LA GRANDE TEAM 10-POINT WINNER OVER PENDLETON

thrusts to go astray. Dewilde, who counted nine points in the first half, failed to score in the second although he shot as many times. The same thing held true for the other Pendleton players.

Stoddard's Guarding Feature
Stoddard, La Grande captain, turned in what many believed one of the best defensive games seen in years on a local floor. A natural ball-hawk, he seemed to anticipate every move and snatched them in mid-air time and again, breaking up many Buckaroo offensive drives. In addition to his defensive tactics, he scored three field baskets, one in the second half, after dribbling through the Pendleton defense, looming as one of the outstanding shots of the contest.

Hibberz, at forward, followed the ball constantly, his defensive game comparing favorably with his strong offense. Braden, although he attempted numerous long shots, and was not passing up to standard, looped three field baskets. H. Wolfe, center, and Herr, guard, played a tight defense and Wolfe, in addition, counted four field goals, all close shots.

Best Game of Season
In many respects, the La Grande team played its best game of the season last night, both on defense and offense. The basket shooting was more accurate than in previous games and the team work was good, most of the time.

Both teams were counting points after foul. La Grande shooting five out of 11 and Pendleton five out of nine.

The high school band played during intermissions last night.

Willos Granted 3-Month Reprieve

SALLEM, Ore., Jan. 28 (AP)—Instead of the usual one month reprieve for James Willos, accomplice of Ellsworth Kelly and others in the prison break of August 1925, Governor Patterson yesterday granted Willos a reprieve from the death penalty for three months. For many months reprieves have been granted Willos periodically pending disposition by the supreme court of Kelly's habeas corpus case.

Anemic

and listless children need spinal adjustments. Their condition is plain evidence of a lack of vitality which has its origin in an interference with nerve communication.

Better yet—adjustments in time prevent this condition.

To know the truth is half the battle of health. A spinal analysis via neuro-calometer readings, reveals the truth about your condition with unerring accuracy. Spinal adjustments bring a return to normal with surprising ease.

Music Programs To Be Heard In Local Churches

Visiting Ministers Will Speak from Two La Grande Pulpits During Tomorrow's Services.

Church programs in La Grande tomorrow promise to be of more than usual interest, with two special musical programs scheduled for the evening—in St. Peter's Episcopal and the First Methodist Episcopal and the First Methodist Episcopal speaking in two churches of the city, and the various local pastors bringing messages on important topics.

The Rev. F. S. Beistel, of Eugene, will speak at the English Lutheran church, Sunday night's service being the first of a series of three evangelistic services Sunday, Monday and Tuesday evenings, and the Rev. Harry Joseph Elliott, whose headquarters are at Nampa, Ida., will be at the Church of the Nazarene. The Rev. Mr. Elliott spoke at the Nazarene church last night and is again scheduled to speak there tonight and tomorrow night, also during the morning hour of worship tomorrow morning.

St. Peter's Episcopal Church
On Sunday evening the fifth of a series of musical programs will be given at St. Peter's Episcopal church, under the direction of Mrs. H. N. Ashby, in which several of the best vocalists of the city will take part. The public is invited to attend, and a large attendance is expected for the program, which has already been announced being unusually fine.

Mrs. R. G. McCall will be the organ accompanist and will play two organ selections during the program. Mrs. Ashby will sing two groups, Mrs. Leal Russell will sing one selection, G. S. Birnie will sing one number, and there will be two quartet numbers, those appearing in the quartet being Mrs. G. S. Birnie, Mrs. Leal Russell, Mrs. Ashby, and Miss Stoddard and G. S. Birnie. Mrs. Birnie furnishing the soprano part for one quartet number and Mrs. Ashby for the other. In addition to those numbers there will be an anthem by the church choir, two hymns and the regular opening and closing music and the offertory, for which Mrs. H. N. Ashby will be at the organ console.

During the regular church services, beginning at 7:30 o'clock and preceding the musical program the Rev. Oliver Riley, rector of the church will give a short address on the subject "A New Creation."

"The Christian Race" will be the subject on which Dr. Riley will speak during the morning hour of worship at 11 o'clock. This will be preceded by Holy Eucharist at 10 o'clock and church school at 9:45. Sunday morning's musical program will include "Sweet Story of Old" sung by the Happy Heart Guild and an anthem by the choir "The Infant King" by Kennedy.

The Wayfarers' Guild will meet at the church at six o'clock in the evening.

First M. E. Church
The choir will furnish the musical program which will be given at the First Methodist Episcopal church tomorrow evening, beginning at 7:30 o'clock. The program will open with the entire congregation singing the evening praise, after which there will be prayer and scripture reading by the pastor, the Rev. H. W. Taylor. The choir will sing "Heart's Weary Waiting Done" and a ten-voice solo of Mrs. H. V. Cooper, Mrs. R. P. Tyler and Miss Mina G. Cooper will sing "O Love That Will Not Let Me Go and Miss Mina Cooper and Mrs. C. E. Cooper will sing "Rock of Ages."

This will be followed by announcements and the offering after which the choir will again sing "How Beautiful Upon the Mountains." Miss Edna Blanchard will play a violin solo, selected and the choir will sing "I Know That My Redeemer Liveth," after which the service will close with a hymn, "Sally Now The Light," and the benediction by the pastor.

Island City Church
The Rev. H. I. Hansen, pastor of the Island City Community church will preach the first of a series of four sermons on the four-fold statement of purpose of the incarnation—the purpose to reveal the father, the purpose to put away sin, the purpose to destroy the work of the devil and the purpose of preparing for a second advent—Sunday morning at 11 o'clock. The subject for tomorrow will be "Christ Came to Reveal the Father."

The Sunday school meets at ten o'clock every Sunday morning and the Young People's society meets at seven o'clock in the evening.

Central Christian Church
The Suggestive Three Year Program will be the subject tomorrow morning at the Central church when the pentecost committee will submit the three year program for adoption. The service starts at 11 o'clock and in addition to the discussion of the subject there will be special music by the choir. The Bible school meets at 2:45 o'clock, preceding the church service. In the afternoon the volunteer workers will visit the shut-ins and conduct services.

The Christian Endeavor societies—the Junior, intermediate, young people and senior groups—will meet at 6:30 o'clock in the evening at the church. In the evening there will be an evangelistic service and a song service, with the choir and the orchestra assisting. The sermon subject will be "The Heart of the Gospel."

Bible school is held in the morning at 9:45 o'clock with classes for all ages. Morning church services are 11 o'clock when the pastor's theme will be "The Call of The Incomplete." A women's trio will sing "Lift Thine Eyes" by Elijah.

The Epworth League will meet in the evening at 6:30 o'clock at the church, when further study of "Christ of the Indian Road" will be made.

English Lutheran Church
The Rev. F. S. Beistel, of Eugene, field missionary of the Lutheran church for the state of Oregon, will preach the morning sermon at the English Lutheran church here Sunday morning on the subject "A Greater Church." Mr. Beistel comes to La Grande in the interest of the Ministerial Pensions Fund Campaign, which will take place throughout the United Lutheran church between Feb. 5 and Feb. 12. In addition to his talk Sunday morning he will conduct a series of three evangelistic services Sunday, Monday, and Tuesday evenings at the local Lutheran church. The meeting each evening will begin at 7:30 o'clock and the subjects will be: Sunday evening, "What Goes Into the Building," Monday evening, "Some Rocks in the Foundation," and Tuesday evening, "What's Growing in the Garden."

Sunday evening at 8 o'clock the women of the church will serve a luncheon in the church annex which will be followed by an informal program during which the Rev. Mr. Beistel will speak.

Church of the Nazarene
The Rev. Harry Joseph Elliott is a visitor at the Church of the Nazarene and will speak there both Sunday morning during the 11 o'clock worship hour and in the evening at 7:30 o'clock. During the evening service he will give the story of his life, which is one of extreme interest, and which he gives in his book "From Sinking Sand."

The Rev. Mr. Elliott spoke at the church last night and will speak again tonight at 7:30 o'clock. His copies are from Nampa, Ida., where he makes his headquarters.

The contest among the various classes of the Sunday school is creating great enthusiasm. At present the boys' class is in the lead, although other classes are making rapid progress. The school meets at 9:45 o'clock every Sunday morning. The Nazarene Young People's society meets at 6:30 o'clock. Paul Ross will be in charge of Sunday's meeting.

First Presbyterian Church
The Rev. J. George Walz, pastor of the First Presbyterian church will begin his pre-Easter series of sermons Sunday morning. "All truly wise thoughts have been thought already thousands of times, to make them ours we must think them over again honestly till they take root in a personal experience," Goethe says. The Rev. Mr. Walz wants to help his congregation in this, which he believes will contribute to constructive character building. His subject for this Sunday morning at 11 o'clock will be "The Chief Service of a Life on God's Plan." The choir will sing "Thine All Lovellness, Maria" by Agatha Deissler. Mrs. Harry Richardson will be at the organ console.

The evening Mr. Walz will continue his Bible study and the topic will be "The Springs of Character." Miss Edna Maguire will play for the prelude "Homage to Giesz" by Whitney and as the offertory "Alumblatt" by Ashford. The choir will sing "The King of Love" by Protheroe.

Church of God
The Rev. C. E. Carver will speak Sunday morning at 11 o'clock at the Church of God. The morning service will be preceded by Sunday school at 10 o'clock. The young people will meet at 6:45 o'clock in the evening and at 7:45 o'clock in the morning at 7:45 o'clock. Meetings are also held every Wednesday and Friday evenings at 7:45 o'clock.

Christian Scientist Church
Services are held regularly every Sunday morning at 11 o'clock at the First Church of Christ Scientist, corner of First street and Washington avenue. The subject for tomorrow morning is "Love." Sunday school meets at 9:45 o'clock. Meetings are also held every Wednesday evening at eight o'clock, which include testimony of healing. All are cordially invited to attend these services.

The reading room in the West-Jacobson building, corner of Adams avenue and Elm street, is open every day from 12 o'clock until 6:30, except Sundays and holidays.

Church of God
The Rev. C. E. Carver will speak Sunday morning at 11 o'clock at the Church of God. The morning service will be preceded by Sunday school at 10 o'clock. The young people will meet at 6:45 o'clock in the evening and at 7:45 o'clock in the morning at 7:45 o'clock. Meetings are also held every Wednesday and Friday evenings at 7:45 o'clock.

Adventist Church
Sunday evening at Home hall Evangelist Marsh will begin his second week of services here with a sermon on the great image of the second chapter of Daniel, following the prophecy through the rise and fall of the old world empires, the setting up of the ten kingdoms that at last crash in the downfall of the world and the second coming of Christ. It has been announced.

Wednesday he will speak on the subject "The Awakening of the Orient and the Battle of Armageddon." This sermon will be illustrated with numerous pictures and

$4,000,000 Fund Campaign Starts February Fifth

Lutheran Church Laymen Backing Drive Which Will Continue Until February 12.

PHILADELPHIA, Pa., Jan. 28.—Three laymen are the guiding spirits of the $4,000,000 Pension Fund Campaign which will begin in every congregation of the United Lutheran church in America Feb. 5, and which will include the entire United States and Canada in its scope.

As the three chief officers in the board of ministerial pensions and relief, these laymen form the only group of their kind in American religious life as the pension boards and systems of all other denominations are headed by clergymen. This fact makes the anticipated campaign a "laymen's movement" in the strictest sense of the word. The three men are Paul F. Myers, of Washington, D. C., president of the board; Peter P. Hagan of Philadelphia, Pa., treasurer; and Harry Hodges, secretary, also of Philadelphia.

Mr. Myers has two distinct services to his country accredited to him in addition to the service to his church. He is the author of the present income tax law, and during the late war, was in charge of the sale and distribution of the various Liberty loan issues that made victory in France possible. He outlined the methods by which the bonds were sold because of his position at that time as assistant commissioner of internal revenue in the United States treasury department.

Mr. Hodges' history is more intimately connected with the church which he now serves "full time," a thing he has been doing for many years in various other capacities. He took up his new duties as secretary of the board.

Methodist Church South
The Rev. J. A. Hall, pastor of the Methodist Episcopal church south will speak on the subject "God's Heavens Sky Line" Sunday morning during the 11 o'clock hour of worship. The evening subject will be "Filling Up to the Brim." Sunday school opens at 9:45 o'clock in the morning and the morning church service is at 11 o'clock. The Epworth League meets at 6:30 o'clock, followed by the regular evening church services at 7:30 o'clock. The public is invited to attend.

Lighthouse Gospel League
Sunday school meets at 10 o'clock and church services are at 11 o'clock in the morning and 7:45 in the evening at the Lighthouse Gospel Mission, 1602 Jefferson avenue. Meetings are also held every Wednesday and Friday evenings at 7:45 o'clock.

Church of God
The Rev. C. E. Carver will speak Sunday morning at 11 o'clock at the Church of God. The morning service will be preceded by Sunday school at 10 o'clock. The young people will meet at 6:45 o'clock in the evening and at 7:45 o'clock in the morning at 7:45 o'clock. Meetings are also held every Wednesday and Friday evenings at 7:45 o'clock.

THE REV. F. S. BEISTEL

The Rev. F. S. Beistel will speak at the English Lutheran church here Sunday, Monday and Tuesday evenings. He is here in the interest of the Ministerial Pensions Fund Campaign of his church.

WINNINGS

The Rev. C. E. Carver, of Redmond, Ore., will be here Sunday and will take part in the services of the Church of God.

There will be prayer meeting and Bible study at the Methodist Episcopal church south Wednesday evening at 7:30 o'clock.

The congregation of the Central Christian church will have a church night supper at the church at 6:30 o'clock Thursday evening, to be followed by Bible study at 7:30 o'clock.

The Rev. H. I. Hansen, pastor of the Island City Community church, will begin a series of four sermons Sunday to be given for the next four Sunday mornings on the four-fold statement of purpose of the incarnation.

Two new members have been added to the personnel of the choir of the First Presbyterian church, which is under the direction of Mrs. A. L. Richardson. The new members are Mrs. Andrew Loney Jr., and Mrs. G. R. Claycomb, Jr.

Next week the convocation of the Episcopal church will be held at Hesperia. Those from St. Peter's church here who expect to attend include the rector and Mrs. Oliver Riley, L. H. Russell, Mrs. Gray, Miss Helen Gray, Mrs. C. H. Gassett and Mrs. B. W. Carr.

On next Sunday morning the services at St. Peter's Episcopal church will be rendered by the boys' choir and the address will be given by their scout master, Robert C. Ayres. The choir will sing appropriate music.

The service at the Church of the Nazarene last night was well attended. The Rev. Harry Joseph Elliott was the speaker. He will speak again tonight and tomorrow morning and evening at the church.

The Rev. F. S. Beistel, of Eugene, who will be the speaker at the English Lutheran church tomorrow, will be the honor guest at a luncheon tomorrow evening at 6 o'clock in the church annex served by the women of the church. There will be an informal program during which time Mr. Beistel will speak.

The choir will furnish a special musical program at the First Methodist Episcopal church Sunday evening.

A choral society was organized in the English Lutheran church this week for the purpose of cultivating an appreciation for good church music. Anyone who is interested enough to take an active part in the organization is eligible for membership. The society will furnish all special music for the church and will give musical programs. Mrs. J. G. Stritzinger is president; Walter Pishman, vice president; Miss Anna Lottes, secretary-treasurer and Miss Emma Wurt, pianist.

81 Present For Mission School

A marked increase in interest and attendance at the Presbyterian church school of missions was evident Wednesday evening. Eighty-one were in the classes for study.

Mrs. A. S. Anderson, superintendent of the home department of the church, had more than 40 persons at her table for supper, which precedes the mission study classes.

The school is being conducted by the pastor, the Rev. J. George Walz, over a period of six weeks. Only two more weeks before the school will close. On Wednesday evening following the close of the school there will be a church social.
