Oriental Music Program Given By Club Women

A program which was interesting, artistic and educational was given at yesterday afternoon's meeting of the Neighborhood club at the La Grande hotel, and was attended by about 200 club women, one of the largest attendances of the club year. Regular meetings the remainder of this year will be held at the hotel, and yesterday's gathering was the first.

Mrs. Leo F. Miller was the chairman in charge and the program presented was of unusual interest throughout. "Music of the Orient" was the program topic, and in oriental stage setting and oriental costumes added much to the music, readings and dances.

As an introduction to the program, Mrs. Miller appeared in a Chinese costume, a native wedding dress, which was brought to La Grande by Miss Geneva Sayre when she returned from China after a number of years spent there as a missionary, and introduced a little of the history of the music of the orient, and how it differs from other music. She played a Chinese scale as compared with the major scale and explained the difference. She called attention to the oriental scrolls and tapestries, which were used to decorate the stage, and which are owned by local people, and introduced a little Chinese boy and a little Chinese girl, Nancy Lee Lindsay and Marcia Miller, who were dressed in Chinese costume and were seated at either side of the stage.

The first program number announced by the chairman was an East Indian song, "Kashmiri" by Amy Woodford Flinden, sung by Paul Knautz, accompanied by Mrs. Knautz at the piano. As an encore Mrs. Knautz responded with "Shipmates O Mine."

Misses Jane Stange and Guida Ashby appeared in a clever oriental dance, which added to the atmosphere of the program. Mrs. H. N. Ashby was piano accompanist and Mrs. Miller and Mrs. Audmer Playle played violins. All were in oriental costume.

Miss Mildred Spencer appeared in the dress of the modern Chinese girl and played a Chinese piano group by Frital. The numbers were presented in a most capable manner and were enthusiastically received.

Miss Lois McLean, of Seattle, Wash., gave a group of Chinese nursery rhymes, translated into English. She was accompanied at the piano by Mrs. H. N. Ashby with music by Brainbridge Crist. So well was Mrs. McLean received that after the close of the regular program she again appeared in her own dress and gave several miscellaneous readings, all of which were received with much applause from the audience. The outstanding number was one entitled "Down With Men."

The closing number on the program was a second group of East Indian songs, "Out of the East" by Lester, sung by Mrs. Leal Russell, contralto. Mrs. Russell has a beautiful voice and the songs, which were difficult, were given with ease. Mrs. Ashby was her accompanist, and filled the position in a most capable manner.

During the business session, which preceded the program, Mrs. O. E. Waggoner was received as a member. Several announcements were made including one by Mrs. H. E. Dixon that the Monday Musical will sponsor a program once each month during the remainder of the year.

It was also announced that Mrs. J. G. Frankel, president of the Oregon Federation of Women's Clubs, would not be able to be here Feb. 21 as planned, because of the illness of her mother, and that visitors' day, which was formerly planned for that date will be observed at the next meeting, Feb. 14, when Mrs. Charles Playle will present a community service program. Mrs. H. G. Smith announced the meeting of the art department for Thursday of this week.

The Degree of Honor Protective association installed officers last night when the regular meeting was held at Eagles hall. Mrs. R. E. Swan, a past president of the association, was installing officer and the following officers were installed:

Estheline Herman, past president; Elizabeth Wate, president; Ethel Smith, first vice president; Edna

Owen, second vice president; Anna Warner, secretary; Julia Hiatt, treasurer; Edith Doan, usher; Louise Barnett, assistant usher; Evelyn Waldon, inner watch; Floris Vedder, outer watch; Marian Lyman, pianist; and Neulle Piper, captain of the drill team.

After the installation a social hour was enjoyed, when the retiring officers, Mrs. Herman, Mrs. Swan, Mrs. Robert Smith, Mrs. Waldon, Mrs. Wate, Mrs. Owen and Mrs. Julia Carey, served refreshments.

During the evening the past president, Mrs. Herman, was presented with a set of fosteria plates, Mrs. Wate, the new president, making the presentation. Mrs. Swan, the installing officer, was presented with a Degree of Honor past president's pin set in pearls.

It was decided that each meeting would make a dish fowel, worked with the initial of the association, and bring it to the next meeting.

An interesting program has been arranged for Friday afternoon, when the regular meeting of the Women's society of the First Baptist church will be held in the church basement. The women of the society will be assisted in the program by the children of the primary department of the church, and all mothers of the children have been invited to attend.

The affair will be in the form of a St. Valentine's day party, and the numbers on the program will be in keeping with this idea. Two o'clock is the hour set for the meeting, and Mrs. W. P. McAdory will be the hostess.

The first of a series of parties to be sponsored by the local encampment of the Odd Fellows' lodge was held in the local hall last evening and was declared a large success. Delegations were present from Elgin, Union and Cove, and an enjoyable evening was spent dancing, after which refreshments were served by the committee in charge.

A second entertainment of a similar nature will be given in the near future. The purpose of the parties is to bring the various lodges of the county in closer contact with one another.

Cove Club Hears Interesting Talk

COVE (Special)—The Women's club held its regular semi-monthly club held its regular semi-monthly meeting at the home of Mrs. J. W. Kellor on Thursday afternoon, Jan. 28. Eighteen women were present. Harley Richardson, of La Grande, gave a very interesting talk on the subject of "Interior Decoration."

The Women's club this year has identified itself with many interesting projects, and has sent $35 to the Doernbecher hospital, to a small bit in the aid of crippled children, and have also sent $6 to the scholarship fund.

ELGIN (Special)—The Women's Improvement club met Thursday at the home of Mrs. P. W. Kellor for a social afternoon. Plans were discussed for the play "Clubbing a Husband," which will be given in the near future. The cast has been chosen and practice will begin soon. Much amusement was derived from the Father Time grab bag, which was passed to each member by the hostess. Delicious refreshments were served by the committee. The following members were present: Mesdames J. W. Brown, S. L. Burnaugh, M. Allen, E. E. Arant, Earl Chandler, Benning, C. E. Hazen, E. Harmon, L. Denham, W. H. Russell, Hela Raasmussen, William Ekelstein, H. L. Shoemaker, McKinzie, F. Terpany, W. H. Henry and the hostess, Mrs. P. W. Kellor.

GRANGE HALL (Special)—Monday evening Mr. and Mrs. Joe Harrison entertained the members of the Monday Evening Piano club at their home here. Three tables of cards were at play during the evening and high score among the women went to Mrs. L. M. Hoyt. The men's prize was presented to Albert Wardell. Following the games the hostess served a two-course luncheon.

The Art Department of the La Grande Neighborhood club will meet at 2:15 o'clock tomorrow afternoon at the home of Mrs. C. E. Happersett.

The Fruitdale Parent-Teacher association will not meet this Friday, but will meet Friday, Feb. 10, instead, when a one-act play will be given by the members. An invitation is extended to all to attend.

The Willow Parent-Teacher association will meet Friday afternoon at 2:30 o'clock at the school house. Mrs. Young's pupils will sing and Mrs. W. T. Play will speak in the interest of campfire girl work.

The Home Department of the First Presbyterian church will meet at the home of Mrs. T. A. McKinstry, 1309 Fourth street, Thursday afternoon at 2:30 o'clock. All members and friends are requested to be present.

The Happier Home club will meet at the home of Mrs. Bessie McManus on Z avenue tomorrow night at 7:30 o'clock.

Bridge Pointers

CONTRACT BRIDGE

Continuing our series of articles on Contract Bridge, we take up today the most difficult point connected with that game—original suit-bids of two or more.

In Auction Bridge a suit of six or more cards headed by Ace-King-Queen with or without the other honors and with or without side strength, is the only holding which justifies an original suit-bid of two; but in Contract we depart from this very simple and informative bidding convention and make the Major two-bid mean that the partner may jump with less than normal support. The subject of jumps by the partner of the original bidder, the intervening adversary having passed, is one which will be considered as soon as our present topic—original suit-bids—has been concluded; but we are referring to it here as an explanation of why two of a suit in Contract does not convey as simple or definite a meaning as in Auction Bridge.

In Contract there is a wide gulf fixed between Major two-bids and Minor two-bids. We will consider the former first.

A Major two-bid tells the partner, if he has jumping strength in side suits, (what such strength is will be discussed when we come to jumps) that he is authorized to jump even without normal support in the suit he is jumping. Therefore the initial two-bid should not be made without such length and strength in the suit, that a jump by partner who holds no more than Trey-Duce (of the suit-bid) will be safe. To jump a one-bid to two, normal support is essential; but the two-bidder authorizes the jump with less than normal support.

The following hands are illustrations of the type with which initial Major two-bids should be made. Two-characterize them in general terms, they announce a hand which—without assistance from the partner—may be expected to take a minimum of six tricks and a probability of more, if the suit named be the trump.

Hand 2: ♠X-X, ♥K-Q-10-X-X, ♦A-K, ♣A-Q

JUNE ISN'T THE ONLY BRIDAL MONTH

(NEA Service, New York Bureau) New York society stages almost as many of its weddings in January as in June. Prettily typical of the mid-winter brides was Jane Carruthers, pictured here leaving fashionable St. Thomas' church after her marriage to G. Hilmer Lundbeck Jr.

PARISIAN CREATIONS FOR WORKING WOMEN

PARIS (AP)—Fashion houses which formerly catered exclusively to an idle aristocracy or moneyed society now are designing clothes for business women as well.

Models at fashion showings used to be designated exclusively by such titles as "Indolence," "Marmelade," "Fruity" or "A Morning in the Woods." Now an occasional brisk name like "My Desk," "Secretary" or "Businesslike" creeps into the list.

PARIS (AP)—From the snow fields where many members of society are watching the Olympic winter sports preparations, and taking part in less arduous competitions comes word that shades of tobacco brown are the most popular with women.

At St. Moritz circular skirted sport suits are among the smartest. They are worn with short fur lined jackets.

A few women are reported to be wearing their angora wool sweaters tucked under their skirt-bands and slightly bloused, instead of pulled over the skirt and belted as they have been worn for such a long time.

The Society for the Prevention of Useless Christmas Gifts must have failed terribly this year. Just look at the crime wave!

MENUS

By Sister Mary

BRREAKFAST—Baked winter pears, cereal, cream, crisp broiled bacon, creamed potatoes, milk, coffee.

LUNCHEON—Cream of spinach soup with spinach balls, open egg sandwiches, stuffed glass apples, milk, tea.

DINNER—English mutton chops, broiled, twice baked white potatoes, parsnip cakes, curly endive, canned peaches, spice cake, milk, coffee.

Caper sauce of a home-made relish should be served with the mutton chops. The caper chooses his meat sauce with great care and uses it, not to drown the flavor of the meat but to enhance and emphasize it.

Stuffed Glass Apples—Pare and core fine large apples. Cook in heavy strap to half cover. Baste and turn while cooking. When fruit is tender and clear but not broken remove from strap and cool. Pour remaining strap over and around the apples for it will form a jelly when cold. Moisten equal quantities of chopped nut meats and seeded and chopped raisins with orange marmalade.

Fill cavities of apples with mixture. Serve with a garnish of whipped cream slightly sweetened and flavored with a drop of vanilla.

Remember that four tablespoons of whipping cream will go a long way for garnishing.

The Ultimate in Bread

Years of work and experience in the art of baking have resulted in a loaf that will satisfy your every ideal of what bread should be.

We are proud to present Golden Crust Bread, because it represents our best efforts. No effort has been spared to make Golden Crust absolutely the finest, most nutritious, best tasting bread possible to be baked. Hundreds of people are buying Golden Crust every day because they like it and because it gives them exactly what they want.

When ordering from your grocer always ask him to include a loaf or two of Golden Crust. You'll like it.

Sisters over the skin

Kipling's famous "Colonel's Lady and Judy O'Grady," who were "sisters under the skin," are sisters over the skin as well in these days when the latest and most authoritative fashion news is available to every woman in the advertising columns of her newspaper.

Today no woman's clothes need proclaim the thickness of her pocketbook. The advertisements which meet the eye of the woman accustomed to social secretaries and liveried chauffeurs, and guide her in her selection of a wardrobe—likewise greet and guide the young lady who earns her own living. And both may be thankful that advertising has forever banished the dowdy, frumpy "female."

Where will the waistline be? Bows at the cuffs, or not? "V" neck or square? How long—or how short? What materials does Paris favor? What colors are "being worn"? Those questions are answered for everyone—in the advertisements. And with the answers are coupled the names of manufacturers and merchants who make and sell materials, trimmings, accessories, on which you can rely. For those advertised names are advertised only because they are reliable. Otherwise you would probably never hear of them.

You can follow the advertised styles with assurance—and buy by advertised names with profit
