May Trade Third "Liberties" For Treasury Bonds

The third Liberty bonds will become due and payable on Sept. 15 of this year and in exchange for these the United States treasury department is offering a three and one-half per cent bond, which will become due in 1932. Official notice to that effect was received in La Grande this morning and was announced through the United States National bank here.

There is more than two billion dollars outstanding in Liberty bonds, at the rate of four and a quarter per cent interest, which are payable in September. This bond is no longer issued, however, by the government.

Subscription for the exchange for three and one-half per cent bonds can be made through any of the local banks.

Closing Is Weak In Stock Market; Call Money Up

NEW YORK, Jan. 16 (AP)—Reactionary price tendencies predominated in today's stock market, which witnessed the elimination of many weakened speculative accounts. Declines in most of the standard high priced pool specialties broke 3 to 7 points.

Despite reassuring statements of automobile executives, motors continued to lose ground on fears of reduced profits through recent price cuts. One block of 10,000 shares of General Motors changed hands at 131; Jordan touched a new low record at 9, and Hupp sold off two points. U. S. Steel common touched 144¾, the lowest price in about a month, but Youngstown showed independent strength. U. S. Cast Iron Pipe broke 7 points and Sloss Sheffield 5.

Texas and Pacific, St. Louis Southwestern and Atchison suffered the sharpest declines in the railroad group.

The closing was weak. Prices began to drop with greater velocity when the call money rate was raised to 4½ per cent in the final hour. Many high priced stocks suffered severe losses. Midland Steel products preferred got down 8 points, International Harvester 7, Chesapeake and Ohio and Greene Cananea Copper 6½, Abraham and Straus 5½ and Radio 4½. Total sales approximated 2,400,000 shares.

Prices Steady In Portland As The Week Starts

PORTLAND, Ore., Jan. 16 (AP)—Prices on Portland wholesale markets were steady today with quotations little changed from Saturday's figures.

Pork continued rather weak, with large supplies on hand, and receipts heavy. Hogs moved slowly early today around 12@12½c for the best light animals. Veal and lambs were firm with demand slightly better. Beef prices continued strong in all divisions.

Butter and egg prices were steady on Saturday's quotations, with demand and receipts normal. A peculiar condition existed in the local market in that prices here were quoted higher than in San Francisco and other coast cities. Easier prices were expected here following the meeting of the dairy exchange this afternoon.

Fruit and vegetables prices likewise were holding steady. Trading was light and perishables continued to bring top prices due to difficulties of shipment.

The Girl You Left Behind You

Didn't you promise yourself last year — only a few short weeks ago — that you were going to "turn over a new leaf"? That you really were going to start a savings account, stop frittering money away on unnecessary things and pay cash for everything.

The Girl You Left Behind You in 1927 was very serious about it and completely convinced that putting the family finances on a pay-as-you-go basis was the only sensible thing to do. She realized that half of the monthly bills were unnecessary and that paying cash made you a keener judge of values and a more intelligent shopper.

Don't forget all about that girl — now that 1928 is two weeks old. Our cash selling means a cash saving, of course, which is handy to start that bank account, but it means more than that. It will help you face the future with confidence and in 1929 the Girl You Leave Behind You will look back over 1928 with satisfaction and peace of mind.
