

Vegetables Are Still Affected By Recent Cold

PORTLAND, Ore., Jan. 11 (AP)—Conditions in the local produce markets are still considerably affected by the recent freeze and snow. The cabbage and onion markets are especially affected and large crops at present quotations are being marketed. In the case of the cabbage, the market is being held by the frost but it is expected that the market will be better in a few days.

Some small amounts of snow falling in the last few days have helped to keep the market steady. The market is expected to be better in a few days.

Extreme Gains Reduced in Last Hour of Trading

NEW YORK, Jan. 11 (AP)—The stock market recovered its upward trend today after an early period of irregularity. Operations for the advance started aggressive operations in a burst of more operations. Early gains in these issues ran from 4 to 16 points, with a much more moderate recovery in the standard industrials and rails.

Call money was in plentiful supply at the renewal figure of 4 1/2 per cent. Bullish sentiment here was created by the Interstate Commerce Commission's approval of the St. Paul reorganization plan and by the reported success in steel operations and the firming commodity price tendencies.

Bullion moved 1/2 point to 124 1/2 by early afternoon, and Wall Street jumped 4 points to 84, both new high records. President Hoover's speech yesterday and the report of the St. Paul reorganization plan and by the reported success in steel operations and the firming commodity price tendencies.

Speculation interest in the railroad group was divided between the reorganization of the St. Paul and the report of the St. Paul reorganization plan and by the reported success in steel operations and the firming commodity price tendencies.

147 Convicted In Rome of Crimes: Mafia Hard Hit

ROME, Jan. 11 (AP)—Government officials were confident today that the notorious mafia had been given a death blow. After a trial lasting three months, 147 members of the organization have been convicted of various crimes ranging from murder to racketeering.

The trial was the outcome of a previous move by Premier Mussolini to drive the country from the shadow of the mafia. Many lawyers defended the accused, but the government was confident of a victory.
