Senior Class Tea Is Given For Mothers

One of the most largely attended teas to be held at the high school here took place yesterday afternoon when the members of the senior class entertained their mothers. The affair was in keeping with St. Valentine's day and the high school auditorium was attractively decorated with tall red candles and wreaths. Mrs. H. J. Peterson, president of the senior class, presided over the affair and gave a short talk, welcoming the mothers, after which a program was given. The school jazz orchestra, consisting of Benjamin Osterling, Clark Quinn, Harold Browning, Ed Hale and Henry Culp, played all numbers and Paul and Minnie played a piano duet, quartet, composed of Robert L. Tom Bruce, Lee Moser and an am Beickel sang and Miss Stange danced, accompanied by Barbara Hilt at the piano. The program tea was served on the stage, where the tables were cleverly arranged. Miss Edithson, class advisor, sponsored the tea. The other advisors of the class are Mrs. Bertha Hayes, W. W. Thomas, Mrs. Bernice Wilson had charge of decorating, Miss Virginia Nick was refreshment chairman and Miss Leah Brainwell acted as the program.

Members of the Tarawingo girls group and their piano, Miss Myrtle Hoyt, entertained a valentine party last evening at the home of Miss Marie Berg. Fourteen girls were present and games in keeping with St. Valentine's day were played during the evening. Decorations were in keeping with the occasion, dressed as the king and queen court and as George Washington and Martha Washington being the features. A valentine box, a part of the evening's entertainment, was served by Miss Marjorie Fallows.

Lloyd Young Is Bridge Hostess

Lloyd A. Young was hostess to Junior Bridge club yesterday afternoon at a bridge-luncheon at La Grande hotel. Luncheon served at 1:15 o'clock in the dining room, where covers laid for 12 on a large table. Pink carnations served as a centerpiece. Luncheon bridge was eaten in the east room on the mezzanine floor of the hotel. Mrs. Price made high score and consolation prize went to Mrs. Templeton. Mrs. Dale Cox will be hostess to club Friday, Feb. 24.

Gilbert Hunter was hostess to Island City Bridge club yesterday afternoon at her farm home. Tables of cards were at play during the afternoon and high score among the club members went to Mrs. Elmo Clegg. Mrs. Charles Binger received the guest prize.

After the card games the hostess served a two-course luncheon.

Mrs. Fred Kiddle will be the next hostess to the club Friday, Feb. 24.

Mr. and Mrs. Charles Graham entertained at an attractive bridge-dinner Thursday evening at their home on M avenue. Dinner was served at 7 o'clock, at one large table which was prettily decorated with a centerpiece of the season's flowers. Covers were laid for 16 and place cards and other details were in keeping with St. Valentine's day.

After dinner four tables of bridge were at play. Mr. and Mrs. Walter Palmer made high score and the consolation prize went to Mr. and Mrs. R. V. Copsy.

The Westway club met at the home of Mrs. Lillie Ledbetter Friday afternoon. About 29 members were present and Mrs. Floyd Westzel, president, presided over the meeting. After the business session the entertainment committee gave an interesting playlet entitled "Betty and Her Beans." Refreshments were served by the hostess committee, which included Mrs. Ledbetter, Mrs. Clarence Webb, Mrs. Helen Lane, Mrs. Mae Riley and Mrs. Nedro.

The club will meet Feb. 24 at the home of Mrs. E. N. Jensen.

A surprise party was given Thursday evening honoring Mr. and Mrs. Leo Hansen at their home on Adams avenue. Those present were Mr. and Mrs. H. F. Peterson, Mr. and Mrs. A. B. Turner, Mr. and Mrs. Bates, Mr. and Mrs. Stillwell, Mr. and Mrs. H. T. Edwards, Mrs. Taylor, Mr. Douglas and Mr. and Mrs. Hansen.

Mission Society Elects Officers

Officers of the Missionary society of the First Presbyterian church for the ensuing year were elected yesterday afternoon when the regular meeting of the society was held in the community room of the church. The report submitted by the nominating committee was unanimously accepted by the members of the society.

Mrs. Robert S. Eakin is the new president of the society. Mrs. J. B. Moe is vice president; Mrs. George Baker, treasurer; Mrs. J. P. Lewis, secretary; Mrs. Phil Thompson, secretary of literature; Mrs. O. E. Moran, secretary of overseas sewing; Dr. Margaret Ingle, secretary of stewardship; Mrs. William Miller, chairman of the program committee, and Mrs. H. H. Cleney, chairman of the mission study committee. Members of the nominating committee were Mrs. J. K. Wright, Mrs. O. E. Sutherland and Mrs. Lynn Holmenkamp.

Mrs. J. George Walz led in the afternoon's devotional service and Mrs. L. C. Brown had charge of the program. She told of missionary work in California, where she formerly made her home. Dr. Margaret Ingle read a paper giving facts and figures of the work of the Westminster society in the nine years of organization here. The society had now disbanded and has joined the Missionary society.

Before adjournment the hostess committee, Mrs. O. L. MacDowell, chairman, Mrs. H. H. Cleaver, Mrs. W. S. Snook and Mrs. H. G. Smith, served refreshments.

The Victory Sunday school class of the Central Christian church entertained at a valentine party last night for the intermediate department of the Sunday school. About 29 members of the department were present and valentine games were enjoyed during the evening. The party was held in the basement of the church and the room was decorated with red and white valentine colors.

During the evening the class presented the teacher, Mrs. Frank Hardesty, with a valentine box of candy in appreciation of her work with the class.

At an appropriate hour refreshments were served by the committee in charge, Gladys Boswell, chairman, Lenore Putnam, Violet Vanderford and Marguerite White, assisted by Mrs. Hardesty and Marian Nelson.

The Young People's Sunday school class of the Central Christian church enjoyed a social meeting last evening at the home of the teacher, Mrs. R. L. Putnam. About 20 young people, including several guests, were present and during the evening games in keeping with St. Valentine's day were played. A valentine basket was a feature of the evening, which was enjoyed by everyone present.

At an appropriate hour refreshments were served by the social committee, headed by William Snodgrass.

The Epworth league of the Methodist Episcopal church south held a valentine party at the parsonage Thursday evening, with about 40 young people in attendance. Appropriate games were enjoyed during the evening, and at a late hour refreshments were served.

Division A of the Loyal Sisters Aid society of the Central Christian church had an all-day meeting Thursday at the church, which was in the form of a quilting bee. About 20 members of the division were present and during the business session plans were made for a cooked food sale to be held Feb. 18.

Mrs. George Rochester is chairman.

At noon a potluck lunch was enjoyed.

Woman's Club In Interesting Meet

UNION (Special)—A program of much interest was given at Thursday afternoon's meeting of the Woman's club at the home of Mrs. E. E. Parsel, with Mrs. Roy Conklin as assisting hostess. There was a large attendance and Mrs. Walter Cook, assisted by Mrs. W. Hutchinson, had charge of the program. "English Artists" was the subject, and Mrs. Cook gave a sketch of the life of the English artist, Turner, and also gave a description of two of his paintings, "Fighting Temeraire" and "Ulysses Deriding Polyphemus." Mrs. Hutchinson read the life of another English artist, Burne-Jones, and described his most famous painting, "The Golden Stairs."

A picture contest followed the program, with Mrs. W. H. Vogel and Mrs. Dora Myers as leaders. There were 19 contestants, five on each side, and 25 pictures of which each contestant had to give the name and artist. Time and accuracy were the points counted, and Mrs. Vogel's side won with an average of four minutes and two and one-half seconds. The highest individual score was 25 seconds made by Mrs. Adrain Goodhead.

During the business meeting, which preceded the program, a motion picture was shown to the Doernbecher hospital in Portland. Mrs. J. F. Hutchinson, chairman of the "Negro Vaudeville" committee, reported that the entertainment was progressing nicely. This vaudeville is sponsored by the club and will be given Friday evening, Feb. 24, at the gymnasium.

Mrs. S. E. Miller read a communication from Mrs. Jessie D. McComb, chairman of the American Federation of Women's clubs, of Corvallis, urging that delegates attend the state convention to be held in Portland March 24 and 25. She also read an account of the death of J. A. Dunbar, of Portland, husband of Mrs. Sadie Orr-Dunbar, a past president of the Oregon federation.

After the meeting the hostesses served refreshments.

UNION (Special)—The marriage of Miss Viola E. Mikewell and Walter M. Jackson, both of Union, was solemnized Saturday evening at the Methodist Episcopal church here, the Rev. R. C. Lee reading the ring ceremony.

The couple was attended by Miss Agnes Jackson, sister of the bridegroom, and George Hill. Only immediate relatives and a few intimate friends were present. Immediately following the ceremony the young couple, accompanied by Miss Agnes Jackson, George Hill, Miss Luella Delaney and Jack Griffith, drove to La Grande, where a wedding dinner was served.

Mr. and Mrs. Jackson left Sunday for Keating, where they will make their home.

UNION (Special)—Miss Rose Kofford and Routen Greenwood, both of Union, were quietly married Sunday evening, Feb. 5, at the home of Bishop and Mrs. Jacob Kohler, Bishop Kohler of the L. D. S. church performing the ceremony.

Miss Alma Graham and Wallace Greenwood were the only witnesses.

Mr. and Mrs. Greenwood are now at home to their many friends in North Union.

UNION (Special)—Mrs. George Winship was hostess to the members of the Lucky Thirteen club at an attractive 1:15 o'clock luncheon Friday afternoon at the Union hotel. Covers were laid for 13 around a table prettily decorated with potted flowers. Following luncheon the guests were taken to the Winship home in North Union, where three tables of bridge were formed. Mrs. Fred Fox made high score and Mrs. J. F. Hutchinson received the consolation prize.

UNION (Special)—The Woman's Christian Temperance union met Wednesday afternoon at the home of Mrs. E. E. Parsel in North Union with Mrs. Viola Parker as hostess.

After the regular business meeting a short program was given, followed by a social hour, when the hostess served refreshments.

UNION (Special)—About 11 members of the Altar society of the Catholic church met Wednesday afternoon at the home of Mrs.

What Household Electricity Costs in Eastern Oregon

The average yearly bill for household Electric Service in the territory of this company is shown by our 1927 records to be

$30.34

Of course we have customers whose Electric Service bills exceed $100 a year and others who use our service for a small amount of lighting only.

But the average of all our customers for Electric Service for lighting and the operation of the appliances which they have, is $30.34.

This is about $2.50 a month, 63 cents a week, or slightly over 8 cents per day—less than the price of a cigar a day—or less for the month's electric service, than an auto ride requiring 10 gallons of gas.

Many of our customers are beginning to see how cheap our Electric Service really is and are starting to use it for every possible home purpose.
