Hope Chapter, No. 13, Installs Its 1928 Officials

With ceremonies which were exceptionally beautiful, impressive and dignified, Mrs. Lydia Loney was duly installed as worthy matron of Hope chapter No. 13, Order of the Eastern Star last evening. The exercises were witnessed and participated in by a large group of members of the order, together with visiting members. Mrs. Nettie K. Kakin, a past worthy matron, served as installing officer and exemplified the work in a most charming manner. She was assisted by Mrs. Carrie E. Steinhilber, as installing marshal, Mrs. Stella Ingles as installing chaplain, and Mrs. Jean Birnie, each of whom were introduced by Mrs. Maud K. Eberhard.

Together with Mrs. Loney, who will hold the chief office of the chapter this year, the following elective and appointive officers, were installed in their respective stations: worthy patron, John S. Hodgkin; associate matron, Mrs. Hazel Graham; secretary, Mrs. Florence Hanson; treasurer, Mrs. Ella W. Russell; conductress, Mrs. Myrtle E. Beatty; associate conductress, Mrs. Iva M. Robinson; chaplain, Mrs. Miriam Baker; inspirer, Mrs. Minnie E. Hodgkin; orator, Mrs. Nettie G. Neill; Adah, Mrs. Winifred Blokland; Ruth, Mrs. Emma Fowler; Esther, Mrs. Ruth Walker; Martha, Miss Stella Block; Electa, Mrs. Hazel Tryon; warder, Mrs. Stella Pharis; sentinel, J. J. Robinson; color bearer, Dr. J. J. Ingles.

When the officers had been properly seated, Mrs. Hazel Graham, associate matron, presented Mrs. Loney with a basket of flowers which were meant to convey to her the best wishes of her associates in office and their pledge for hearty support throughout the year. Mrs. Loney responded with feeling. Junior Worthy Patron J. L. Ingles spoke for the members of the chapter, the outgoing officers and himself in extending to the retiring worthy matron, Mrs. Minnie E. Hodgkin words of appreciation and also as a custom in the order, presenting her with the past matron's jewel. In responding Mrs. Hodgkin thanked her officers and the chapter for the spirit of cooperation and helpfulness displayed during her regime. The new worthy patron, Mr. Hodgkin, also spoke, touching the outstanding principles of the order and its relation to the Masonic fraternity.

The installation was a part of the regular meeting of the chapter during which reports of the year's work were given. It was also the time for the election of the advisory board of the Order of the Rainbow for Girls, and the old board was re-elected. G. N. Turkin having been elected to fill the vacancy caused by the removal of A. V. Lindgren.

Following the close of the meeting the entire group went to the banquet room, where refreshments were served by a committee headed by Mrs. Mae Parkinson and Mrs. Minnie Lewis.

Mr. and Mrs. A. W. Nelson entertained the members of the Alpha club at a bridge-dinner last evening at their home on Cedar street. A three-course dinner was served at 7:15 o'clock at five small tables, where bridge was enjoyed afterwards. Bouquets of chrysanthemums and snapdragons in lavender and rose colors were used to decorate the rooms.

Carnation Club Elects Officers

Officers of the Carnation club were elected last evening when the regular meeting of the club was held at the home of Mrs. Alliston Price with Mrs. Parley Price assisting as hostess.

Mrs. E. F. Heaster was elected president, Mrs. Clark Webb vice president and Mrs. Parley Price secretary-treasurer. Mrs. H. E. Swan, Mrs. H. H. Smith and Mrs. Ernest Walden were appointed as members of the auditing committee. By-laws prepared by Mrs. C. E. Waite, Mrs. Jack Hilt and Mrs. Al Hedman were accepted by the club members.

Auxiliary Meets At M. E. Church

On Tuesday evening Mrs. F. A. Epling was hostess at an enjoyable meeting of the Young Women's Educational auxiliary of the Methodist Episcopal church, 60 young women being present. Mrs. Epling was assisted by Miss Anne Arnoldus, Mrs. Ralph Webb, Miss Anetta Johnson, Miss Mae Stearns and Miss Miriam Cooper, as well as by those taking part in the program.

The program topic for the evening was "Best Things of 1927," and the various divisions were presented by Miss Henrietta Heering, who reviewed Elizabeth Cooper's "My Lady of the Indian Paradise," Miss Anetta Johnson, with a review of Edwin Arlington Robinson's narrative poem, "Tristram;" Dr. Lewa Wilkes, who gave a short life of Douglas Volk, and his painting of Abraham Lincoln, exhibiting several prints of the picture, and by Miss Nell Mahaffey, who reviewed Sam Green's play, "In Abraham's Bosom."

The last numbers were given by an orchestra, new to local audiences, and one which the auxiliary enthusiastically adopted as its own. Miss Minna Cooper sang "The Winding Trail," to an orchestral accompaniment, for the first musical number after which the orchestra gave two more selections. The personnel is as follows: Violins, Mrs. D. S. Robinson and Miss Mae Stearns; saxophone, Miss Mabel Doty; cello, Miss Minna Cooper and Miss Sarah Williamson; piano, Mrs. Ralph Clark.

tee served refreshments. Several new members were present at the meeting. The next issue is an "Art Masquerade," with Miss Blanche Herzinger as chairman. The time and place of the meeting will be announced later.

The Helomata Bridge club met yesterday afternoon with Mrs. George McVey as hostess at her home on Sixth street. Three tables of cards were at play during the afternoon and high score was won by Mrs. W. L. Lane. Mrs. Denver Charlton received the consolation prize and the guest prize went to Mrs. Frank Birlew.

The rooms were prettily decorated with bouquets of poppies. After the games the guests were seated at one large table and a two-course luncheon was served by the hostess. A large potted cyclamen served as a centerpiece for the luncheon table.

Mrs. Harris French will be the next hostess to the club Wednesday afternoon, Jan. 25, at the Hill apartments.

The Daughters of the American Revolution met yesterday afternoon at the home of Mrs. H. C. Smith in an interesting session. The purchasing of a chair in Constitution hall, now under construction in Washington, D. C., as a memorial to the late Mrs. Grace Hussey, was discussed during the business session. The Adelphi Island committee reported that a complete box of clothing had been sent to the island.

The advisability of a silver tea to be held on Washington's birthday was discussed, but no action was taken. To hold a tea on this date is the annual custom of D. A. R. chapters everywhere.

Mrs. Ed Kaitis was elected delegate to the D. A. R. congress to be held in Washington, D. C., in April. A social hour followed when the hostess served refreshments.

Third Elks Dance Given Last Night

About 40 couples attended the dance which was given in the Elks' ballroom here last night. The dance was the third of a series being given by the lodge for its members and friends during the winter months. Many impromptu orchestra furnished music for the dancing, which started at 9 o'clock.

At about 11 o'clock refreshments were served in the dining hall. The next dance to be given by the lodge will be Wednesday evening, Jan. 25.

Honoring the 75th birthday anniversary of L. L. McKennon, Mrs. McKennon entertained at a turkey dinner yesterday afternoon at their home on N avenue. Covers were laid for 12 around the attractively decorated table and at 2 o'clock an excellent dinner was served, consisting of turkey and the many things that go with it. Flowers formed a pretty centerpiece for the table.

Those present for the dinner were Mr. and Mrs. Frank McKennon, and Mr. and Mrs. Routh McKennon, Mr. and Mrs. W. R. Ledbetter, Mrs. J. D. McKennon, and Mrs. Juckman, of Imbler, besides the honor guest and hostess.

After dinner the afternoon was spent visiting and extending best wishes to Mr. McKennon for many more happy birthdays.

The Altar society of the Catholic church had an interesting meeting yesterday afternoon at the home of Mrs. William Siegrist. Mrs. Hugh Brady presided over the business session, when plans were discussed to take up a study program at the social meetings of the society. A definite program will be outlined and presented to the members later.

A social hour followed the business meeting when the hostess served refreshments.

The White Rose club of the Ladies' auxiliary to the Brotherhood of Railway Trainmen met last evening with Mrs. C. E. Happersett and Mrs. Sadie Bull as hostesses at the Happersett home.

Fourteen members were present and during the evening games were enjoyed, after which the women sewed and visited. Refreshments were served by the hostesses.

On Tuesday evening Mrs. F. A. Epling was hostess at an enjoyable meeting of the Young Women's Educational auxiliary of the Methodist Episcopal church, 60 young women being present. Mrs. Epling was assisted by Miss Anne Arnoldus, Mrs. Ralph Webb, Miss Anetta Johnson, Miss Mae Stearns and Miss Miriam Cooper, as well as by those taking part in the program.

The program topic for the evening was "Best Things of 1927," and the various divisions were presented by Miss Henrietta Heering, who reviewed Elizabeth Cooper's "My Lady of the Indian Paradise," Miss Anetta Johnson, with a review of Edwin Arlington Robinson's narrative poem, "Tristram;" Dr. Lewa Wilkes, who gave a short life of Douglas Volk, and his painting of Abraham Lincoln, exhibiting several prints of the picture, and by Miss Nell Mahaffey, who reviewed Sam Green's play, "In Abraham's Bosom."

MENUS

By Sister Mary
BREAKFAST—Sections of grapefruit, hominy grits with figs, cream, crisp toast, milk, coffee.
LUNCHEON—Mock oyster soup, croquettes, raisins, apple and nut salad, popovers, molasses cookies, milk, tea.

DINNER—Roast spareribs, scalloped sweet fruit and mashed potatoes, stuffed kumquat, salad, chilled apple sauce, ginger bread, milk, coffee.

Perhaps breakfast is your greatest problem—the family are "difficult" early in the morning, there's always a rush and it's the same thing time after time. Hominy grits are ideal for winter time when heat-producing foods are needed. The coarse hominy or samp is used as a vegetable rather than a cereal while the fine hominy known as "grits" is used as a cereal.

Hominy Grits With Figs
One cup hominy grits, 4 cups water, 1 scant teaspoon salt, 1/2 cup chopped figs.
Add salt to boiling water and sift in hominy through the fingers. Cook, stirring vigorously, directly over the heat for fifteen minutes. Then cook for two or three hours in double boiler. Wash figs thoroughly and cut in small pieces. Add to cereal and let stand overnight. In the morning reheat in double boiler and serve.

AMERICAN NAVY STARTS FRENCH FAD
PARIS (AP)—Regulation hats and ties of American sailors are the latest cry in smartness at French seaside resorts. On tennis courts and beaches where winter is for a season in spring like sunshine the little white navy hat is popular among men and women alike. Women wear the ties with blouses which have sailor collars, and men use them as scarfs or belts on white trousers.

THIPLE BUCKLES RAISE SHOE COSTS
PARIS (AP)—Two and three pairs of shoe buckles are used on some of the new shoe designs and cost of footwear has gone up proportionately. Small buckles are not only placed on the shoe, but on each of several tiny straps over the instep. Their addition almost doubles the price of the shoe.
