SHARP REACTION IN EGG MARKET

Recent Rises in Quotations Fail to Hold—Butter Prices Drop

Standard extras receded a cent to 27¢, standard firsts dropped 1½¢ to 25½¢, and medium firsts and undressed both went down 2¢ to 22¢ a dozen. Commission men expect further drops within the next few weeks as the lay increases and start moving into storage.

Butter prices likewise turned downward at yesterday's meeting, standards dropping a cent and lower grades a half cent. Print butter prices receded in proportion, but buying prices for butterfat remained steady at 49¢ 52¢ delivered in Portland.

Poultry prices were steady for the most part at the opening of the market this morning, with demand good and undertone strong. Receipts were ample in most classes to satisfy demand except that few broilers were offered. Demand for geese and ducks was nominal, although quotations remained steady and offerings were light.

Beef Weaker Today
Beef was weaker today. Other classes of country dressed meats were steady to firm, with pork moving freely at a half cent increase at 13¢ for best light hogs. Lamb was likewise a shade higher, strictly choice offerings bring-
