, of this city, conducted the devotional.

In the evening the Rev. Mr. Talley spoke on "The Enthusiasm of Christ" and the Rev. Mr. Wells talked on "Mass Evangelism." The Rev. W. P. Shields, of Wallowa, led in prayer and the Rev. Mr. Thomas, of Halfway, read the scripture.

Obituary

AUSTRIAN FUNERAL HELD—In accordance with the Austrian custom of providing band music for the last rites of the dead the La Grande municipal band was a part of the large funeral cortege for Mrs. Manda Thomas, an Austrian by birth, whose funeral was held yesterday afternoon at the Catholic church. To the strains of Chopin's gravely beautiful funeral march that has been the dirge of European nobility for years the cortege, which included a long line of cars of friends of the deceased, the mourner's party, and the hearse, filed solemnly from the Hunter & Bohlenkamp chapel through Adams avenue, and up Fourth street to the Catholic cemetery where services were held. Elaborate floral offerings were tendered at the grave of Mrs. Thomas.

It was estimated that more than 100 Austrians were here from neighboring communities for the funeral. Mrs. Thomas passed away last Tuesday and was survived by her widowed husband and nine children. She was 41 years of age.

Open Auto Show In Gotham; Ford To Show Monday

NEW YORK, Jan. 7. (AP)—A price war among manufacturers of less expensive automobiles increased interest in the 25th annual auto show opening today for one week.

Grand Central Palace has been transformed with flowers and foliage into a country setting for the play of the latest creations of 43 manufacturers of passenger cars. The greatest interest probably centered in the exhibit of the Chevrolet, Whippet, and Star models generally viewed as rivals of the Ford for supremacy in the low priced field. The Ford motor company will have a show of its own opening Monday in Madison Square Garden.

France Willing To Join U. S. In Anti-War Move

PARIS, Jan. 7. (AP)—France is willing to join the United States in inviting all nations to join in a treaty, to be signed by the United States and France abolishing all "war of aggression." Foreign Minister Briand's reply to Secretary Kellogg says, "The reply was made public at Quai D'Orsay at noon today."

This treaty already proposed by Kellogg, would provide that "every pacific means" would be brought to bear to avoid conflicts.

WASHINGTON, Jan. 7. (AP)—France's note, proposing a treaty to outlaw "war of aggression" was given out today at the state department in an atmosphere clouded with doubt over an early agreement to submit an anti-war declaration to the powers.

Insertion of an "aggressive war" phrase into the document constituted the hitch, because the Kellogg plan had been to declare against war in any form.

Nevertheless, diplomatic discussion between the United States and France continue with practical assurance that the Root arbitration pact that expires Feb. 27 will be succeeded by a new pact agreement of this character.

KILLS MAN SAID WORTH MILLIONS

Don Solovitch, Slain in Utah, Believed Heir to Half of $5,350,000

SALT LAKE CITY, Jan. 7. (AP)—Sheldon Clark, 47, of Mendocino, Calif., was arrested here early this morning and admitted that he killed a man believed to be Don Solovitch, former metropolitan opera dancer, and moving picture actor, and heir to a large French fortune. Solovitch was found near death from blows struck over the head in a gutty near Gunnison, Utah, Friday afternoon.

Clark told the sheriff, that shortly before shooting Gunnison, Solovitch behaved like a degenerate. They continued to drive through Gunnison and had reached a point two miles north of that city when Solovitch became more offensive.

At this point the boy said, both of them got out of the automobile and Solovitch attacked him with a hammer. Clark said he struck him, with his fist, and knocked him down, then gained possession of the hammer and struck him twice on the head. He said that he also threw a rock which hit Solovitch in the abdomen.

A little pad of newspaper clippings in an inside pocket gave the only clue to the man's identity. One of the clippings told of a "Don Solovitch, former metropolitan opera dancer and now a Hollywood screen actor," who had fallen heir to a half share in an estate in southern France valued at $5,350,000.

Solovitch was formerly a butler in the employ of Lita Grey, Charles, screen actress. Clark told a reporter of the Salt Lake Telegram today.
