Quarter Will Buy Meal, Dean Of Women Says

HUNTINGTON, W. Va. (AP)—Twenty-five cent meals that satisfy are possible for the housewife who is a good manager, asserts Miss Amanda Lee Beaumont, dean of women at Marshall college here.

"The girls at Marshall college are charged $5 a week for three meals daily. Here is a typical menu for a day:

Breakfast—Grapefruit, a cereal, eggs, toast and coffee or milk.

Lunch—Creamed salmon with peas on toast, mashed potatoes, celery, muffins, applesauce and milk.

Dinner—Roast beef, mashed po-

OFFICE CAT

City Chap: "Snakes very thick around here here."

Farmer: "Oh, 'bout as thick as your wrist."

There was once a man not unlike who imagined himself quite a shrike.

But the girls didn't fall for the fellow at all— He made only twenty a whip.

SOCIETY NOTE

Spray (N. C.) Arrow Messrs. B. M. and V. E. Tucker are all smiles with a ready mouth; they have killed hogs.

Women are constantly imposing on men. Nowadays when a man wants to scratch a match on the bottom of a cafe table, he runs afraid of a vial of gum.

Formerly a young man proposed to a young lady on his knees. He still does. The only difference is that he was on them. Now she is.

"My dear," said the old man tenderly, "today is our diamond wedding, and I have a little surprise for you."

"Yes?" asked the silver-haired wife.

He took her hand in his. "You see this engagement ring I gave you seventy-six years ago?"

"Yes?" said the expectant old lady.

"Well, I paid the final installment on it today, and I am proud to announce that it is now altogether yours."

Diner—How's the corn today, waiter?

Waiter—Simply killing me, sir.

Sandy's increasing redness of nose very much alarmed his brother Eddy, and a delegation waited on him to inquire the reason for the increasing color.

Sandy explained that "It is glawing 'er pride at never putting it-self in anybody's business."

According to a Boston physician kissing will be a thing of the past fifty years hence. Oh, well, we should worry.

"I tell my wife everything, absolutely everything," said Smith proudly.

"Ever tell her a lie?"

"Didn't I say that I tell her everything?"

tatoes, stringbeans, fruit salad, hot rolls, ice cream, cake and milk.

Holidays merit special menus with turkey and other delicacies. Miss Beaumont said.

"Careful buying and advance planning—keep down the food costs," the dean explained.

"Our dietician keeps her meals planned weeks ahead with her eye on possible market conditions, and doctors have pronounced her meals perfectly balanced."

"Buying in large quantities helps keep prices down, but any housewife can duplicate our cheap meals by careful planning."

"Surely these meals should satisfy even one with the appetite of a ditch digger."

WHAT'LL HE DO?

OMAHA—James W. Hough, 82, Civil war veteran, is wondering what to do with a legacy of $20,000. It costs him less than $1.50 a day to live and his pensions from the government and the northwestern railway, total $135 a month. The house is from his brother-in-law, Marvin Haughlitt, who was president of the North-western.

AT THE THEATERS

"Love and Learn" Features Esther Ralston

The disruption of a police department, and also the upsetting of a police court presided over by an ambitious young judge who has political aspirations, figures prominently in the latest Paramount picture featuring Esther Ralston in "Love and Learn" that comes to the Arcade theater on Sunday only.

The above situations do not exactly prompt one to believe that the blonde Esther Ralston would be capable of such doings, but she shows in "Love and Learn" that she is capable of more things than that. She even gets a husband in the bargain.

The theme of opportunity for patrons to forget all troubles and worries, as it is packed with laughs with the kind that are the most desired, those kind that are prompted by seeing one getting into difficulty through no fault of their own, and their subsequent efforts to get out of it.

Andre Beranger, who is fast becoming known as one of the screen's most versatile actors, plays the title role. The leading feminine role is portrayed by Barbara Kent, 1927 Wampas Star, who has been forging to the front by leaps and bounds during the past year. Gertrude Astor has an important part while other members of the cast are Ned Sparks, Carmelita Geraghty, Lucien Littlefield, Vera Lewis, Tom Dugan, and William Austin.

"The Small Bachelor" first appeared in Liberty Magazine where it was read and enjoyed by millions. It is a story of a bashful bachelor, who wins the girl of his heart after series of situations that keep one in a constant uproar of delight.

The entire action takes place in a period of twenty-four hours and consequently there is not a dull moment. It starts out with a chuckle, turns into a laugh and ends with a roar.

"Our Gang" offer a decided novelty in Hal Roach's latest M-G-M comedy "Dog Heaven," which will be part of the program at the Star theater Sunday and Monday. It is largely the story of the life of "Pete," the dog who lives in the garage of a building appearing regularly with the Gang as told by himself.

Proclaimed the maddest farce of the year, the picture embraces an all-star cast and was directed by William A. Seiter, ace of comedy directors, responsible for many of Reginald Denney's greatest successes.

IMPEACHED

Harry Cordell, president of the Oklahoma State Board of Agriculture, is one of three men impeached by the self-convened house of representatives of that state. Chief Justice Fred Branson and state supreme court and Governor Johnston also were impeached. The charges against Cordell and Branson were corruption.

This incident brings her the full sentence, and from then on, many mirth provoking situations occur. It is then that the picture becomes one of a rare comedy.

A Mickey McGuire comedy and Eddie Spring presenting a special number on the Grand sound out a most enjoyable program.
