Mrs. P. S. Robinson Presents Students In Music Recital

Mrs. P. S. Robinson presented 12 of her younger music students in recital at her home on Fourth street Saturday afternoon. A feature of the program was a demonstration by Miss Mildred Brack showing Mrs. Robinson's method of transposing, in which she transposed her numbers into three other keys. She played all of the major and minor arpeggios.

The program was one of interest and was attended by a large group of parents and friends.

A first number, "Love Birds" by Hilbro, played by Mildred and Bobby Brack, opened the program. Joanna Leslie played "Long, Long Ago" by Bayley and "Rondeau" by Mozart; Gerald Butcher gave a violin selection, "Romance" by Haver; Evelyn Griffith played a piano selection, "Rose Petals" by Lawson; and Mildred Brack played "Chiming" by MacLacklin.

Violin groups were presented by Ernest Bridges and Norma Hanks, the first group consisting of "Largo" by Handel and "Targhetto" by Fischer and the second, "Gavotte" by Gossec and "Album Leaf" by Greig. Josephine McHugh played "To a Brown Thrush" by Virgil and "Haunt of the Fairies" by Crosby and Margaret Davey played "Poney Skaters" by Lemont and "Marian Story" by Heller. "Song of the Pines" by Adair was played by Bobby Brack. "Song of the Katelyd" by Keen was given by Lynn Stephens, after which a violin selection, "Meditation" by Morrison, played by Anita Herman and a piano number, "Butterfly" by Merkel closed the program.

"Muscle of the Orient" will be the program subject for tomorrow afternoon's meeting of the La Grande Neighborhood Club, which will be held at the La Grande hotel with Mrs. Leo F. Miller in charge.

Mrs. Miller will give a talk on the subject, and several musical numbers will be given in costume. Miss Mildred Spencer will play a piano solo. Mrs. Leola Russell, Miss Daisy Robles and Paul Knutz will sing.

Mrs. Lois McLean, of Seattle, who will be in the city, a guest at the home of Mrs. Miller, will give several readings, which will add much to the interest of the program, and Misses Gilda Ashby and Jane Shantz will give an oriental dance. Mrs. H. N. Ashby will be piano accompanist for the entire program.

Proceeding the program, which will begin at about 3 o'clock, the regular business session of the club will be held.

Bridge Pointers

By Milton C. Work

Last week, in this series of articles, reference was made to cases in which the Declarer, when planning a campaign—as he should do at the start of the hand, is obliged to determine whether the adverse trumps should be exhausted immediately, or whether trump leading should be postponed until something that is part of the Declarer's plan has taken place.

As a general rule, the Declarer being strong in trumps, the best thing that he can do is to lead them and avoid the danger of an adverse ruff or ruffs; so it is safe to say lead trumps unless the hand shows some particular feature which makes some other plan of tactics more advisable in that case.

This is the sort of thing which the Declarer should determine by his examination of his two hands the moment that the Dummy is exposed. It is then that the sound player pauses and determines the plan of campaign that he will adopt. The careless player plays the card which seems to right without giving it due consideration; and is apt to find out a few tricks later that he has made a foolish choice, but it is then too late to correct it. In knowing that a campaign should be planned as soon as the Dummy hand is exposed, and in the ability to plan a sound campaign, the expert has a great advantage over the careless or inferior player.

I am giving today two hands which I call Nos. 1 and 2. In each South is the Dealer and Declarer, and Heart the trump. No adverse bid has been made. The score is love-all and the King of Clubs is the first card led. Make up your mind how the Declarer should plan his campaign in each case. Explanation will be given tomorrow.

Menus

By Sister Mary

BREAKFAST—Oranges, cereal, cream, creamed dried beef, popcorn, milk, coffee.

LUNCHEON—Veal and sausage rolls, creamed peas, tomato and banana salad, graham bread, milk, tea.

DINNER—Roast spareribs, scalloped sauerkraut and mashed potatoes, head lettuce with chiffonade dressing, canned green peas, filled cookies, milk, coffee.

A nice way to serve the spareribs and kraut dinner is to pile the vegetable mixture in a mound in the center of a large platter and arrange the ribs in a border around the vegetable. If the platter is heat proof it should be slipped into a hot oven to cook for about ten minutes. The fat from the ribs will blend with the vegetable mixture and the kraut slightly flavor the meat.

Filled Cookies
One cup butter, 1 cup sugar, 2 cups flour, 2 teaspoons baking powder, 2 eggs, 1 teaspoon vanilla. Cream butter and sugar and work in flour. A pastry mixer or the hand must be used for this work. Mix and sift baking powder with flour. Add eggs beaten until light. Add vanilla and stir to a smooth dough. Roll on a floured molding board, making a thin sheet. Cut out in rounds and from half the rounds cut out centers. Put the rings on the whole rounds. The centers and baked and frosted and garnished with a nut meat or raisin. Fill the cookies with hot filling and bake ten minutes in a moderate oven.

Filling
One-half pound prunes, 4 tablespoons orange juice, 1-3 cup sugar few grains salt, 2 tablespoons prune juice.

Wash prunes and simmer in one cup water until tender. Remove stones and chop flesh very fine. Add sugar, salt, orange juice and prune juice and cook until mixture is thick. Raisins, dates or figs can be used in place of prunes and lemon juice substituted for orange juice.

Sisters over the skin

Kipling's famous "Colonel's Lady and Judy O'Grady," who were "sisters under the skin," are sisters over the skin as well in these days when the latest and most authoritative fashion news is available to every woman in the advertising columns of her newspaper.

Today no woman's clothes need proclaim the thickness of her pocketbook. The advertisements which meet the eye of the woman accustomed to social secretaries and liveried chauffeurs, and guide her in her selection of a wardrobe—likewise greet and guide the young lady who earns her own living. And both may be thankful that advertising has forever banished the dowdy, frumpy "female."

Where will the waistline be? Bows at the cuffs, or not? "V" neck or square? How long—or how short? What materials does Paris favor? What colors are "being worn"? Those questions are answered for everyone—in the advertisements. And with the answers are coupled the names of manufacturers and merchants who make and sell materials, trimmings, accessories, on which you can rely. For those advertised names are advertised only because they are reliable. Otherwise you would probably never hear of them.

You can follow the advertised styles with assurance—and buy by advertised names with profit
