THE CANCER PROBLEM
By A. L. Hest, M. D.
Oklahoma City, Okla.
Member Gorgas Memorial

What do we know about cancer?

1. We know it is a mass of living cells.

2. These cells differ from the body cells only in the lack of specialization. The primitive and most urgent function of all living cells is reproduction. But in the highly organized human body certain cells are specialized for the reproductive function just as other cells are set aside for other functions—thinking, digestion, etc.

Reproduction to the single celled organism a simple matter of cell division—one cell makes two cells, two cells make four cells. That is by geometric ratio—an almost incalculable, a colossal thing.

The cancer cell is a reversion, a back to the primitive reproductive function. Just as civilization under stress drops from nations so does specialization fall away from the cell and it again obeys the primitive law, violates the acquired social law of the communities of cells making up the body, and becomes anarchistic. All anarchists live on the community they infest—no parasite.

3. Cancer is parasitic and lives on its host. Not only does it live on its host, but in living gives off deleterious poisons just as the anarchist does.

4. How does cancer spread through the body? To begin with, it has no roots, it is animal, not vegetable. With the blood vessel system every one is familiar, but less so with the lymphatic circulatory system. Briefly, the latter consists of minute channels which drain given areas of lymph, converging at given points where they pass through strainers called lymph glands or nodes on their way to the central station. The cancer cell, in dividing to make more cells, at some time, crumbles into a lymph channel, is washed along in the current until caught and held in one of these strainers where it

AT THE THEATERS

Vivid Story of Sahara Is "Fighting Love"

The attempt by Italy to regain the lost province of Tripolitania and the machinations of a rascally territorial governor who plotted against his own countrymen, are the main features of "Fighting Love," which Nils Olaf Christander directed for Cecil B. DeMille and which will be on view at the Colonial theater for the last time today.

"Fighting Love" should be one of the screen's most unusual pictures for the five principal players in the play have almost equally important roles demanding of them the most virulent characterizations possible.

The film story was adopted from a novel by Iosida Forbes and was prepared for the screen by Deulah Marie Dix, noted novelist and scenarist. Jetta Goudal is the star and Victor Varconi and Henry H. Walthall are featured in her support.

"The Wizard" Fascinating Mystery Story

"The Wizard," Fox Films screen version of the big French stage hit "Hulala," by Gastin Leroux, with Edmund Lowe in the featured role and Ledyia Hyams in the feminine lead, had its premiere at the Star theater yesterday afternoon. This is a fascinating mystery drama, with many thrilling and suspense holding episodes and many scenes that brought peals of laughter from the audience.

The story is a fantastic one, in which a scientist trains a huge ape to seek his fancied vengeance of his master's enemies. Edmund Lowe as the reporter who solves the mystery of many strange doings by the ape gives a splendid performance, perhaps the best since his role as Sergeant Quirt in "What Price Glory." But every member of the fine cast seems to be at his or her best. Decidedly an entertainment that is sure to please everyone.

"The Wizard," a comedy and a late News Reel showing President Coolidge in Havana will be shown tonight for the last time at the Star theater.

Olive Borden Is Star In "Pajamas"

Olive Borden, petite Fox Films star, has probably never done anything finer than "Pajamas," a J. G. Blystone production at the Arcade theater today and Tuesday.

A comedy, for which Miss Borden seems particularly adapted, is given full rein by Mr. Blystone in the development of this story, written by William Conselman, and as a result Miss Borden is seen here in an entirely new light. It is natural comedy, however, something that grows logically from the action, and it fits the little Virginian to a nicety.

Some of the exterior shots in "Pajamas" are positively gorgeous and Miss Borden herself has seldom been photographed to better advantage.

Story material, revolving around the determination of a poor but energetic youth to make a little rich girl behave, furnishes basic situations for innumerable laughs in this down-to-the-minute comedy drama. The locale is ideal, centering about a palatial Long Island home and switching rapidly and colorfully to the majestic ranges of the Canadian Rockies.

Miss Borden, wearing pajamas during much of the action, is given some sparkling moments with

Young Lady: "I would like some trapezoid checks"

"I would like some trapezoid checks," said a young lady to a bank teller. "I wish you would mistake that dog of yours at night. His barking keeps my baby awake."

"I was going to request you to muzzle your baby," rejoined the teller. "His nightly howling annoys my dog."

The prize boob has been located. He wanted to know how it was possible to shoot craps unless the dice were loaded.

One sure way to turn people's heads is late to church.

It is a disgrace to grow in like manner to the original growth and again extends itself in the same way. More rapidly still it may go through the blood system because here there are no restraining strainers.

Cancer also spreads by infiltration of its cells into the zones about the starting point but this still is local, the other routes are systematic.

6. The cause? We cannot yet give you sure what it is that starts the body cell on its wild and lawless rampage, but persistent mild irritation is known to be an exciting factor of great importance. Those parts of the body exposed most to mechanical, chemical or physiological irritation are by far the most frequently affected.

7. In the beginning it is local and soon is destroyed utterly by a competent surgeon or radiologist. The main difficulty remains still to secure this opportune time for surgery, for, contrary to common belief, it is not painless in the beginning, and only becomes so when by reason of growth it encroaches or compresses or obstructs.

8. Is cancer on the increase? Perhaps—I do not know for sure. This much is true, first, that means of diagnosis have improved, therefore more are found, and second, because of the prolongation of life due to medical science, more people reach the cancer age to have cancer.

COLDS THAT DEVELOP INTO PNEUMONIA

Persistent coughs and colds lead to serious trouble. You can stop them now with Creomulsion, an emulsified croscote that is pleasant to take. Creomulsion is a new medical discovery with two-fold action; it soothes and heals the inflamed membranes and inhibits germ growth.

Of all known drugs, croscote is recognized by high medical authorities as one of the greatest healing agencies for persistent coughs and colds and other forms of throat troubles. Creomulsion contains, in addition to croscote, other healing elements which soothe and heal the inflamed membranes and stop the irritation and inflammation, while the croscote goes on to the stomach, is absorbed into the blood, attacks the seat of the trouble and checks the growth of the germs.

Creomulsion is guaranteed satisfactory in the treatment of persistent coughs and colds, bronchial asthma, bronchitis and other forms of respiratory diseases, and is excellent for building up the system after colds or flu. Money refunded if any cough or cold is not relieved after taking according to directions. Ask your druggist. (Adv.)
