DELANEY WINS IN TWENTY SECONDS

Paolino Knocks Out Ed Keeley in Second Round in New York Ring

NEW YORK, Jan. 17 (AP)—Knockout victories had boosted the stock of Jack Delaney and Paolino Izoudun in the heavy-weight market today. Delaney furnished an unusual feat in ring performance last night by landing a single haymaker on Sully Montgomery's chin in 20 seconds of the first round of a ten-round bout. Izoudun estimated Ed Keeley from the picture in little more than two minutes of mauling in the second round of another ten-round. The referee stopped the bout.

Starting a campaign for recognition as a challenger for heavy-weight honors Delaney struck but one blow, a right to the chin, to bow the giant Texan on the canvas.

One Good Wallop Montgomery, with the ponderous poundage of 216 against the bridgeporter's 180, rushed on his rival after they shook hands and missed a vicious left swing by about two feet. Delaney stepped forward nimbly and caught Sully with a solid smash, ending the fight.

It was five minutes before Montgomery was revived with the aid of restoratives. Some 2,000 fans were jammed in the St. Nicholas rink as Delaney flashed the form of the days when he was the world's light heavyweight champion.

The mystery over Paolino's antics in twice evading a bout with Kelly remained unsolved after the pugilist decisively whipped the Bostonian at the new Broadway arena in Brooklyn. About 5,000 persons saw the tussle.

Basque Master Keeley's southpaw tactics failed to make any impression on the Spaniard. Keeley landed some hard body punches in the first round but missed frequently. Paolino rapped his foe's head and again with terrific right hand punches to the head.

Shortly after the second stanza was under way, Paolino bore in furiously with a swift foot fisted attack to the body and face which Keeley spinned around the ropes. Paolino staggered the hubber with a right to the jaw which would have dropped Keeley but for the interference of the referee.

Paolino leaves Thursday for a 15-round bout against Romero Rojas in the bull ring at Mexico City on Jan. 25.

Whitman Noses Out University Of Oregon, 27-26

EUGENE, Ore., Jan. 17 (AP)—Displaying a flashy attack and a consistent defense, the Whitman college basketball team of Walla Walla, Wash., defeated the University of Oregon here last evening by a single point, 27 to 26. It was the first loss of the season for the Oregon team.

The visiting Missionaries sprung a surprise. A hard game had been expected but Oregon was certain of a victory. The Webfoot team led for most of the game by a small margin, but the Whitman offense overcame the lead toward the end and the flashy Whitman players eluded the small margin until the final gun.

Appearances are deceiving. Not all dumb waiters are pulled up by a rope, but possibly they ought to be.

THERE'S TITLE TO THIS POLOIST

Here's a player who brings his own title into the polo tournament at Del Monte's winter season. He's the Marquis de Parthenay, Spanish grandee, who captains a team, handles a wicked mallet, and has been an expert horseman all his life. In addition, he was the 1927 national amateur middleweight champion boxer of Spain and represented that country in many international golf tournaments. The marquis is considerable of a social idol at Del Monte, too.

McEwan Starts Grid Practice Work Tomorrow

EUGENE, Ore., Jan. 17 (AP)—Captain John J. McEwan, head Webfoot football coach, will start an intensive winter football program tomorrow in preparation for the 1928 grid campaign. About 20 candidates from last year's varsity squad and the 1927 freshman team are expected to report.

The spring practice session will be conducted for the purpose of individual development according to McEwan. Drill will be carried on every afternoon, but each man will only be required to report three times a week.

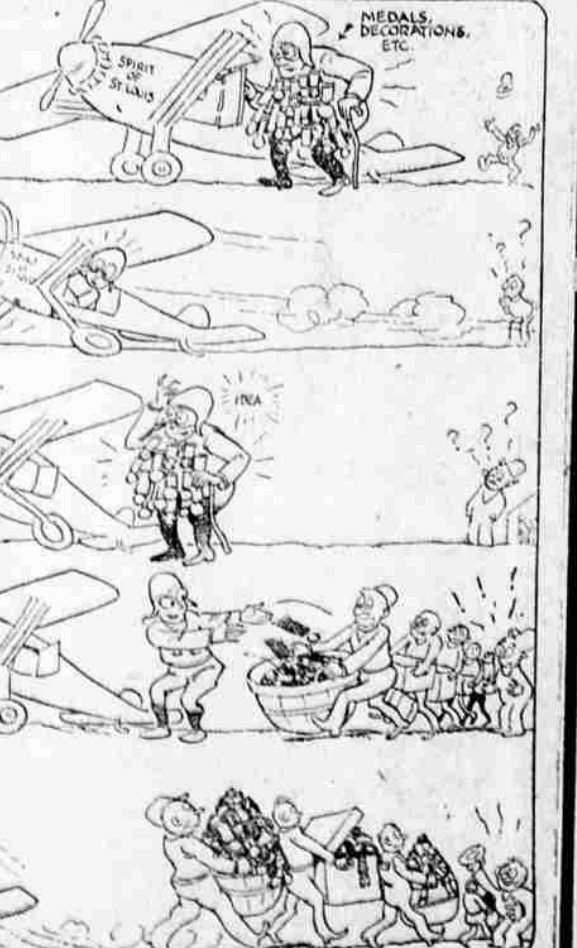

The nucleus for next fall's team will be formed from lettermen and hold over reserves from last season. Several regulars from the freshman team are counted on to furnish some of the power that was lacking in the Oregon team in 1927.

The Webfooters were handicapped throughout last season by lack of weight on the line. The Webfooters had speed on the line, but this year McEwan hopes to include weight with swiftness.

Prothro Given Release by Cubs

CHICAGO, Jan. 17 (AP)—J. T. Prothro, a bright prospect for a berth on the Chicago Cubs infield, today was given his release to enable him to manage the Memphis Southern association club. Prothro whose home is in Memphis, was obtained by the Cubs from the Portland club of the Pacific Coast league by draft.

LINDY "TAKES OFF"—A FUTURE POSSIBILITY

Union High Boys Lose To Cougars And Baker Five

UNION, Ore., Jan. 17 (Special)—The Maroon and White basketball quiet journey to Wallatowa Friday and played the Cougars, the game resulting in a victory for Wallatowa by a score of 25 to 15. The boys from Union high who made the trip were: Parent, Cox, Miller, Delap, Coburn, Wilde and Orton. Coach Coburn began the game with Parent and Delap as forwards, Wilde center, and Cox and Wilkinson as guards, but all night of the game played during some part of the game, John Wirtman, eighth grade teacher had a team of grade boys on the same trip and they won from the Wallatowa grade five by a score of 12 to 15.

Saturday evening the Baker team, both boys and girls, came down accompanied by a large delegation of basketball fans and played a double header on the Union floor. The girls played first and this encounter proved to be the most closely contested game the girls have played with the Baker team for years. The first half closed up by the referee was edged by Vivian Smith in about five seconds of play. Baker immediately retaliated and the score was on Union would force ahead and Baker would soon tie the score. The half ended 14 to 14 and three other times the two scores were the same. Union finally obtained a lead and the game ended with a score of 20 to 24. Vivian Smith of Union, was easily the high point player of the game. Miss Landreth, of Baker, made several long shots and connected with the hoop.

In the game between the Bulldogs and the Bulldogs the score was not so close, although Union made the Baker boys play all the time. Playing a superior brand of team work and curving the floor a little faster than the Bulldogs, the Bulldogs secured and maintained a lead of a few points during the first half and in the last two quarters they increased this lead to a safer margin, ending with 24 to Union's 18. Parent was the only player who seemed able to connect with the basket with any degree of success, making most of Union's score, three of his baskets being shot from just the center of the floor. Adrian Goodford, a Union man, refereed both games. He has been handling the referee's whistle for about all the games played here this year and is giving excellent satisfaction to both the local and visiting schools.

SEARCH FOR COLLEGE GIRL IS CONTINUING

NORTHAMPTON, Mass., Jan. 17 (AP)—In reference to a Smith college girl whose idea of uncolored bliss once was to run away, continuing tips and rumors poured in today on college and police authorities.

Miss Frances St. John Smith, missing Smith college freshman and daughter of a New York broker, disappeared last Friday.

Reports of the appearance of Miss Smith came from as widely separated places as Portland, Me., and Hartford, Conn., while friends of the family were quietly conducting an investigation in New York city near her home.

State Detective Joseph Daily sought cooperation of Connecticut authorities in running down a story from Hartford that she had been seen there Sunday. Two drug clerks and a Mrs. Mary B. Hooker, member of the board of education, were the sources of information there.

Miss Hooker said that the girl was in her new in the center Congregational church, sang hymns and spoke in a pleasant voice when she suggested that she might like to meet other members of the congregation. The girl declined, however, and said she would only be in the city for the week.

Another possible clue was seen in the revelation that Miss Smith had once harbored a desire to "run away."

CAPITAL BESET BY MANY FIRES

Forced to Ask Aid of Baltimore—Arrest Man Suspected of Incendiarism

WASHINGTON, Jan. 17 (AP)—Five extraneous fires, interspersed with several minor ones and a few false ones, threw the national capital into a state of turmoil last night and early today and led the police to believe fire bugs were at work. The blazes, the first of which began shortly before midnight, continued until after 3 o'clock this morning bringing apparatus from many nearby Virginia and Maryland towns to aid an exhausted Washington crew and starting a wide search for suspects believed to have deliberately set fire to the places and to have turned in false alarms to divert the fire fighters.

EGG ACTS UP

PENNINGTON, Jan. 17 (AP)—Pilot Cook, south of Pennington, wants to know what is wrong with a wild little hen egg laid by a domestic old ranch hen. The egg in question will not be quiet as a good little egg should, but immediately stands on one end and rocks back and forth and acts very un-egg like. It is on exhibition in Pilot Cook's.

PRIZE WINNERS BURNED

BUTTE, Mont., Jan. 17 (AP)—Sixty prize winner Ancon chickens that had won awards at virtually every big poultry exhibit in the west were burned in a fire last night that destroyed the poultry houses at the home of Jean Jordan.

In any of the blazes although a score of firemen were overcome when a gas main broke in the Woolworth store, the first blaze in the series that kept a continued procession of fire-fighting equipment running over the city for more than nine hours and started ten pieces of apparatus over the long 40-mile run from Baltimore. Firemen from the Maryland city, besides aiding in combating two of the fires, were placed in vacant fire houses in various sections for protective purposes. The police department threw an emergency force into every section of the city to run down any suspects, while a score of others were placed on guard at large industrial plants, lumber yards and other establishments to forestall any other possible fires. Fisher was arrested at a home near the Walter Reed hospital after he had been trailed there on an automobile license number tip. Police began a check up of his past record to see if he had been implicated in any arson cases here or at Pittsburgh.
