Question: How can our kiddies keep well and strong?

Answer: By building up a resistance against sickness, and that's easy and pleasant if they take

SCOTT'S EMULSION

Be stubborn if you want to. But a fellow who sets his head against battles out much.

Well, one more couldn't do much harm. Why not a "What Every Girl Should Know" week?

STRANGE PROPS

Carrying his luggage and his golf clubs, he climbed into an ancient back and told the driver, an old negro, to take him to the local hotel. The colored man eyed the queer-looking bag with its queer stick. Finally his curiosity got the better of him.

HAPPINESS

A little frog sits on a log. It's happy in the cozy bog. Because, it pays no rent.

—Charlie Leedy, in Youngstown Telegram.

A robin sat upon its nest. It let the whole world pass; Contentment lived within its breast. It had no bills for "mas."

—Canton, Ohio, News

Inside a snake that froggie went. A smug cat snatched his lips. And neither had to pay a cent For meal checks or for tips.

Tramp: "Can you give a poor man a piece of cake and some ice cream?"

Housewife: "Cake and ice cream? You're particular!"

"Not usually, ma'am. But this is my birthday, and I'd like to celebrate."

"Mr. Slimkins, couldn't you give me a position of some kind with you?"

"Very sorry—don't think there is any vacancy in my establishment."

"If you have nothing else employ me as your advisor."

"Very well; you can begin by advising me how I can get rid of you."

THE GHOST WALKED

The dead man left St. Louis Tuesday to walk to Boston. It was said.

NEW GOWNS INCLUDE MATCHING KERCHIEFS

PARIS (AP)—Handkerchiefs for every costume are advocated by Paris designers.

A millionaire of fame was the first to make the kerchief which a favored elite wore that around her wrist. It was a man sized affair with lace on two sides only which the lady wrapped twice around her wrist and tied in a knot. Now many women are wearing similar handkerchiefs and many exclusive shops are showing them in great assortment.

One of the original models was made of two triangles of chiffon in contrasting colors.

AT THE THEATERS

Patsy Ruth Has Lead in Film At Colonial

"What Every Girl Should Know," featuring Patsy Ruth Miller, is showing at the Colonial for the first time today.

As a champion of her wrongfully accused big brother, and of her little brother, too, she showed the girl which inevitably wins, whether in the movies or in real life. There are opportunities to play upon many more notes in the scale of human emotion in "What Every Girl Should Know," all of which Patsy uses to the fullest.

The male lead is played by handsome Jim Keith, who is well known for his work with other popular screen stars. Mickey Moran, the child-star, is also featured and acquires himself notably, as he always does. Those who have seen "The Return of Peter Grimm" will remember him as the child for whom the general, if abashed, Peter returns. He is the sailor among the three children in "Boat Race" and was also in "Peter Pan" and with Harold Lloyd in "Hot Water."

Army Airmen Rush Serum to Spaniard

WASHINGTON, Jan. 20 (AP)—Another act of humanitarianism has been placed to the credit of the army air corps for rushing a supply of serum from Manila to Madrid in an attempt to save the life of a young Spaniard dying from gangrene infection.

A sugar company, whose field superintendent who had been cut with a bolt by a native and who was in a dying condition, appealed to army headquarters at Manila to send a supply of serum by air to Madrid.

Within 2 1/2 hours, two amphibian planes were on their way with a flight surgeon and medicine. The planes reached Madrid in five hours. The flight surgeon was rushed to the hospital where he found the young Spaniard surrounded by his friends and a priest administering the last rites. The room was cleared and the patient treated with serum. At last reports, hopes were entertained for his recovery.

"Get Your Man" Gives Clara Chance At Comedy

Clara Bow has annexed another title. The redhead of the screen who personified "It" in the picture of that name established herself as the typical American flapper in "Tough House Rosie" and gained the name of a heart smasher in "Hula" is now a great comedienne.

"Get Your Man" which opened yesterday at the Arcadia theater for a three day run, puts her in the latter class.

The way this vivacious miss put over the sparkling humor in Paramount's latest vehicle, had them holding their sides at the Arcadia theater.

Miss Bow had a great break in her story and she made the most of her opportunities. The comedy which is packed in the scenes where Miss Bow and Charles Rogers, her leading man, are locked all night in a Parisian wax-works museum bubbles over with laughs. There seems no end to the situations in which a youthful couple can involve themselves at night among figures which walk, roll their eyes, wave their arms, fall in one's arms and all but talk.

One gets plenty of heart flutters when Miss Bow goes through her scenes in the bedroom sequences which wind up the story. Her negligence apparently steals the show. Charles Rogers is coming fast. The handsome leading man who scored so heavily in "Wines"

The monoplane was forced down due to exhaustion of fuel supply. It took off at 8:09 a. m. Tuesday. Its time in the air was approximately
