UNION PERSONALS

UNION (Special)—Mrs. A. E. Wilson returned Sunday to her home at Imbler, after spending the past two weeks here at the home of her son-in-law and daughter, Mr. and Mrs. Fred Fox.

The home of Mrs. Mae Delap in South Union was placed under quarantine last Friday for scarlet fever. Mrs. Delap's daughter, Mary Nell Haight, being ill of it. The school was dismissed the same day and the building thoroughly fumigated in order that the disease will not be spread. This is the first case of isolation for contagious diseases to exist at Union this winter.

G. I. Hess left Tuesday morning for Portland to attend the automobile show.

Mrs. William Hutchinson and daughter, Wilma, have returned from North Union where they spent several days visiting with relatives.

Mrs. J. A. Peterson is spending this week in La Grande visiting at the home of her daughter, Mrs. W. D. Hanks.

Miss Edna Levy has returned home from a three-months visit in Portland.

Mrs. Mary Hutchinson left Sunday for Portland where she will spend a couple of weeks visiting two daughters, Mrs. T. E. Laughlin and Mrs. J. H. Hunter.

The Union girls' basketball team defeated the North Powder team Tuesday evening at North Powder with a score of 28 to 24. Among those from here attending the game were Helen Johnson, Clara Voss, Helen Leona Spry, Ralph Taylor, Mrs. Ralph Smith, Mr. and Mrs. Ben Joy, Amarells Knight, Tony Smith, Clark Martens, Zella Peterson, Mr. and Mrs. Adrain Goodbrod, John Wortman and daughter, Gladys, Louene Hutchinson and Ellis Hess.

Word was received here this week of the death of Edward Gillespie, who passed away at his home at Welser, Idaho, last Wednesday. Mr. and Mrs. Gillespie were formerly of Union, where they owned a farm and lived for many years, later operating a laundry in Union. They moved from Union to Welser about two months ago.

A baby girl was born Thursday evening to Mr. and Mrs. Guy Berry at their home in La Grande. Mrs. Berry was formerly Evelyn Van Houton, of Union.

Mr. Albert Fisher and small son, of Caldwell, Idaho, are visiting at Union at the home of her parents, Mr. and Mrs. E. P. Geerts.

Miss Mabel Gale returned Tuesday from Baker where she had been the past three weeks visiting.

AT THE THEATERS

Mexico doesn't fool with politicians. When there are surplus candidates they line them up against a stone wall and shoot them full of holes.

"They sat silently for a long time the clerk pulled his tie a little tighter, hitched up his trousers, and spoke a little nervously."

"What are you thinking about?" he asked. He knew he was expected to say something.

The maiden looked away, blushed, and moved uneasily in her chair. "Never mind," she answered sharply. "It's your business to propose, not mine."

One way to build the world's greatest navy would be for the ladies to contribute the money they now spend for cosmetics.

Judge (in assault and battery case)—What weapon did you use to reduce the complainant to this condition?

Defendant (proudly)—No weapon at all, yer honor. It was all hand work.

A careful contractor, bidding in competition with a bunch of fly-by-nighters, rushed into an architect's office to explain that he had forgotten to send in all his bid.

"The bid I sent in didn't include the brick work, plastering and cement work," he explained, excitedly.

"Oh, that's all right," said the architect, "you weren't low anyway?"

A small boy, accompanied by two dogs, was accosted by a woman. "Do these dogs have licenses?" she asked. "No'm," he responded. "The big one is all right but the little one is just full of 'em."

Mrs. Brown—"My husband is one of the most generous of men."

Mrs. Hobbs—"That's nice."

"Yes; I gave him a box of cigars for his birthday, and he's given them all away to his friends. He hasn't smoked a single one himself."

"When the Wife's Away" At Colonial Today

Humor strikes at every age, but it varies as the years move on. Youth laughs loudly. Dignified middle age chuckles and old age smiles.

With this thought in mind, Frank R. Strayer directed the Columbia picture, "When the Wife's Away," now showing at the Colonial theater.

For youth there is the young married couple who try to deceive an uncle into the belief that they have built a fortune from their own efforts when their income is something less than thirty dollars a week. They're funny on the face of it.

For middle age there are the knowing detectives who actually know less than anyone else about the ramifications and the complications of the plot.

For age there are the crabbed uncle and the dignified aunt who have come to believe that life has taught them all it knows.

With this triple combination Strayer selected a cast of comedy stars—George K. Arthur and Dorothy Revier, for the leads; and such stage and screen humorists as Tom Ricketts, Ned Sparks, Harry Depp, Lincoln Plummer, Bobbie Donn and Ina Torke.

After an intensive canvass of the entire film industry, Alec H. Francis was selected to play the title role in "The Shepherd of the Hills." Milly O'Day and John Holes were chosen to carry the romantic burden; Matthew Heta to play the villain role and Romaine Fielding to enact the part of the Quark patriarch, "Old Matt."

Other notable figures in the cast are Orla Harlan, Joseph Bennett, Maurice Murphy, Carl Stockade, Marion Douglas, and John Westwood. Beautiful photography that enhances the entertainment quality of the whole production was contributed by Sol Toito and his staff of cinematographers. Part of the picture was filmed in the Ozarks and in Utah.

COLDS THAT DEVELOP INTO PNEUMONIA

Persistent coughs and colds lead to serious trouble. You can stop them now with Creomulsion, an emulsified creosote that is pleasant to take. Creomulsion is a new medical discovery with two-fold action; it soothes and heals the inflamed membranes and inhibits germ growth.

Of all known drugs, creosote is recognized by high medical authorities as one of the greatest healing agents for persistent coughs and colds and other forms of throat troubles. Creomulsion contains, in addition to creosote, other healing elements which soothe and heal the inflamed membranes and stop the irritation and inflammation while the creosote goes on to the stomach, is absorbed into the blood, attacks the seat of the trouble and checks the growth of the germs.

Creomulsion is guaranteed satisfactory in the treatment of persistent coughs and colds, bronchial asthma, bronchitis and other forms of respiratory diseases, and is excellent for building up the system after colds or flu. Money refunded if any cough or cold is not relieved after taking according to directions. Ask your druggist. (adv.)

W. P. LAROCHE DIES

PORTLAND, Ore., Feb. 12 (AP)—Walter P. Laroche, prominent Portland attorney, died today at a hospital after seven weeks' illness. He was city attorney for several years, resigning in 1924 to become chief counsel for John L. Elber, ridge, bond broker. Later he was appointed attorney for the Portland dock commission.

Mr. Laroche was married and lived with his daughter, Mrs. F. O. Brinkshaw.

S. E. Miller, president of the Union Livestock Show association, has called a meeting for Wednesday evening, for the purpose of electing officers for the ensuing year and discuss plans for the 1928 show.

Mrs. F. W. Sorenson was shopping in La Grande Monday.

Mr. and Mrs. William Landers returned to Medical Springs Wednesday after a few days visit with relatives here.

L. B. Anderson, owner of the Shoe Repair shop, has purchased the Holly harness stock and will have his shoe shop in connection with the harness shop in that location.

"French Dressing" Scores As Comedy of Paris

A delightful story, which unfolds with real sparkle, is "French Dressing," which opened yesterday at the Star theater and which will be shown again tonight for the last time.

The plot is both amusing and sincere, and tells the story of a cold little Boston wife who really learned how to live through a trip to Paris. Lois Wilson is the wife, and her transformation from the prim Boston matron, with long tresses in the beautiful girl with bobbed hair and Paris gowns, is realistically portrayed under the expert direction of Allan Dwan. It may be added that Miss Wilson has never looked more lovely in her screen career than she does in this picture. No one who sees Lois in this film will ever regret that she bobbed her hair.

In fact, throughout the picture, the cast does excellent work. H. H.
