Mrs. Silverthorn Complimented At Art Club Meeting

Among the many affairs given this week in honor of Mrs. O. E. Silverthorn, who plans to leave La Grande soon, was an attractive luncheon yesterday afternoon at the home of Mrs. George S. Birnie on Fourth street, given by the members of the Ramblers' Art club, of which she is a charter member.

Luncheon was served at 1:15 o'clock at two large tables, where covers were laid for 18. Bouquets of sweetpeas formed a pretty centerpiece for each table and an excellent luncheon was served.

Mrs. Silverthorn was one of the first to join the Ramblers' club when it was organized nearly 20 years ago, and she has since been an active worker in the organization. In appreciation of her work she was presented with a gift yesterday by members of the club.

Luncheon was followed by the regular study program, each member present bringing a note of interesting modern art.

Members of the Monday Bridge club met for luncheon yesterday afternoon at the Foley hotel, after which three tables of bridge were at play at the home of Mrs. Charles A. Hingaman. Seasonal flowers were used as a centerpiece for the luncheon table, around which covers were laid for 12.

Mrs. Donald Pogue made high score among the club members during the afternoon's games and the guest prize went to Mrs. John Griffin.

Mrs. A. T. Hill will be hostess to the club Monday, Feb. 27.

Mrs. H. W. Riley was hostess to the Wake-elita Bridge club yesterday afternoon at her home on Madison avenue, when three tables of bridge were at play. Mrs. James O'neal made high score among the club members, the second prize went to Mrs. Claude Berry and Mrs. Clyde Hoppel received the guest prize.

Decorations were in keeping with St. Valentine's day. Potted flowers were used. The hostess served a two-course luncheon following the card games.

Mrs. Alvah Crowley will be hostess to the club next Monday, Feb. 20.

Mr. and Mrs. L. M. Hoy entertained the members of the Island City Pinochle club last evening at their home on Main avenue. Three tables were at play and high score among the women went to Mrs. Joe Harrison and the men's prize to William Mitchell.

The home was attractively decorated in keeping with St. Valentine's day. Good confections were the flowers used. After the evening's card games the hostess served a two-course luncheon.

Plans Completed For Elks Banquet

Plans are now complete for the B. P. O. Elks annual banquet and ball, which will be held Wednesday evening, Feb. 22—George Washington's birthday. The banquet and program will be held in the Scandinavia Inn, beginning at 5:30 o'clock, and immediately following, at 9 o'clock, dancing will start at the Elks' home here.

This event is the annual Elks home-coming and is one which every member of the lodge should attend. The committees in charge are making every possible effort to make the affair an enjoyable and successful one, and interesting speakers have been obtained for the program, in addition to several musical numbers.

Fred E. Kiddie will preside as toastmaster, and talks will be given by A. T. Hill, president of the city commission; H. L. Hess, a past exalted ruler of the local lodge, and ex-Governor Walter M. Pierce. Mr. Hill will talk on "Our City," Mr. Hess "Our Order" and Mr. Pierce "Our Sisters, Wives and Sweethearts." Raymond O. Williams will sing a baritone solo, Mrs. A. K. Parker, of Enterprise, will sing a soprano solo and the Neighborhood club violin quartet, consisting of Mrs. Leo Miller, director, Mrs. Audmer Playle, Mrs. Roy Farnum, and Mrs. Emmett Smith, with Mrs. George Birnie as piano accompanist, will play.

The banquet menu follows: oyster cocktail, ripe olives, celery hearts, quon olives, sweet burr gherkins, fruit salad, consommé, roast young turkey with dressing, baked salmon or chicken, cranberry sauce, giblet gravy, whipped cream potatoes, creamed carrots and peas.

Helm's dance band will furnish music for the dancing at the Elks' home following the banquet. Cards, dancing and music will be the entertainment feature after 9 o'clock.

Hugh E. Brady, exalted ruler of the La Grande lodge, will give the 11 o'clock toast, which is a custom of the lodge.

Saturday, Feb. 18, Oliver P. Morton relief corps No. 37 will serve dinner at the K. P. hall for all Grand Army of the Republic members. Mrs. J. Koehnenparger is chairman of the committee in charge, and assisting her on the committee are Mrs. B. J. Kitchin, Mrs. Hais, Mrs. Kennedy, Mrs. Ed Lyons, Mrs. Murray and Mrs. March.

This is the regular dinner meeting of the relief corps and will be followed by a program and business session.

The members of the Tatapolon campfire girl group met at the home of Miss Mary Bantz for a business and song meeting Friday night. During the business session plans were made for a home-made candy sale to be held Saturday, Feb. 18. Before adjournment lunch was served by Misses Mary and Ada Lillian Bantz.

Those present were Henri Herling, the guardian of the group, Pauline LaFroisier, Evelyn Piper, Mary Bantz, Edna Brown, Mildred Shumate, Atha Damerell and Josephine Moony.

Endeavorers Join In Social Meeting

Fifty young people, including a delegation of seven Christian Endeavor members from Elgin, and representatives from the Epworth league of the First Methodist Episcopal church and the W. A. C. guild of St. Peter's Episcopal church, gathered at the First Presbyterian church here last night for a social time.

Dallas Rice, Christian Endeavor field secretary of the Presbyterian church for Oregon, was a guest, and he gave an interesting talk to the young people on the work of the society, comparing it with the working parts of an automobile. Miss Hulda Anderson led in a short devotional service.

After Mr. Rice's talk the remainder of the evening was spent socially, during which Mr. Rice conducted games, introducing several new ones. Refreshments were served at an appropriate hour.

Mr. Rice left last night following the meeting, for Portland, where he makes his headquarters.

Miss Dorothy Hughsmith, who will leave Friday for The Dalles to "make her home," was the inspiration for a miscellaneous shower given last evening by the girls of the C. W. C. class of the Baptist Sunday school, at the home of the teacher, Mrs. C. E. Happersett.

There are seven girls in the class and all were present. Games and visiting were enjoyed, after which luncheon was served by the hostess, Mrs. Happersett.

Forty members of the Marytha Sunday school class and their families gathered in the basement of the First Methodist Episcopal church last evening for a potluck dinner, after which games were enjoyed.

A business session followed the games, presided over by Mrs. Melvin Galbraith, president of the class. Mrs. McAnulty, Mrs. Piper and Mrs. Broomfield were appointed members of a committee to arrange the program for the next meeting of the class.

Members of the Junior Christian Endeavor society of the Central Christian church enjoyed a Valentine social last evening in the basement of the church, with Mrs. H. G. Voruz, superintendent of the junior department, in charge. Games appropriate for the oc-

Candy Making Bee At Grange Hall

GRANGE HALL (Special)—The home of Mr. and Mrs. T. D. Smith was the scene of much merry-making Saturday evening when 18 young people were entertained at a candy-making bee. Early in the evening all took part in playing indoor horseshoes and other games. Following the games, the choosing of partners by matching candy hearts took place. Then each boy and each girl was provided with an apron, each couple given a pan and a spoon and was requested to make a batch of some kind of candy. Candies of all kinds were made and after refreshments, conasting of oranges and bananas were served, these plates of sweetmeats were passed to the guests. Games were played till the party broke up at 12:30 o'clock.

GRANGE HALL (Special)—Mr. and Mrs. Charles Gekeler entertained a number of relatives at dinner yesterday at their home here. The guests included Mrs. Sylvia Foster and son, Wayne, of La Grande, Mr. and Mrs. Enoch Johnson of Hot Lake and George Johnson, of Alford.

NORTH POWDER (Special)—Mrs. Henrietta Jacobs entertained the "500" club at her home Thursday afternoon. Luncheon was served at 1:30, after which "500" was played. The table decorations and score cards were in keeping with St. Valentine's day. Guests present besides the club members were Mrs. Madford and Mrs. Fogg, of La Grande, Mrs. George Clark, of Union, and Mrs. Al Rands, of North Powder. High score was made by Mrs. Stella Garrison and Mrs. Dora Wilson received the consolation prize.

"Hoot, Mon, Luckies dinna hurt my throat or wind," says Sir Harry Lauder, celebrated star

"It takes a Scotchman to truly appreciate that wonderful toasted flavor that comes in Lucky Strikes. I've smoked Luckies for years and all this time I've been active in my work which demands a clear voice for singing and good wind for dancing. And so I say to Sandy McGregor, 'It's always a bra bricht moonlicht night with Luckies—Hoot, Mon, they dinna hurt my wind or throat.'"
