Student Recital At Robinson Home Attended by 60

The first student recital this year, which was, in addition to being a most pleasing musical program, a delightful social affair, took place Tuesday evening when Miss P. S. Robinson presented Miss Esmeralda Graham in piano recital, assisted by Thomas Bruce baritone, daughter of Mrs. Jessie A. Hawkins.

The program was given at the Robinson home on Fourth street, where about 60 persons gathered. Two small pupils of Mrs. Robinson, little Mildred Brock and Margaret Davy, welcomed the visitors at the door and ushered them into the home, which was attractively decorated with bouquets of pink carnations and pink anemones.

The program included three groups played by Miss Graham, "Hungarian Rhapsody No. 17" by Liszt; "Largo" from the New World Symphony by Beethoven, and "Casse Bellante" Opus 26 by Anna-Zucca; and "Dolla de Reine" Opus 95 by Raff, and two groups by Tom Blues, "Down by the Sea" by Arthur Penn and "Drumadon" by Sanderson and "An Old-Fashioned Town" by Spire and "She Never Told Her Love" by Hayden. Guest accompanist Mr. James at the piano.

Refreshments were served in the dining room following the program, those assisting Mrs. Robinson being Mrs. Anna Potank, Miss Mabel Doty, Miss Betha Wallinger, Miss Myrtle Stearns and Miss Milma Gagnoy.

NICE KITTY! Apparently Olga, huge leopard, didn't resent the fact that Peggy Hamilton, Los Angeles fashion designer, was wearing the hide of one of the animal's ancestors. But Miss Hamilton admits that she prefers her leopards skinned.

CONTRACT BRIDGE. Having concluded the consideration of original one No Trump bids at Contract when made by Dealer, Second Hand after one pass, Third Hand after three passes; we will now consider similarly original bids of one of a suit.

I am more liberal than many in advocating light initial suit-bids because I am thoroughly impressed with many advantages that a suit-bid has as compared with a pass. It is apt to produce a partial score; it is apt to give the partner valuable information; it is apt to shut the adversaries out of the advantageous bid, and it will tell the partner what to lead if the adversaries get the contract.

For these reasons I believe in making suit-bids with practically the same strength as in Auction Bridge, but of course only with dependable partners who will not jump a suit-bid of one without the requisite strength. But there are two holdings with which suit-bids are conventional in Auction Bridge with which I would pass in Contract. With a four-card suit headed by King-Queen and one side Ace, or with a five-card suit headed by an Ace (no other face card in the suit) and a side Ace I would pass if playing Contract. I would not pass either of these holdings in Auction, although both are doubtful bids; but in Contract I believe them to be distinctly unwise.

All other suit-bids which are correct in Auction for a Dealer, or Second Hand after Dealer's pass, or Third Hand after two passes, should be made in Contract, although in some instances in Contract the size of the bid would be greater.

The following hands, concededly light, would make sound Contract suit-bids of one for a Dealer or Second Hand after Dealer's pass.

Slippers Of Silver Favorite Footgear

By Hazel Travis

PARIS (AP)—Shoes used to be chosen to match dresses, but since silver slippers became so popular that many women wear almost nothing else it is apparent that a great many fashionable women are picking out dresses which will set off their slippers.

Silver kid is undoubtedly Paris' first choice this winter.

The decoration and design of these shoes has reached such an art that even the old-time embroidered shoes of queens and princesses preserved in French museums are put to shame by the skill and beauty of the modern creations. The old embroidery designs are copied by the modern craftsman in kid, jewels and silk thread. Usually they are simplified and always they are adapted.

The most important designers insist upon elegant simplicity in footwear, and silver and gold kids set off with colored appliques of kid work out well in the new styles. Perugia's new styles are less complicated than they have been for several seasons.

Some of the newest black satin slippers for afternoon wear have silver or gold heels and simple appliques of silver and gold kid in lieu of jeweled buckles.

Back seat drivers are the people who put the kicks in motoring.

These are the minima and are recommended only when facing a dependable partner and when held by a player who, if he becomes declarer, will make all the tricks that the hand contains. With any strength less than the hands above I would pass; and for a player doubtful of his ability to play the hand perfectly, or for a player facing a partner apt to overbid, I would recommend a pass even with these hands.

TAFFETA FASHIONS SPRING POSSIBILITY

Nearly every large dress designer shows some dress of plain colored or flowered taffeta in the pre-spring collections. Afternoon frocks of navy blue taffeta have had a bit success at one house for wear at southern resorts.

....about advertising

The products you see consistently advertised in this paper are worthy of your confidence.

It takes two things to make a consistent advertiser. One is a strong conviction that he has a product that will hold its place in public favor despite competition. The other is actual proof of that . . . the increasing popularity of his product.

If his product will not stand the test of comparison he would simply be throwing his advertising investment away. If the buying public rejects his product after it has been offered in advertising he has thrown his advertising investment away.

That's why the manufacturer who advertises his merchandise consistently is very sure of his quality . . . and why you may be sure of it, too.

Read the advertising here in your newspaper . . . it will guide you to the buying of worthy merchandise
