EGG PRICES TAKE NEW DROP TODAY

Both Grades of Standards a Cent Lower—Firm Tone in Meats

PORTLAND, Ore., Feb. 2 (AP)—Egg prices took another drop today as the dairy exchange session yesterday afternoon with both grades of standards quoted a cent lower and medium extras a half cent down. Quotations in eastern centers. Receipts are on the increase with 1,588 cases reported yesterday. Storage holdings here are declining and it is not likely that much will go into storage until near the end of the month. Local consumption of eggs has increased materially the past week and the market here is in good shape. Butter remained steady at yesterday's trading session, with a small increase in storage holdings reported.

Meats Firmed
A firmer tone prevails in the country dressed meat division today with prices more stable than for several days. Beef prices are considerably below last week but the market is still rather uncertain and a wide range of prices are quoted on the different grades. Veal was moving around 17.0-18.0 this morning, with a few sales a shade higher. Pork was a trifle firmer than yesterday, around 12.0-13.0 for best light hogs. Lamb was also firmer, most offerings bringing 21.0-22.0.

Poultry prices continue steady to strong with demand good and receipts ample. Trading in the fruit and vegetable markets moves along at a quiet pace with seasonal growth stuffs attracting most attention. Ripe radishes, parsley and green onions are steady around 75c per dozen. Beets are bringing $1.15-1.25, white good spinach is scarce and in excellent demand at $2.00 per crate. Poorer stuff is plentiful around $1.00. Practically all offerings are from California. Sacked root vegetables are plentiful, regardless of the embargo which still keeps out much California stock.

Carrots are quoted at $2.00, radishes at $2.50-3.00; parsnips and turnips at $2.50. Potatoes and onions are steady with trading dull.
